

Candidates Meet The Press

—Collegian Photo by McNeillie

JAMES WORTH, State party candidate for All-College president, ponders a question asked by staffers of the Daily Collegian at the Political Mixer in the TUB last night. Seated at the press table are: (left to right) Dean Gladfelter, John Ashbrook, and George Glazer.

Candidates Queried At Collegian Mixer

By MARY KRASNANSKY

Lion and State party candidates for seats on All-College cabinet answered questions in a 45-minute "Meet the Press" session sponsored by the Daily Collegian last night in the TUB.

A sparse crowd of less than 100 attended the election-eve mixer. Skip Reider and his orchestra provided the dance music.

On the receiving end of the questions were James Worth, State, and Clair George, Lion, candidates for president; Harry Cover, State, and Ray Evert, Lion, for vice-president; Thomas Jurchak, State, and William Klisanin, Lion, for secretary-treasurer; and David Olmsted, State, and John Stoudt, Lion, for senior class president.

All Introduced

Answering a question as to the fate of the Student Union assessment should it be impossible to go ahead with construction, Worth and George came up with different opinions. Worth felt that the assessment should be continued, but at a reduced rate. George favored dropping the assessment if construction were ruled out.

George backed up a Lion party platform plank favoring laundry case pickup service in the West dorm and women's dorm area. He promised to "put more pressure" on Russell Clark, director of housing, to secure the same service that now is available in the Nittany-Pollock area.

Worth Defends Plank

A State party plank advocating a President's box at Beaver field was defended by Worth as a means toward getting "better relations" between the students and the President.

Both Stoudt and Olmsted repeated their pledges to push the drive toward the elimination of senior finals. Stoudt urged continued "agitation" while Olmsted called for greater cooperation among seniors so that the administration would pay more heed.

The State party plank on sorority houses was kicked around by Cover and Evert, with Cover defending the plank and Evert attacking it as "impractical." Both agreed that Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, opposed sorority houses, but Cover contended that some members of the administration favor sorority houses.

Engineering Society To Show 3 Movies

At a meeting tonight at 7:30, in Willard hall, the Petroleum Engineering society will show a movie on petroleum production engineering and two non-technical movies.

Students Begin Balloting Today

Students To Elect AA Officers

The male student body will go to the polls today to elect the president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer of the Athletic Association.

The new president, who sits on the Athletic Advisory council and All-College cabinet, will be chosen from among five athletes. The vice-president will be the man who receives the second largest number of votes for president.

The secretary-treasurer's position will be filled by one of three candidates.

The five candidates for the AA presidency and vice-presidency are John Albarano, Arthur Betts, Donald Maurey, Jay McMahan, and Peter Sarantopoulos.

The nominees for the position of secretary-treasurer are Louis Koszarek, Patrick McPoland, and Hardy Williams.

Albarano is the 1952 boxing team captain and an Eastern Intercollegiate champion. Betts is the co-captain elect of next fall's football team.

Maurey will captain the 1952 Lion wrestling team and is a runner-up for both the Eastern and National Collegiate titles.

McMahan is the co-captain elect of the 1952 basketball squad. Sarantopoulos is a member of the State track and cross-country teams.

Each of the candidates for AA secretary-treasurer is a teammate of one of the presidential aspirants.

Koszarek is a boxing mate of Albarano and also holds an Eastern Intercollegiate title.

McPoland joins footballer Betts as a grid sport representative in the election race. Both are ends on Rip Engle's squad but Betts plays on offense and McPoland is a defensive pivot man.

Williams is the co-captain of the basketball team along with McMahan. Their careers have paralleled closely thus far and may go even further with the election returns.

Control of the student government for the coming year will be decided today and tomorrow when students go to the polls to select an All-College president and eight other officers.

The actual balloting will climax nine days of campaigning by the State and Lion parties. The campaign has centered about charges and counter-charges over the party platforms.

Noon Deadline For Draft Tests

Students will be able to pick up applications for student deferment tests in the basement of Willard hall until noon today, H. K. Wilson, dean of men, said yesterday.

He said that after today, students will have to visit local draft boards or make arrangements with the draft board in Bellefonte to make out applications for the test.

Both graduate and undergraduate draft-eligible students would be wise to take advantage of the chance to make out an application now rather than go through the trouble later, Wilson said.

Class Gift Suggestions Due Today

Today is the deadline for submitting suggestions for spending the $8000 senior class gift fund, Otto Grupp, Senior Class Gift committee chairman, said yesterday.

The suggestion box will remain at the Student Union desk in Old Main until 5 o'clock tonight. The committee requested that all suggestions be signed so that it can get in touch with the submitter of the idea to work out details. Unsigned suggestions will be accepted, members added.

The committee of Grupp, William Barr, Jo Ann Esterly, and Joseph Lenchner pick out the best suggestions. The senior class will vote for the method of spending their $8000 at the end of the month.

(continued on page eight)

- Running for office are:
- All-College President
 - Clair George (Lion)
 - James Worth (State)
 - All-College Vice-President
 - Ray Evert (Lion)
 - Harry Cover (State)
 - All-College Secretary-Treasurer
 - William Klisanin (Lion)
 - Thomas Jurchak (State)
 - Senior Class President
 - John Stoudt (Lion)
 - David Olmsted (State)
 - Senior Class Vice-President
 - Robert Flick (Lion)
 - Bryson Craine (State)
 - Senior Class Secretary-Treasurer
 - Polly Potter (Lion)
 - Sally Shoemaker (State)
 - Junior Class President
 - Joseph Haines (Lion)
 - Michael Hanek (State)
 - Junior Class Vice-President
 - John Donnal (Lion)
 - Samuel Marino (State)
 - Junior Class Secretary-Treasurer
 - Barbara Baker (Lion)
 - Lee Coy (State)

Lion party candidates made a complete sweep of the election last spring and currently hold all nine positions at stake.

Defeated in the past two spring elections, the State party will be seeking a comeback. Last year the State party took a bad thumping as a record total of 3761 students cast ballots.

The polls on the second floor of Old Main will be open today and tomorrow from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Matriculation cards must be presented before students can vote.

Those eligible to vote for:

- All-College offices—all students.
- Senior class offices—sixth and seventh semester students.
- Junior class offices—fourth and fifth semester students.
- Athletic Association offices—all male students.

The politicians have expressed the opinion that the vote this year will be greater than ever. In an effort to spur a greater turnout at the polls, the elections committee will ask all students to wear tags urging a heavy vote.

The politicians will go on campaigning through today and until the balloting ends at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Both Parties Confident

Both parties seem confident on the eve of election. All-College presidential candidates Worth and George both issued statements.

"I hope the students will compare the slates man for man, the qualifications man for man, the platforms of both parties, and will consider what has been done and what has not been done in the past," Worth said. "If they make these comparisons," he concluded, "and support their conclusions with their votes, I know we will be successful."

"I feel that the Lion party this year," George said, "has very excellent chances of winning. I think the biggest difference between the two parties this year is that the Lion party has made no bold claims as to things it can do which are not actually in the hands of the five men who will be elected to All-College cabinet. The only thing I wish to urge the student body is to get out and vote so as to get a majority decision this year."

Senator Asks Congress For Declaration Of War

WASHINGTON, April 17 (AP)—Senator Cain (R-Wash.) today introduced a resolution calling on Congress to declare war against Communist China and North Korea.

At the same time, he offered another resolution calling for "an orderly withdrawal" of U.S. forces from Korea.

Two Alternatives

Cain said he offered his resolutions as "two alternatives to the free world and to the United States of America." He added:

"These resolutions, when reduced to their fundamental purpose, provide that we either prosecute the Korean war with all of the might, determination, and power at our command or that we withdraw our forces from a battlefield some 8000 miles away in order that these forces may live to fight, if required, but with purpose, some other day."

Resolutions To Encourage

"These resolutions are an encouragement for America and her allies to either put up, if all of us wish to support the mission which was given to the free forces in Korea last June, or to shut up, if the free forces are now of the opinion that their collective effort is inadequate and insufficient to carry out their mission."

Cain made it clear he was acting alone, without approval or disapproval of Republicans. He appealed also for support of independents and Democrats.

Employ All Forces

In the declaration of war resolution Cain said the President should be directed to "employ the entire military and naval forces of the United States and the resources of the government" against North Korea and the Chinese Communist regime.

Under the resolution, Congress would pledge all of the nation's resources to bring the war to "a successful termination."

40 To Report For Physicals

Forty men at the College have been ordered to report to the Post house at 7:15 a.m. tomorrow to go to Altoona to take pre-induction physical examinations, it was announced yesterday.

They are Robert Alderdice, Richard Allio, Glenn Bergey, Howard Bland, Frederick Boorady, Joseph Brown, Robert Dages, Dino Dalmas, Jared Darlington, George Denison, Donald Dietz, James Durkin, Raymond M. Featherer, Albert Fegley, Filmore Ficks.

Robert Fitzgerald, John Frederick, James Gracey, Herbert Gumpf, Joel Gutman, Richard Haenel, Michael Kirshner, Robert Kline, John Kozak, Joseph Kreasky, Albert Macys, George Mahaffey, Robert Monohan, (continued on page eight)