 champion Dick Shed to battle. Discus and shot tossers Bob Krayer, Tom McDermott and Dick Cripps have Manhattan's IC-4A indoor champ, John Ogle, as one of their leading foes tomorrow. Ogle heaved the iron ball 51 feet last week.

Distance Medley
 Tomorrow's windup, the distance medley, will have Lockie (who is doing triple duty both days), running the quarter, McCall the 880 leg, Bob Freebairn 1320 yards and Bill Ashenfelter the mile against Georgetown as chief opposition.

The Hoyas, if they decide to double up, as the Lions must, can make things hot for the Wernermen in every distance race run.

Throwing the javelin Saturday morning, Ted Roderer faces competition eager to break Penn Stater Nick Vukmanic's Carnival record of 223' 10 1/2". Arizona's Bill Miller has heaved the spear 226' in the past and Navy's Bob Allison is capable of better than 225.

Nittany Owen Wilkenson has Tony Pavone as leading foe in the pole vault Saturday. The Seton Hall vaulter did 12'6" in his school's relays last week but Wilky has done 13' in practice. Saturday Werner's highjumping duo, Vic Fritts and Jim Herb, must beat CCNY's Carl Field who leaped 6'4" last week.

Veteran Opponents
 Running a half-mile each in the two mile relay, McCall, Bob Parsons, Don Ash and Freebairn or Bill Ash will have to go some to beat Georgetown. The Hoyas Dave Boland, Joe LaPierre, Carl Joyce and Joe Deady are veteran middle-distance men who ripped off a 7:42.8 last week.

In the college close Saturday, Lockie, Bob Roesler, Lauer, and Kay or McCall are pitted against Morgan State and Cornell outfits desirous of cracking the mile relay record of 3:13.6.

Ima Sumac Soloist On Music Of Nations

"The Music of the Nations", radio program of the Department of Romance Languages, will feature Peruvian music selections tonight at 8:30 o'clock over WMAJ.

Ima Sumac of Inca descent, who is noted for her unusual voice range of four octaves, is the soloist on these records. Guest commentator is Sanford Shepard of the Romance Language department.

Rutgers Has 8-2 Record

 starred on the freshman team. The infield is composed mostly of second-year men, but in Bob Koperwhats, Case believes he has a great shortstop in the making, and is building the infield around the 18-year old soph.

Van Cleef, a .404 hitter in 26 games last season, is currently hitting .421, while playing in his regular center-field post. The right-fielder, Ted McDonough, is rapping the ball at a .410 clip. Jim Monahan, the left-gardener, is a great defensive outfielder, and in 1950 batted .348.

The Lions will also be concerned with the pitching selection for the Lafayette nine on Saturday. He is Fred Kroog, a big right-hander, who has already hurled a no-hitter against New York university, and a two-hitter against Army this year. This job also includes pitching 18 scoreless innings in a row.

Team Average, .392

The Nittanies plan to stick to the same line-up that has carried them to two wins so far this spring. The team is hitting at a .392 clip, with Bill Hopper, right-fielder leading the hitting parade with a lusty .500 average. Hopper has had six safeties in 12 trips to the plate. First-baseman Stan Lagonosky follows close behind with a .461 mark.

Lagonosky will be at first, Bill Mihulich at second, Paul Mowry at shortstop, and Harry Little at third. In the outfield will be Henny Albright in left, Sil Carchie in center, and Hopper in right. Bill Leonard and Clarence Buss will divide the catching chores with Buss probably getting the call against the speedy Rutgers team.

Owen Dougherty will be on the hill against Rutgers, while either Bill Bair or Bill Everson will take the mound in Easton. Jim Kelz and Tom Campbell will be held in relief.

Melchiorre, Ranzino Head List Of Basketball Draftees

NEW YORK, April 25—(AP)—Eighty-six college basketball stars, headed by all-Americans Gene Melchiorre and Sam Ranzino, were drafted today by the ten teams in the National Basketball association.

Melchiorre, a 5-8 ball of fire from Bradley, was the No. 1 pick of Baltimore, which had first choice in the regular draft. Ranzino, tenth-ranking scorer among the major colleges last season, was the No. 1 selection of the Rochester Royals, league champions.

Other first choices were: Tri-Cities-Mel Hutchins, Brigham Young; Indianapolis-Marcus Freiburger, Oklahoma; Fort Wayne—Zeke Sinicola, Niagara; Syracuse—John McConathy, Northwest Louisiana; New York—Ed Smith, Harvard; Boston—Ernie Barrett, Kansas State; Philadelphia—Don Sunderlage, Illinois;

Minneapolis—Meyer (Whitey) Skoog, Minnesota.

The three other members of the Associated Press' all-America, Kentucky's Bill Spivey, Kansas' Clyde Lovellette, and Temple's Bill Milkvy, are juniors and could not be drafted.

Hutchins was the most valuable player in the annual East-West college all-star game while Sunderlage was the big ten's most valuable player. Hutchins' teammate, Roland Minson, was picked by the New York Knicks. Minson was named most valuable in the National Invitation tournament.

Dairy Association To Meet Today

The Pennsylvania Approved Dairy Laboratory Directors' association will hold its statewide meeting at the College today and tomorrow, Dr. J. Frank Cone, secretary of the group, said yesterday.

A brief business session will open the program, with a series of technical reports and discussions listed for both days. Guest speakers from New Jersey, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Vermont, and New York will take part in the meeting. Dr. Vaclav Mares, assistant professor of economics at the College, is the banquet speaker for tomorrow.

Local Flying Club Redecorates Room

The Penn State Flying club recently finished redecorating its clubroom at the Bellefonte airport from which the club operates.

Curtains, slip-covered sofas and chairs, a clock inset in a pro-pellor, and a large wall map of Pennsylvania have been added to the room. Much of the work was done by the club's president, Henry Myers and his wife, Elizabeth.

BELIEVE IN YOURSELF!

Don't test one brand alone
 ...compare them all!

Unlike others, we never ask you to test our brand alone. We say... compare PHILIP MORRIS...match PHILIP MORRIS...judge PHILIP MORRIS against any other cigarette! Then make your own choice!

TRY THIS TEST!

Take a PHILIP MORRIS—and any other cigarette. Then, here's all you do:

1 Light up either cigarette. Take a puff—don't inhale—and s-l-o-w-l-y let the smoke come through your nose.

2 Now do exactly the same thing with the other cigarette.

NOTICE THAT PHILIP MORRIS IS DEFINITELY LESS IRRITATING, DEFINITELY Milder!
