

WSGA To Hold Dance In West Dorm Lounge

The annual Coronation ball, which follows the May day festivities on May 12, will be held in the main lounge of Hamilton hall, it was announced at a meeting of the WSGA house of representatives last night.

The ball, which will feature Gene Magill and his orchestra, will be held from 9 to 12 o'clock. The price of admission will be $1 this year. This admits one student couple, but all parents will be admitted free of charge.

The main feature of the ball will be the presentation of the queen and her court. Entertainment will be provided by Four Flats and A Sharp.

The dance will be informal and a family affair. Card tables will be set up to play bridge or canasta.

Colorful Court

The house also announced that this year each class represented in the queen's court will wear gowns of different colors. The May Pole dancers will wear peasant blouses and wide skirts while the Honor Arch will be clad in white. Members of the Hemlock chain will wear pastel gowns. Louise Robertson, maid of honor is wearing pale blue.

Teas and open houses will be held from 2 to 3 o'clock in the women's dormitories preceding the May day ceremony. Men are invited to attend these teas.

Leaders Appear

In addition to the queen, court, jesters, heralds, hemlock chain, May pole dancers and Honor May Pole dancers and Honor president of WSGA; Mary Ellen Grube, president of WRA; and Lois Keener, representing the Penn State Christian association, will participate in the May day ceremony.

The girls who are in the Honor Arch, Hemlock chain and WSGA house decorating committee are required to work in the college greenhouse for two hours the week of May day to prepare the hemlock chain and honor arch, the house announced.

Home Ec Group To Hold Tea

Laura Wing, district counselor of Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary, will be honored at a tea this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Dr. Winona Morgan, professor of child development and family relations.

Mrs. Winn, of Reading, Mass., is currently inspecting the local chapter.

The honorary initiated 12 members at ceremonies last night. The new members are Janet Magrini, Betty Fabian, Susan Foresman, Janet Frutiger, Lois Jakpb, Margaret Muth, Elaine Notari, Barbara Park, Carol Reber, Jane Strawn, and Marjorie Telford. Barbara Shick, alumna, was also initiated.

Engagements

Elder-Lacy

Mr. and Mrs. Clair E. Lacy, of Washington, D. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis Ann, and Robert L. Elder, also of Washington, D. C.

Miss Lacy attended American university and is now attending a business college in Washington. Mr. Elder, a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, is a senior in agronomy.

IM Softball Games Begin

The Women's intramural softball games are now under way with 29 teams participating.

On Thursday night Phi Mu walloped Alpha Gamma Delta by a score of 20 to 1. Delta Zeta smashed Simmons B 17-0, while Kappa Delta forfeited to Zeta Tau Alpha.

In the Wednesday night series Alpha Chi Omega defeated Beta Sigma Omicron by a score of 10 to 2. Delta Delta Delta lost to Alpha Xi Delta 9-1. Phi Sigma Sigma forfeited to Delta Gamma.

At the beginning of the week Leonides won by forfeit over Theta Phi Alpha. McElwain hall defeated Simmons hall 9-4 and the town team forfeited to McAllister hall.

2 Students At AICE Confab

Stanford Feigelhan and John Derr, chemical engineering students, will present a paper on "Characteristics of Protruded Packing for Distillation Apparatus" at the regional meeting of the student chapters of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers at Bucknell university today.

Dr. D. S. Cryder and Dr. Arthur Rose, both of the department of chemical engineering, will also attend the meeting. Delegations from the Universities of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, Pittsburgh, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Lehigh, Johns Hopkins, and Catholic university will attend.

WRA Installation To Be Held May 1

Installation of the new WRA officers will be held May 1 in White hall at 7 p.m.

Invitations have been sent to the WRA club presidents, the president of Lakonides, staff members of White hall, members of the election application board, and members of the dean of women's staff.

Retiring officers and the new officers will hold a reereat on May 29 at the WRA cabin.

Independents To Hold Dance In Rec Hall

Three bands will be featured at the "Dimensions in Music" semi-formal dance which will be sponsored by the Barons and Leonides, tonight from 8:30 to midnight in Recreation hall.

The dance is semi-formal. Tickets, priced at $2.50 per couple, will be on sale at the Student union desk in Old Main until noon today.

Gene Magill's dance band, Darrell Rishel's jazz combo, and the Polka Kings will provide continuous music for the dancers. This is the first time a major campus dance has featured three bands.

Unusual decorations will provide atmosphere at the affair. A dry ice compound in hot water in the middle of the floor will spread a fine mist over the dancers. Colored lights, played on the mist, will create a cloudy effect.

Magill's band will play against a backdrop silhouette of a dancing couple. The bandstand will be a shell.

A black screen will be a backdrop for Rishel's combo. A luminous piano keyboard will be painted on the screen and the players will have their hands painted with the fluorescent material.

The Polka Kings will play against a gray screen sprinkled with multi-colored polka dots.

Roberta Reiss and Hank Pitt are co-chairmen for the dance. Committee heads are Joan Wentzel and Edward Storms, decorations; Gloria Zack and Robert Parry, publicity; Ruth Aaron and William Cole, printing; Robert Durr and John Laubach, arrangements; and Douglas Horner, finances.

Army ROTC Inspected Mon.

A board of Army officers from Fort Meade, Md. will conduct a formal inspection for all Army ROTC cadets Monday.

Company B, Pershing Rifles, and the ROTC band will conduct a formal guard mount on front campus at 4 p.m. The public was invited to the ceremony by ROTC officers.

A conference at 8:30 a.m. between Col. Lucien E. Bolduc, professor of military science and tactics at the College, and Col. Donald McGrayne, commanding officer of the Inspection board, will be followed by a visit with President Milton S. Eisenhower.

The purpose of the inspection will be to observe teaching methods and to study the retention of subject matter by the students.

Weekending With The Greeks

The annual Sigma Nu dock party will be held tonight. The fraternity house is traditionally turned into the interior of a ship, the USS White Star, and a combo will provide music for dancing. All guests are asked to come in nautical costumes. The affair will begin with a dinner at 6:30, and at 10 o'clock the party will be open to the public.

Kappa Alpha Theta sorority is holding a "Theta Land" dance at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house. The dance, which is open, will follow a dinner for the members and their dates at the Nittany Lion inn. Arnie Taylor's orchestra will play. Decorations in Theta Land will consist of clouds floating through space, stars suspended from the ceiling, and a large kite, the emblem of the sorority, at one end of the room. Each of the pledges will receive a small kite favor.

Beta Sigma Omicron sorority and Acacia fraternity are combining their talents at a Moonlight Mist ball at the Acacia house. Music will be by the Statesmen. The dance, which is open and will last from 9 to 12 will be decorated along a theme of moonlight. A huge moon will be placed outside the house, and another one within. As at the Theta dance, stars will be suspended from the ceiling.

Co-Edits

Kappa Alpha Theta

Kappa Alpha Theta sorority held its scholarship banquet on Wednesday at the Allencrest tea room. The banquet is given annually for the class having the highest average within the sorority. This year the seniors were honored.

Kappa Delta

Kappa Delta sorority entertained Sigma Pi fraternity at a roaring twenties party on Thursday night.

Delta Delta Delta

Five girls from the Penn State chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority are attending a district convention of the sorority at the University of Pennsylvania. They include, Lila Barnes, president, Mary Stark, Mary Bambrick, Janet Evans, and Cynthia Loesel.

25 Men Tapped By Blue Key

Twenty-five men have been tapped by Blue Key, junior men's hat society. President David Mutchler announced yesterday.

Formal tapping of prospective members of Blue Key will be held jointly with Androcles, the other junior men's hat society, at 7 a.m. Monday at the Lion shrine, Mutchler said.

Membership in both honoraries are based on leadership, scholarship, and service to the College. Men tapped by Blue Key are John A. Donnal, Willard Dye, Gerald Frank, Norman Goldstein, Alan Gromiller, William Hafley, Walter Hall, Charles Hamilton, Nat Hamilton, Lloyd Hartough, William Jack.

Thomas Kingsland, John Knox, Richard Neuweiler, Arthur Rosfeld, Harold Rousch, James Shultz, William Shomberg, Richard Stanley (Alan Sredenschek, Benjamin Thompson, Ronald Thorpe, Allan Wampler, Alan Wilson, and Joseph Wirs.

Here's Another New Offer

Personal Laundry Service To All

- 1) Rough Dry Cleaning
- 2) Pillow Case Special
- 3) Shirts Laundered

PORTAGE CLEANERS

118 S. Pugh St., For Prompt Service Phone 2632
(in Calder Alley)

NITTANY

MONDAY & TUESDAY

Presented in Cooperation with Romance Languages Dept.

Maurice Chevalier IN

"A ROYAL AFFAIR"

A FRENCH FILM WITH ENGLISH TITLES

FREE!
One 5x7 Print
Of Your Choice From
A Roll Developed By Us
24 Hour Service

Guaranteed Developing and Printing

OVERSIZE SNAPSHOTS
"Bound to Please"

You Always Get Better Snapshots at

CENTRE COUNTY FILM LAB

122 W. Beaver Ave.

CLIP THIS COUPON

for Your FREE 5 x 7
Get Acquainted Offer

Centre County Film Lab
Collegian

Today WARNER theatres
Cathouse
FRANK LOVEJOY
DOROTHY HART
"I Was A Communist For The F.B.I."

State
DAVID WAYNE
TOM EWELL
"UP FRONT"

Nittany
MONTE HALE
in
"VANISHING WESTERN"

STARLITE

DRIVE-IN

ON BELLEFONTE ROAD

Shows 7 and 9 P. M.

SATURDAY

"FIREBALL"

MICKEY ROONEY
BEVERLY TYLER

-plus-

"GUN SMUGGLERS"

with
Tim Holt

MONDAY & TUESDAY

"711 Ocean Drive"

Edwin O'Brian
Joanne Dru

Also Selected Short Subjects

COLLEGE SENIORS CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION

for VISITORS POSITIONS

in the DEPT. OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE

Starting salaries $2328 and $2700 per annum. Eligible lists will be available by June.

See examination announcement and secure application blank at Placement Office; or write State Civil Service Commission, Harrisburg, for further information.