

Gettysburg Nine Here Today; Stickmen Open

Lions' Dougherty To Hurl; Switch Albright To Short

By LOWELL KELLER

The Penn State baseball team will attempt to get back on the victory road this afternoon when it meets the Gettysburg college Bullets in a contest scheduled for 2:30 at the New Beaver field diamond. The Lions are still smarting under the poor exhibition of baseball they put on against Ithaca on Thursday when they committed six errors and lost a 6-5 decision.

Owen Dougherty is the choice of Coach Joe Bedenk to toe the slab against the Bullets. Dougherty hurled four innings of relief ball on Thursday, limiting the New Yorkers to one run and two safeties. Bill Bair started the contest and was charged with his first setback in two years.

Major Change

Against the Bullets, Bedenk is also planning to make the first major change in the starting array since the last week of spring practice sessions.

Henny Albright, who has played the infield before, both in high school and a few games in his sophomore year, will move from his regular left-field post to shortstop replacing Paul Mowry. Mowry has not had a hit in the Nittany's first two games, and Bedenk is complaining of the lack of some heavy slugging.

Bob Schoellkopf, the left-handed hitting outfielder who has come through on two pinch-hit assignments, will get the call in left field. Schoellkopf rapped a triple against Western Maryland, and knocked out a single in the Ithaca battle.

Hopper Leads Batters

Of the regulars, right-fielder Bill Hopper has a decided edge in both the batting average and runs batted in departments. Hopper has clubbed five hits in eight official trips to the plate for a .652 mark. Three of these hits are two-baggers. He has driven home seven runs, four more than his nearest rivals, Gus Vogt and Dougherty.

Nittany Netmen Win First Match, 6-3, Over Bucknell

Despite an insufficient pre-season practice, the Penn State tennis squad successfully launched its 1951 net season by edging the Bisons of Bucknell at Lewisburg yesterday afternoon, 6-3.

Today's activity should see the Foggmen tangling with Georgetown at Washington, D.C.

In recording their first triumph, the Lions captured 4 singles events, and 2 of the 3 doubles matches.

Landon Wins Easily

The sharpshooting captain and number one man for State, Owen "Sunny" Landon, encountered little difficulty in winning over Paul Renney. Although the first game was extended for 15 minutes, the exceptionally good backhand strokes and long drives of Landon proved too much for Renney as he lost 6-1, 6-2.

Number 2 man for State, Dick Wieland, repulsed a rally by Gray Rogers, Bison captain, and copped his sets, 6-4, 6-2.

Bill Reitz garnered the Bisons' first tally as he defeated Bill Aiken, No. 3 man, 5-7, 6-2, 0-6.

Number 4 man for the Lions, Ed Davis, registered the most decisive victory of the afternoon, downing Nick Fchloeder, 6-1, 6-0.

Wood Gets The Axe

The Bucknellians added to their score, as Jim Hess vanquished Bill Wood, No. 4 for the Nittanies, 2-6, 2-6.

In collegian action for the first time since 1939, ageless Gus Bigott gave a surprisingly good account of himself as he routed Al Goss, 6-2, 6-2.

Going into the doubles activity with a 4-2 lead, the canny State No. 1 duo of Captain Landon and Wieland triumphed over Rogers and Fchloeder, 4-6, 6-3, 3-1.

Phi Kappa Psi Captures Intramural Mat Crown

Phi Kappa Psi's well-balanced wrestling team ran away from the rest of the field to nab the annual IM team title.

The Phi Psi's 245-point total, which included 75 points rewarded for the team titlist, was 73 points better than runner-up DU could muster. Delta Upsilon's 172-point aggregate also included 45 points rewarded to the second place finishers.

The rest of the field was far, far back. TKE took third spot with 78 points while Phi Gamma Delta's 63 counters were good enough for fourth. Rounding out the first ten were Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Theta with 56; ATO and Tau Phi Delta with 50; Kappa Sigma with 38; and Theta Kappa Phi with 37.

The individual crowns were also a personal race between Phi Bigott and Wood won 2-6, 6-1, 3-1, while Aiken and Davis suffered setbacks.

Team Standings

The overall fraternity team standing for the intramural cup changed rather drastically. Phi Kappa Psi scored the biggest jump when they went from 23rd place to the fourth spot. DU's 172 runner-up points was enough to take the top spot. Phi Delta Theta dropped from the top position to second while Sigma Nu also dropped a notch as it slipped to third. Beta Theta Pi retained fifth position. Sigma Chi, which was in fourth place at the last report, dropped completely out of the "Big Five."

Face Loyola In Season's Home Debut

Penn State's lacrosse team will have two objectives in mind when it opens its home season this afternoon against Loyola of Baltimore on the golf course at 2 o'clock.

The Lions will try to boost their season's mark above .500, and also attempt to open the home season successfully. However, State will have a tough time of it as the Greyhounds come to State College with a power-laden team spearheaded by a prolific scoring attackman in Frank Kimmel. In his last outing, Kimmel practically beat Baltimore university single-handedly as he tallied no less than four goals and assisted in four others. Loyola ended Baltimore's two-game winning streak, 13-8.

Still another mainstay on the Greyhound's squad is Tom Wagner, who was chosen as an honorable mention All-American last year. Wagner is back at his usual midfield post this year, and the Lions can expect plenty of trouble from him also.

Midfield Lineup

Coach Nick Thiel will open with Jim Fulton, John Wilcox, Bud Wolfram, or Paul Raffensperger at the midfield positions. The second trio of midfielders will include Tony Eagle, John Yohman, and either Raffensperger or Wolfram, depending upon who starts with the first trio. Fulton, however, will only see limited action as he has a badly twisted ankle.

At the defensive spots will be Vance Scout, John Henry, and John Amber, who will replace Danny Grove. Amber also started against Navy and turned in a commendable performance. However, as assistant coach John McHugh put it, "Grove's stick handling and clearing ability will be sorely missed."

The attack positions will be handled by John Walker, letterman Jim Reed, Bob Koons, and Ed Herring. This quartet scored five of the 17 goals against Western Maryland.

Completing the starting lineup for the Nittany Lions will be diminutive Phil Benedetti at goalie. Benedetti has a good chance for All-American honors this year.

State Linksmen Engage Hoyas

This afternoon the Penn State golfers will play the second match in a two game series with Georgetown at Washington, D.C. Yesterday's results were not available.

Previously Georgetown and State split its wins, each one taking one match of the last two series. Georgetown took the first match 5 to 2, while State captured the second one by a score of 4 to 3.

The matches are scored on a seven point individual basis.

Gehrdes Is Gone But Guy Kay May Ease Hurdling Situation

By JAKE HIGHTON

Jim Gehrdes, fabulous record-setter, is no longer hurdling for Penn State—and Nittany track Coach Chick Werner will be reminded of it every time a hurdles race is announced this season.

Two days ago, however, Werner found something he didn't think he had—a good hurdler in the person of Guy Kay.

Looked Bleak

With such tremendous shoes as the timber-topping Gehrdes' to fill, it is no wonder the 1951 hurdling situation looked bleak for the Lions.

It looked bleak, that is, until a time trial Thursday, when Kay skimmed over the 220-low hurdles in a clocking which shaded 23 seconds. Already he isn't far from the Gehrdes Penn State record of 22.9.

May Bypass 400

Kay has been working out for the 400-meter hurdles which is the opening event on this Friday's Penn Relay program. He may be scratched though, since he is entered in all the sprint relay events and Werner may want to save him.

This afternoon at 2:30 final trials will be held to determine which of the nearly fifty State baseleggers entered in the Relays will compete next weekend.

Only outstanding individual performers and top men for the relays will be taken. The Lions are entered in every relay including the quarter, half, mile, four mile, sprint, and distance medleys and also individual events.
