

34 Fraternities, AIM To Hold Parties

By MARY STARK

IFC week-end brought Ray Anthony last night, and tonight brings the fabulous house parties. Fraternities will be transformed to Parisian nightclubs, prisons, south sea islands, and—go see for yourself. Week-day students will disguise themselves as prisoners, gamblers, Romans, cowboys and nondescript nonentities.

Making a big splash with an informal dance and houseparty is AIM. The dance is open to all and will be in the West Dorm lounge from 9-12 o'clock. Ray Evert and his Artists in Melody will play.

Tonight the sweetheart of Acacia will be crowned at the formal sweetheart dance. All on campus, classified or not, are eligible for the Drafee Drag at Alpha Chi Rho. Alpha Chi Sigma has typically derelict decorations for their Hobo Hop, including a huge hobo face erected in front of the house. Paul McWilliams and his orchestra will send you "out of this world" at the Alpha Epsilon Pi party based on an outer space theme.

The Alpha Gamma Rho and Alpha Tau Omega houses will no doubt be decorated comically enough for their cartoon cut-up parties. All juvenile minded Penn Staters are welcome to flock to Alpha Zeta's children's party. It's decorated like a nursery, yet.

Beta Sigma Rho's formal dinner-dance will go on board a Showboat. The Statesmen will furnish the music. Amigos at Beta Theta Pi's Beta Hacienda will be served dinner cabaret style. A formal dance will follow the dinner.

Delta Chi is entertaining at the annual Ranch Dance. French cabaret parties are the order of the day for Alpha Sigma Phi, Phi Kappa, Sigma Phi Epsilon, and Theta Chi. French atmosphere will be faithfully reproduced by French newsstands, posters, and flags. Phi Kappa will have a reasonably facsimile of the Arch of Triumph raised over the front door.

South Pacific's secret island, Bali Hai, will be found in the jungle decorated rooms of Delta Tau Delta. Kappa Delta Rho is holding a strictly formal pledge dance tonight with the house decorated in a castle motif.

The Lambda Chi Alpha house tonight will resemble a prison to give a jail-like atmosphere to the Lambda Chi Alcatraz. A Bookies Brawl is going to take place at Phi Epsilon Pi. Grass huts, palm trees, drums and grass-skirted co-eds will be part of the scene at Phi Gamma Delta's annual Fiji island dance.

Phi Kappa Psi will imitate the Roaring Twenties at a party based on a speakeasy theme. Bacchus, the greek god of wine, is to be honored at the Bacchanal party at Phi Kappa Sigma. Phi Kappa Tau is holding the annual Milkman's Matinee this afternoon from 2 to 3 p.m. If you want a good time, drop in.

True prison atmosphere will prevail at the Prison Playhouse of Phi Sigma Delta. Suppressed desires will be exposed at the Phi Sigma Kappa party. Decorations as well as costumes will show suppressed desires.

Pi Kappa Alpha's Dream Girl dinner-dance is to be held at the Nittany Lion inn. Judges for the selection of the PiKA dream girl will be the coaches of the various sports teams on campus. Mr. and Mrs. William Jeffrey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Werner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Engle, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thiel will attend.

Tonight is Pi Kappa Phi's annual formal Rose Bowl dance. The Pi Phi queen is to be crowned under a canopy of spun glass supported by gold and white poles. Al Capp characters will decorate the Sigma Phi Alpha house for the pledge dance... the Dogpatch Hop. A jazz band is playing for Sigma Phi Sigma at an open and informal dance.

Both Sigma Pi and Tau Kappa Epsilon are holding an annual Orchid dance tonight. Unique in the decorations at Sigma Pi is a waterfall and fountain built beneath the staircase. At TKE there is a stream with goldfish flowing in front of the bandstand.

Arabian Nights comes to campus at the Theta Kappa Phi house. The band will be set up under a huge white tent. Triangle presupposes the coming of spring with a Vernal Equinox Frolic.

A room made up to resemble a bar in the days of the old west will be the scene of Zeta Beta Tau's cow-boy party. Omega Psi Phi presented a Bagdad ball last night.

Aside from Chi Phi's formal dinner dance, the remaining Penn State fraternities are having only the usual Saturday night get-togethers.

In 1939, Penn State ranked 20th in size of student body, yet accepted only half the number of qualified students.
