Late Inning Rally One Run Short In Sloppy Game

By LOWELL KELLER

A last-ditch ninth-inning rally fell one run short for the Penn State batsmen yesterday afternoon as the Ithaca college Bombers won a sloppily-played contest, 6-5. Bill McCarthy went all the way for the visitors in chalking up his second victory of the campaign. Starter Bill Bair of the Lions absorbed his first setback.

The game, a dragged-out affair, had no less than 13 errors, seven for the Ithacans, and six charged against State. Five of the Lion miscues directly accounted for five of the Bombers' tallies.

Bair, who was a surprise starter for the Nittanymen, pitched well throughout the first five innings, but it was errors by teammates that led to his downfall. Owen Dougherty relieved him in the sixth inning and hurled one run-two hit ball the rest of the game.

McCarthy Hit Hard

McCarthy, on the other hand, was hit quite freely, and at three separate times during the contest, acting coach Joe Hamilton had to confer with his hurler. McCarthy was touched for 12 safeties, which included two-baggers by Stan Laganosky and Bill Hopper.

The Lions dented the plate in the first frame when Henny Albright beat out an infield single, and Harry Little hit to left. When left-fielder Bob Kirkendal fumbled the ball, Albright went to third, and Little to second. Albright crossed while Sil Cerchie was being thrown out short to first.

The Bombers came back with two in their half of the second on two errors by third-sacker Little, sandwiched between two base hits. They added a third marker in the fourth when left-hander Ron Cole blasted a Bair fast ball over the right-field fence for a home run.

Lions Tally Twice

The Lions and the Ithacans each produced a pair of runs in the fifth, and the Bombers added one more in the sixth to up the score to 6-3. Then came the pulse-stopping ninth.

In this frame, Dougherty started off with a shot to center for a single, and moved to second when center-fielder Dick Osmer booted the ball. Albright grounded out to second, but Little kept things alive by drawing a base on balls and then stealing second. Cerchie struck out on a 3-2 count, but when Hopper rifled a double into right-center to bring home the fourth and fifth tallies, the Lions hopes were raised. Laganosky then dribbled to shortstop to end the game.

Action In Mat Finals

Bill Brown (left) drives for a pin on Bernie Yurick in the independent division. Pin by Brown followed shortly at :01 of the second period. Bucky Eddinger (right), TKE, completes reversal on Dick Rostmeyer, Phi Psi, in the fraternity division. Eddinger won the decision, 7-3.

Allison Only Repeater As IM Wrestling Champ

By TOM SAYLOR

John Allison, Phi Kappa Psi, at 128, was the only one to repeat as a champion in the IM wrestling tournament as 15 former champions fell by the wayside in the finals at Rec hall last night.

Allison decisioned Tom Lukas, Sigma Nu, 5-0, in a match that was Allison most of the way. In the other finals bout in this class, Bill Brown pinned Bernie Yurick in 3:00 with a reverse, inside crotch hold. Brown had led at the time, 2-0.

In the 121 class, John Baffa, DU, edged Ray Johnson, AXR, in a close match all the way. Baffa won with a third period reverse.

Wallis Better

The 135 class saw Frank Wallis display better-than-average form in blanking Marv Heinsohn, 5-0. Wallis was in control most of the way. Bob Hamilton, DU, decisioned Bill Aiken, Phi Delta Theta, 5-2, in the other final bout in this division.

The 145 class had one of the best matches of the evening in Bucky Eddinger, TKE, versus Dick Rostmeyer, Phi Psi. Eddinger piled up a winning margin in the second period with a reverse and a near fall. The final score was 7-3.

The other bout saw John Clark pin Sam Butler in a fast 1:59. Clark had opened up fast by scoring a take down and a near fall.

In the 155 class, Al Pancerev, Phi Psi, won by forfeit over John McCall, ATO. McCall suffered an injured knee. Pancerev wrestled an exhibition with freshman Jerry Maurey. Maurey took a 7-2 decision. The independent title in this class was taken by Dick Green who pinned Earl Brubaker in 2:49. Up to that time, Green possessed a 3-0 lead.

Morgan Over Quinn

In the 165 class Stan Morgan defeated John Quinn 4-0. Morgan scored his points via a reverse, escape, and one point for time advantage. The fraternity finals saw Bob Farquhar, Phi Gamma Delta, pin Joe Policastro, TKE, in 2:37. Policastro had held a 2-0 lead until Farquhar turned the tables.

The 175 class saw Link Van Sickle, Phi Psi, score a decisive win over Adam Kois, DU. Van Sickle went out fast, got the advantage, and proceeded to register a fast take down and near fall. The end came for Kois in 1:46 with a body press. Dick Rabinski started the same way against Ron Lacue in the independent bout. Rabinski piled up a 4-2 lead in the first period; Lacue held on to the end even though he lost, 9-2.

In the heavyweight division, it was a battle of strength and skill as Al Schultz, Tau Phi Delta, decisioned Les Burdette, Delta Theta Sigma, 4-0. Schultz won with an escape and a take down in the final stanza. Schutz also

Lacrosse Team To Host Loyola In Home Opener

Penn State's injury-riddled lacrosse squad will attempt to upset a highly touted Loyola of Baltimore team tomorrow afternoon on the golf course at 2 o'clock.

The contest will mark the opening of the team's 1951 home season.

Both teams will enter the game with identical marks of 1-1. Thus far, State has trounced Western Maryland, 17-0, while losing to the Midshipmen of Annapolis, 10-1. Loyola's Greyhounds, on the other hand, lost to last year's national champions, John Hopkins of Baltimore, 12-8, in its opener. The Greyhounds bounced back, to brush aside Baltimore university with a last quarter rally, 13-8. Loyola also dropped a 4-3 scrimmage contest to Navy.

Reed Paced Attack

In last year's contest, which the Lions lost to the Baltimore squad, 9-4, attackman Jim Reed paced the Lion attack with three goals. The Lions also have Reed back this year at the same spot. Teaming with Reed at the other attack positions tomorrow probably will be John Walker and Ed Herring. Both chipped in with two tallies against Western Maryland.

At midfield, Coach Nick Thiel will probably start John Wilcox, Jim Fulton, and Bud Wolfram, the team's leading score thus far. The second trio of Paul Raffensperger, Tony Eagle, and John Yohman will also see plenty of action.

Wilcox Injured

This starting trio may not be intact for the whole match, however, as Wilcox suffered a badly bruised hip against Navy while Fulton twisted his ankle in a scrimmage.

Coach Nick Thiel will open with John Henry, Vance Scout, and possibly John Ambler at the defensive spots.

added one point on time advantage. Harry Carroll won a forfeit victory over Larry Marcello in the independent final. Marcello suffered an injured elbow.

Netmen Open Campaign With Bucknell Today

The Penn State tennis team will launch its 1951 net campaign this afternoon against the Bucknell courtmen at Lewisburg.

Tomorrow afternoon the Lions will trek to Washington, D.C. to oppose Georgetown.

Of the eight prospects making the trip, four of them—Captain Owen "Sonny" Landon, Dick Wieland, Ed Davis and Bill Wood saw action against the Bucknellians last season.

Sophs May Start

Much to the surprise of the experienced sure-starting returnees, two sophomores may break into the starting line-up, Coach Fogg said. Bill Ray and Bill Forrey are the two newcomers who probably will be making their debut, toiling for a college varsity club.

Sophomore ace, Forrey, may get the starting nod over 1939 letterman, Gus Bigott, as No. 6 man for the Nittanians. Bigott, however, whose pre-season workouts have been minimized because of his goodwill trip in Iran, may see doubles action.

Landon, Number One

The remaining lineup as announced by Coach Fogg should see Captain Landon, one of the most effective servers in the East, holding down the No. 1 post for the Lions. Handling the No. 2 man job will be Wieland. Number 3 man will be Bill Aiken, and Davis will patrol the No. 4 position, while Wood will do the maneuvering as No. 5 man. Either Forrey or the ageless Bigott will rein as No. 6 man for the Nittanians.

State's talent-laden doubles combinations should play a major role in this afternoon's match. The twosome of Captain Landon and Wieland will cavort as the Lions' No. 1 combination. The No. 2 duet will be composed of Aiken and Davis. Either Wood or Ray or Bigott will form the third combo.

Nelson Bevard, sixth semester forestry student, was named captain of the 1952 varsity rifle team at a banquet at the Eutaw house Wednesday night, Maj. Felipe Vias, rifle coach, announced yesterday.

Walt Beers, Bevard, Sam Carnahan, Rod Ingleright, Hal O'Connor, John Stoudt, Fred Wessman, Dick White, Clarke Young, and Dave Young were awarded letters for this season. Carnahan, Ingleright, Stoudt, this year's captain, and Young are graduating seniors.

Joe Hartman was named head manager and John Gottell, Irving Gottenberg, and Albert Lansman were named first assistant managers for next year.

Fourth in Nationals

The team recently finished their season by placing fourth in the mid-Atlantic section of the National Intercollegiate rifle tournament at the University of Maryland. The sharpshooters' score of 1403 was the highest ever recorded by a Nittany team in national competition. George Washington university took first place at the tournament with a 1114 firing.

State's national rank will not be known until all 15 sectional scores have been tallied, but Vias believes the team will better last year's tenth place rating.

SCOOP...

MR. GRAHAM

Next to Old Main there is no place better known to students and alumni than Gramms. Gramms store has become a landmark, a traditional gathering place for the students.

The man behind this unique store, Mr. Graham, has lived in State College for 55 years. He came to State College in 1896 and opened a small barber shop on S. Allen St.

Student Information

He later moved to E. College Ave. where he instituted his now famous scoreboard. Scores of athletic events and news of the day were posted on a blackboard in front of the shop. This was the forerunner of the elaborate scoreboard that Gramms have today. Then as now, students made Gramms their meeting place.

Every year on alumni weekend Gramms is a beehive of activity. Thousands of "old grads" make Gramms their first stop in State College. A quick check of Gramms-guest book would show visits from as far back as the class of 1892.

Mr. Graham Says:

"Students have been my life and it has been an enjoyable one. Six of my children attended the college so I knew pretty well what the students wanted, and I tried to give it to them. If you take care of the students they'll take care of you."
