Checking In At Second

-Photo By Penn State Photo Shop HIT THE DIRT-An unidentified Penn State baseballer slides into second to beat the throw in Saturday's game won by the Lions over Gettysburg, 11-4.

Netmen Post Second Triumph; Trip Hoyas, 6-3; Landon Loses

By JOHN SHEPPARD

Captain Owen "Sonny" Landon suffered his third setback in 23 lead, but then the dam broke and matches as Coach Sherm Fogg's 1951 tennis combine racked up its Loyola crashed the State net on second triumph of the campaign by defeating Georgetown

Saturday afternoon, 6-3.
Jack McCarthy, Hoya captain, whom Landon had bested last season, 6-2, 6-3, inflicted the upset.

McCarthy, the most jubilant performer of the afternoon, defeated the No. 1 man of the Nittanies in two straight sets, 2-6, 3-6. Landon, seeded 12th in Eastern intercollegiate competition last spring was way off form as McCarthy encountered little difficulty in returning the Nittany ace's back hand drives and long

Action-Packed

. The match was action-packed, as the Hoyas drew first blood, only to have the Foggmen stage a brilliant comeback drive, breaking a 3-3 tie.

State gathered its first tally of the meet, as Dick Wieland, No. 2 man, garnered his second victory of the campaign, easily downing Dick Collins, 6-1, 6-4.

Aiken started fast and overwhelmed Harry Whitman, 6-1, 6-2. Ed Davis, handling the No. 4 post defeated Don Kaitkowski, 6-2 in his first set Haveyer Kaitkowski, spectacular plays with different set spectacular plays with set spectacular plays with different set spectacular plays with set spec first set. However, Kaitkowski copped the second 4-6, but Davis staged a determined comeback as he regained his first-set form, winning the final event, 6-2.

Scores Second Point Jack McFadden picked up the Hoyas second point at the expense of the Lions' No. 5 man, Bill Wood, winning, 6-3, 2-6, 1-6.

Starting his first match for Coach Fogg, sophomore Bill Forrey dropped two sets to Edgar Harrison 6-8 4-6 Harrison, 6-8, 4-6.
State's No. 1 twosome of Landon and Wieland broke the tie by edging McCarthy and Don Murphy, 6-3, 6-2.

Aiken and Davis, Lions' No. 2

Beneditti and John Frasenelli.

combo, added to the fete, downing Bruce Newman and Kitkowski, 6-0, 3-6, 6-3. The No. 3 duo of Wood and Gus Bigott also posted victories.

Major League Results

Oberg, Emig Cop Handball Crown

Art Oberg and George "Red" ice for Coach Bishop Baker's crew by scoring off a screen play at 10:25. However, the Lions widened their edge to 4-1 at the quarter as John Wilcox sent one home from 15 feet.

State started off fast in the straight contests, 21-19, 21-8, last pright at Rec hall night at Rec hall.

In the first contest, Betts and Hoover jumped off to an early ten point lead. However, Oberg and Emig put on the steam and nosed past the two in a thrilling

The second contest was dominated by the all around play of State's number 3 man, Bill both Oberg and Emig. They were Emig especially made several spectacular plays with diving saves of balls hit by his opponents. As in the singles tournament, Oberg's powerful serve was put to good advantage.

For Oberg it was his second as the Lions were concerned.

and previously beaten Hoover for he inframural singles championhandball title of the year as he had previously beaten Hoover for the intramural singles championship. It was also the second time that he has held the doubles title.

In 1949 Oberg, as an independent, teamed with Elwood Petchell to cop the title. The next Reed Herri year in the fraternity division he loubles tournament they have both participated in IM H-Shoe Entry singles competition.

AMERICAN JEAGUE
Yesterday's Results
New York 5, Phila. 4
Detroit 7, St. Louis 4
Standings
W L Pet. W L Pet.
Cleveland 5 1 .853 Boston 3 3 .500
Wash'ton 4 1 .800 Detroit 2 4 .333
Chicago 4 1 .800 Detroit 2 4 .333
Chicago 4 1 .800 St. Louis 1 6 .143
New York 4 2 .667 Phila. 1 6 .143
New York 4 2 .667 Phila. 1 6 .143
Today's Schedule
St. Louis at Detroit—Widmar (0-1) vs.
Gray (0-1)
Gray (0-1)

Theorem at Roston—Kuzava (0-0) vs. Oberg and Emig advanced to the finals by defeating Len Bartek and George Jacobs, Sigma Ph Epsilon; and Betts and Hoover advanced by winning from Dave Bischoff and Ken Weiss, Sigma

State Baseballers Defeat Gettysburg, 11-4, Everson Glitters In Relief Role

After spotting the Gettysburg Bullets four runs in the top half of the first inning, the Penn State baseball squad proceeded to score seven times itself in the bottom half, and walk away with an 11-4 victory.

Bill Everson, who relieved starter Owen Dougherty with no one out in the first inning, received credit for his first win. Everson mixed a medium-speed fast ball with a side-

Loyola Stickmen Mar Lion frames that he worked. fanned six and gave out Home Opener By 14-12 Win

Loyola of Baltimore came through in true championship form in the final period to put a damper on Penn State's home-opening lacrosse game Saturday as they edged the Lions, 14-12, on the golf to the same place. George Hare course practice field.

Penn State looked like world beaters for three quarters, but then the Lions fell completely apart and Loyola, paced by Ed Miller's three goals, rushed on to win, 14-12.

In that disastrous final stanza, the Greyhounds scored no less than eight times while holding the Lions scoreless. Until then State had compiled a healthy 12-6 eight occasions.

Walker Scores

Attackman John Walker had started Penn State off on a seemingly good foot when he took a pass from Ed Herring to register at 6:35. Thirty-eight seconds later State had another tally as Paul Raffensperger scored. Frank Kimmel finally broke the ice for Coach Bishop Baker's crew by scoring off a screen play at 10:25. However, the Lions widered their edge to 4.1 at the second period when Bud Wol-fram snared a pass from Wilcox to score 1:25 after the quarter to score 1:25 after the quarter began. Raffensperger also tallied twice for the Lions this period as Coach Nick Thiel's charges stretched their lead to 7-3. Frank Nasco and George Thomas scored the only goals for the Greyhounds. Thomas' tally came just 45 seconds before the half ended. The Nittanies started the sec-

The Nittanies started the second half as though they were going to make a rout of the contest by registering two scores, both by Wilcox, within 1:40. Wilcox scored twice more before the quarter ended and the Lions led, 12-6. as the final period began.

ened and praised the play of Ted Robertson, despite his loss to Jim Nies, one up. Robertson shot birdie, par, birdie, and eagle on his last four holes Saturday.

In Saturday's match, two points were lost on the eighteenth hole and one on the twenty-second.

Ray Artz lost to the Hovas' Bill ond base through a walk and a and with it the ball game as far year in the fraternity division he played with Emig for the first time and the two advanced to the finals, only to be beaten by Phil Beneditti and John Frasenelli.

First Year

This is the first year that either Betts or Hoover has played in the doubles tournament, although

Deadline Is May 1 Intramural horseshoe doubles

entries for fraternities and inde-pendents are now being received at the IM office, 213 Rec hall and should be in no later than May 1.

Entry fee is 50 cents per team and only one team from each fra-ternity may be entered in each event, according to "Dutch" Sykes, assistant intramural sports

St. Louis at Detroit—Widmar (0-1) vs. Gray (0-1)
Washington at Boston—Kuzava (0-0) vs. Chicago at Cleveland—Cain (0-0) vs. Polica (1.0)
Phila. at New York—Shantz (0-1) vs. Lopat (1-1)
Brooklyn S. Pittsburch 1
Brooklyn S. Poston 1, (16 innings)
New York at Phila. (night)
Chicago 2, Pittsburch 1
Brooklyn S. Poston 1, (16 innings)
New York at Phila. (night)
Chicago 3, Pittsburch 2
Brooklyn S. Poston 1, (16 innings)
New York at Phila. (night)
Standings
W L. Pet.
Brooklyn S. Doston 1, (16 innings)
New York at Phila. (night)
Standings
W L. Pet.
Brooklyn S. Doston 1, (16 innings)
New York at Phila. (night)
Chicago 2, Pittsburch 2 a day but later owner Joseph J. Colando announced the colt still might keep the Louis-ville engagement May 5.
Colando made the announcement at Jamaica race track after his son and trainer of the colt. Dr. Andrew C. Colando, previously told newsmen Uncle Miltie would take a rest.

"He needs a vacation," young Pittsburch at Chicago—Law (0-1) vs. Heintzlemm (6-1) vs. Loun (6-0)
Pittsburch at Chicago—Law (0-1) vs. Loun (6-0)
Conchecti at St. Louis—Ramsdell (0-1) vs. Loun (6-0)
Conchecti at St. Louis—Ramsdell (0-1) vs. Laufer (0-0)

Ted Robertson

To Georgetown

12-6, as the final period began.

Then came the fourth quarter Daily, one up, after Daily sank

The came the fourth quarter Daily, one up, after Daily sank a chip shot on the eighteenth hole. State's Captain Joe Durniak de-feated Art McDerwin one up. The Nittanies' Hud Samson de-

Fairbanks
Nasco
T. Wagner
Carozza
Miller
C. Wagner
Kimmel
8—14
0—12
mith, Am
with, A Callahan Thomas Fairbanks George Mazanowski scored a of 71, one over par.

Sporting Movie Tonight

length technicolor presentation of hunting, fishing, and camping in Pennsylvania, in 121 Sparks at 8 o'clock tonight.

He at third.

While Everson was puzzling the Bullets, the Lions picked up insurance runs in the third, arm curve to check the Bullets with five hits in the full nine fanned six and gave out two bases on balls. Don Young, the first of three hurlers for the Plankmen, absorbed the loss. Dougherty didn't have his us-then cut an easy grounder to Bill Mihalich at second base, but the ball took a crazy hop and bounced into right-center field for a double and Bixby scored, Ron Fitzkee then chased Dougherty from. the box with a home run down the right field foul line. At this

Box Score PENN STATE
PENN	Ab	R	Ħ	E
Albright,if		ĩ	. 2	0
Little,3b	3	· õ	0 .	. 1
Cerchie,cf	5	Ó	1	0
Hopper,rf	4	1	1	0
Laganosky.1b		2	1	0
P. Mowry,ss	4	1 2 3 2	2 0	0
Mihalich,2b	2	2	0	0
Buss.c	2	1	2	0
Dougherty,p	3 4 2 2 0 2	0	0	0
Everson.p		1	0	0
\Totals	28	11	9	4
GETTY	SBUR
	Ab	$\mathbf{R}$	H	E
Bixby,1b	• 4	1	1	0
Bitner,3b	3	. 1	0	0
(b) Schreiber,3b	2 4	0	0	0
Hare,lf	4	1	1	0
Fitzkee,cf	4	1	1	0
Keller,ss	3	0	0	0
(c) Dudley, sa	3 1 2 2 4	0	1	Ó
Eyster,rf	2	0	0	0
(a) Williams,rf	2	ß	0	1
Jones,2b	4	Ō	2	Ō
Royals,c	4	0	1	1
Young,p	0	0	0	0
Shultz,p	1	0	0	ŋ.
S. Mowry,p	. 2	0	1	0
(d) Dickson	0	9	0	2
Totals	36	4	^8
(a) Williams gro	unded a	out fo	or Eye	ster-
in 6th.		4
(b) Schreiber hi	t into	Iorce	-ont	for
Bitner in 7th.		17 -11 -	_ :_ :	8th.
(c) Dudley single (d) Dickson wa		nelle or S.	r in 8 . Mov
ini ulekson wa	uned I	ur 3.		W 1 V

point Everson replaced Dougherty and hurled a shut-out ball

Ray Artz lost to the Hoyas' Bill ond base through a walk and a Daily, one up, after Daily sank stolen base. After Bill Hopper rifled a single to center for the first marker, Young completely blew up as he walked Stan Lag-anosky, Paul Mowry, Mihalich, and Clarence Buss in order.

scored. Albright, up for the secand time in the inning, rapped a Charles Noll, Williamsport Harry Little drew the seventh sportsman, will narrate his film, pass of the frame, but the rally "The Great Outdoors," a full-died when Sil Cerchie forced Lit-

The film will constitute the fourth, and sixth innings. It was meeting of the Penn State Nit- a case of wildness again that tany Bowmen Archery club.

The Time Is Ripe"

Watch for the Day!"