

Woman Scribe Picks Pirates Sixth After Seeing Forbes Field Opener

By CAROLYN BARRETT

Well, the Pirates opened another season at Forbes field last Tuesday. It wasn't much different from any other opening day except that the cast of "The Angels and the Pirates" was there replacing Bing. The boos for Bill Meyer and Mayor David Lawrence were a bit more numerous than last year, and Ralph Kiner was starting at first base.

The weather was a bit chilly and the outfield still showed signs of the wear and tear of the pro football season.

Loyal Fans

Pittsburgh fans are loyal in a peculiar way. They keep paying money to gripe. Week after week the same people second guess, moan about sloppy playing, and swear never to go to the park again—but they always do.

The guy sitting next to me took great pride in calling Kiner "ham bone", especially when he missed a throw from Strickland in an attempted double play. But he changed to a pleading, "come on, Ralph", when Kiner was up with runners on base.

No More, Please

Another spectator expressed his opinion of Kiner's ability around the initial sack when, after Ralph had made a gloved hand catch he said, "No more sensational plays please, Ralph."

After the Cards had scored three unearned runs in the first inning it wasn't hard to visualize the league standings at the end of the year, and Pittsburgh in bold face type at the bottom of the heap. Murry Dickson's luck didn't seem to have changed any either.

Something New

The first sign that it wasn't quite the same team came when Dillinger bunted along the third base line, not only advancing the runner but reaching first safely. The ability to execute a bunt has been lacking in many Pirate line-ups.

Rosey got his first chance to say, "Open the window Aunt Minnie" when Dickson found the range of Greenberg Gardens. In spite of what outsiders think, Rosey is a part of Pittsburgh's baseball. He is criticized for being

8 V-Ball Teams See IM Action

Only eight of the scheduled 12 IM volleyball games were played Friday, as three games were postponed and one forfeited.

In league I, Sigma Nu-A is now tied with Phi Kappa Tau-A as a result of its 15-9, 15-0 win over the Kappa Sigs. The ZBT-Beta Sigma Rho game was postponed. Alpha Chi Rho-B beat Acacia-B, 15-9, 15-10 and still leads league J with three wins. ZBT-B and Alpha Chi Sigma-B did not play.

Theta Xi-B trounced Theta Kappa Phi-B, 15-1, 15-0 to stay on top of league K. Also in 'K' AGR-B beat Alpha Phi Delta-B, 15-6, 15-1.

Both TKE-B and Alpha Zeta-B registered wins in league L to remain tied for top position. TKE downed Sigma Pi-B, 15-0, 15-6; Alpha Zeta dropped Alpha Sigma Phi-B by 15-7 and 15-5 scores.

In league M, SPE-B finally won out over Beta Theta Pi-B, 17-15 after splitting the first two games. Beta Sigma Rho-B and Sigma Phi Sigma-B postponed their game.

Sigma Nu-B won by forfeit from Delta Sigma Phi-B in league N. Also in league N, Delta Chi-B won from Sigma Phi Alpha-B, 15-6 and 15-3.

Society's Pirate Fan

Carolyn Barrett, Collegian's new society editor and a dyed-in-the-wool Pirate fan, traveled to Pittsburgh last Tuesday to watch the Pirate opener with the Cards and goes out on the limb to predict a sixth place finish for the Bucs.

too partial, and too excitable plus being a lousy announcer.

No. 1 Fan

Rosey's critics are justified in their attitude, but never the less the first exciting thing that happens at Forbes field someone always says, "I wonder what Rosey thinks of that one," or "I bet Rosey is happy now." I had to come to State College to really hear anyone blast his short comings.

There weren't many highlights in the game. Bell made a throw in to second to hold a runner on base, another phenomenon the Pirates could use more of. Dickson hit his first major league home run—maybe his luck is changing.

New Marion

It was strange to see Marty Marion walk to the plate to talk over ground rules instead of trotting out to short after superstitiously touching third. Musial, Slaughter, and Schoendienst were there too just to prove it was the Cardinals.

The Pirates won the game and I returned to State College quite content. Pittsburgh was in the midst of a winning streak, the longest of the season, and was leading the league. On the basis of this superb beginning I predict the team will finish sixth.

Sax Sets Frosh Track Record

Frosh Ollie Sax continues to burn up the cinders. In Saturday time trials he cracked the Penn State freshman record for the quarter mile with a 49.7 clocking. Cliff St. Clair held the old mark at 50.6 in 1942.

Because there are no meets for freshmen, all records set in frosh time trials will go down in the books since the trials are run off under meet conditions.

Harry Mitchell pushed Sax to a 23 second 220 but Mitch could not stay up with the strong Sax in the last furlong.

Best varsity performance in the trials was Jack St. Clair's 9:45.2 two mile. Saint forced the pace to a 4:44 mile and nearly held the same tempo during the "longer" second mile.

Bill Ashenfelter ran his fastest mile of the outdoor season to lead Bob Freebairn home in 4:19.2. Freebairn did 4:21, frosh Don Bagby was third with a 4:24.5, and Bob Gehman (4:27) continued to stay with the leaders as he finished fourth.

Ike Williams Signs For May Title Bout

NEW YORK, April 23 (AP)—Lightweight Champion Ike Williams and challenger Jimmy Carter of New York today signed official commission contracts for their 15-round title bout in Madison Square Garden, May 11.

Williams, who weighed 145½ April 11 when he defeated Fitzie Pruden in Chicago, said he would have no trouble in making the 135-pound weight limit.

Trackmen Will Miss Lanc, Gehrdes At Penn Relays

By JAKE HIGHTON

With two outstanding speed merchants like Wil Lancaster and Jim Gehrdes no longer at Penn State, the 1951 edition of Lion trackmen is not likely to equal the success in this Friday and Saturday's Penn Relays that it scored in the same meet last year.

In the '50 footracing carnival, Nittany runners just couldn't be kept out of the money.

Gehrdes copped the 120 high hurdles. Lanc "won" the 100-yard dash, but he didn't. Pictures clearly showed him breaking the tape first but officials gave the nod to Penn's Ben Kreitzberg.

Fastest 440 Relay

Guy Kay, Gehrdes, Lanc, and Bill Lockhart ran the second fastest 440 relay in Penn Relay history to win in 41.3. The same quartet took third in the 880 relay.

Although four-mile relayers, Parsons, Freebairn, and Don and Bill Ashenfelter were upset by Penn after a three year monopoly on the event, the same four in the distance medley rounded out a banner Penn State showing at the Relays by winning third place medals.

Doubtful of Chances

But this is another year and the Lions are not as well fortified. Consequently, it is with fear that Coach Chick Werner sizes up the chances of taking a single championship this weekend—he is even doubtful about his four-mile relay outfit which must be ruled as big favorites.

Most track schools opened their season last weekend or sooner, but Penn State had to be content with time trials on Saturday as final tuneup for the Relays.

Time Trial Summaries:

120 HIGH HURDLES: 1, Fred Singer; 2, Zimmerman; 3, Garson. Time—16.1

Clothes for the College Man by

Men YOU Know

Watch these men on campus. They dress in true collegiate style. They know just what to wear and how to wear it, that is why they have been chosen best dressed by their fraternity brothers. It takes good clothes sense to be able to pick out the right kind of clothes to wear. Maybe you can get a few pointers by stopping at HUR'S this week and seeing these men's choices in collegiate clothing displayed in the store windows. When you see them, you'll know why they were chosen best dressed.
