

Gridders To Clash In 'Bucket Bowl'

'Trophy' To Be Presented By Sportswriters

No doubt you've heard of the Rose Bowl, Cotton Bowl, or Gator Bowl, but what about the Water Bucket Bowl?

That's the name of the Blue-White intrasquad football game to be played tomorrow afternoon on the State College High School Memorial Field. Kickoff time will be 2 p.m.

The Collegian sports staff yesterday offered a "water bucket" to the winner of tomorrow's game, so Earl Bruce's White team and Al Michaels' Blue squad will battle for the possession of this prized object. A member of the staff will present the bucket to the winning captain and coach immediately following the game.

Refunds For Scholarships

The receipts of this first Bucket Bowl game will go into a scholarship fund. Student tickets will be sold at the gate for 50 cents while general admission ducats are $1.

Both Bruce and Michaels have discarded the crying towels and boldly predict victories for their squads. As game time approaches the two mentors are studying their team rosters and planning secret plays and formations. Bruce said his White team will play an unorthodox style of football and will not have a definite defensive system.

Shepherd, Betts Captains

Both coaches announced their starting lineups for this battle of gridiron powers. Len Shepherd will captain the White team and Art Betts will lead Michaels' aggregation.

The Blues will have Betts and Joe Yukica, ends; Bill Hocker-smith, Ed Hoover, tackles; Tom Pevarnick, Tom McCurdy, guards; and Jim Dooley, at the center position. The backfield will consist of Tony Rados or Frank Minana at quarterback; Ted Shattuck at left half; Bob Pollard, wingback, and Paul Anders at the bucking post.

Bruce's Lineup

Bruce's lineup will include Don Malinak and Burt Suder at the ends; Herb Raifsnider and Jim Barr, tackles; Pete Schroderbek, Don Barney, guards; and John Podrasky, center. The backfield foursome will be Bob Szajna at quarterback; Dick Jones and Chan Johnson at the halfback positions, and Shephard at fullback. Michaels' Blues seem to have an edge in the line with next season's potential starting ends, tackles, and center. The backfields seem on an even par with both squads packing plenty of power. Since the Blues appear to have the better defensive team the Whites will probably do more passing.

Goodell Scores Third Triumph

Bob Goodell, last year's intramural badminton champ from Tau Kappa Epsilon, is making a determined bid to cop the title for the second consecutive year. Wednesday night he won his third game of the current tournament from Jim Miller, Kappa Delta Rho, 15-2, 15-3.

In other fraternity games played, Chet Makarewicz, Theta Xi, beat Ed Naythons, Phi Epsilon Pi, 15-4, 15-7; Richard Phillips, Sigma Phi Alpha, beat Joe Anthony, Sigma Chi, 15-0, 15-4; Dick Seidel, Pi Kappa Phi, won by forfeit when no opponent was chosen, Jack Pickett, Phi Delta Theta, beat Broz Ray, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 15-8, 15-2.

Frank Welton, Sigma Phi Epsilon, beat Carl Schrock, Alpha Chi Rho, 15-14, 15-12; Art Oberg, Pi Kappa Alpha, beat John Condit, Delta Sigma Phi, 15-5, 15-7; and Dave Bischoff, Sigma Nu, beat John Wylie, Phi Kappa Sigma, 15-3, 15-5.

When the Penn State cross country team won the IC-4A title last year, it was their first championship since 1930.

Senators Take Lead Position In Junior Loop

The Washington Senators took undisputed possession of first place in the American League yesterday afternoon by trouncing the Chicago White Sox, 7-1.

In the only other afternoon games in the majors, the New York Yankees overwhelmed the St. Louis Browns, 17-3, and the Boston Red Sox whipped the Detroit Tigers, 6-1.

All National League contests were night affairs.

The Sens chunky Cuban right-hander, who has allowed only one run in each of his three games, scattered nine hits in registering his third straight victory.

The Yankees, led by rookie Gil McDougald, who powered in six of the runs on a triple and a base-clearing home run, tied two records and broke a third, scoring 11 times in a wild ninth inning rally.

Young McDougald, thrown in at second base in place of Jerry Coleman, was the big noise in the Yankee attack, hitting a triple with two on and a homer with three on base in the wild final inning.

Big Walt Dropo, benched for weak hitting for the last ten games, smashed in four runs with a double and single to spark the Red Sox in their win.

Dropo punched a two-run single in the eighth after pitcher Virgil Trucks had deliberately walked Vern Stephens to load the bases.

Undeclared Middies Test Thinclads

Chick Werner's track team—strong in spots but lacking overall depth—heads for Annapolis today with a difficult Navy assignment on deck tomorrow afternoon.

With the Middies boasting overwhelming victories over Duke and Penn, things will be hot for the Lions in what should be an extremely close meet.

Sprinting for the Lions in the 100 and 220 are fast-coming Bill Polito, Bill Lockhart (bothered by a pulled muscle), and John Lauer. Bob Cower was listed for the 100-yard dash but he pulled a muscle and won't make the trip. For the Lions in the 440 are Guy Kay, Lauer and Johnny McCall.

Half-Milers

Running the half-mile are Bob's, Freebairn, Parsons, and Roessler; all three of whom may be one of the four in the mile relay along with Lou Gomlick, Lauer, McCall, Lockie, and Jim Davis.

Bill Ashenfelter, Don Ash, Freebairn and a rapidly improving sophomore Bob Gehman will toe the mark in the mile and all except Freebairn will double in the two mile along with Jack St. Clair and Jock Horner. Dud Foster is down with a bad cold and will not compete.

Double Duty

Skimming the low hurdles for the Lions are Fred Singer, George Kline and Kay. Singer and Kline have the highs to run in addition.

Heaving the shot and discus for the Nittanians will be Bob Krayer, Tom McDermott, Dick Cripps and Joe Sutorsky.

With Gower forced inactive, Ted Roderer will face Navy's two ace javelin throwers, Bob Allison and Gerry Helland, alone.

Owen Wilkenson and Jim Herb have the pole vaulting job. Herb will also high jump with Vic Fritts and Lewis.

Wearing the Blue and White colors in the broad jump are Polito, Lauer, Davis, and Herb.

Buc Manager Meyer Sent To Bed With Flu

NEW YORK, May 3 (AP)—Billy Meyer, manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was ordered to bed by his physician today and Milton Stock, regularly the Pirate third base coach, will direct the team in its game with the New York Giants tonight.

Meyer is suffering from the flu and was running a slight temperature. He may be back at the helm tomorrow.

Batsmen Go South; Meet Mountaineers

The Nittany diamondmen will leave for the southland at 3 p.m. today to play a doubleheader with West Virginia's Mountaineers at Morgantown tomorrow.

Coach Joe Bedenk's team will enter the twin bill with a 4-2 season's record. The Mountaineers were hampered by bad weather conditions early in the season, but have now won four of their last eight games, including wins over Pitt, George Washington, and Virginia Tech. Last year they finished with an 8-14 record.

Dougherty To Hurl

Owen Dougherty will pitch one game for the Lions. Either Bill Bair or Bill Everson will hurl the second game, depending on the weather and Dougherty's control. Coach Steve Harrick will probably counter with southpaw Pat Greegan and righthander Dick Morgan.

West Virginia has four sophomores and another newcomer in their starting lineup. Sophomore regulars are first baseman John Strycula, second baseman Wilbur Stanley, lefthander Chet Cooper, and catcher Jack Wellington. Shortstop Bobby Wallace is the newcomer.

Pittsburgher Star

Third sacker Dick Morton, centerfielder Lou Bonato, and rightfielder Al Purello are lettermen. Purello was shifted from the infield this year. Bonato, of Pittsburgh, and Wallace have been doing most of the power hitting for the Mountaineers.

Bedenk may make one change in his starting lineup. Bob Schoellkopf may replace Sil Cerchie in centerfield. Captain Bill Ondick may also move into the outer garden if the lefthanded Greegan pitches.

Outfield Doubtful

Stan Laganosky will be at his first base position; Bill Mihalick, at second; smooth fielding Paul Mowry, shortstop, and Harry Little, third base. Bill Hopper will be in right field, and either Cerchie, Ondick, Henry Albright, Joe Shumock, or Schoellkopf at the other outfield positions. Clarence Buss will catch the first game and Bill Leonard will probably be behind the plate in the second game.

Since it is a doubleheader the second game will probably only last seven innings, Bedenk said. Bedenk also said the games will probably be high scoring since the Mountaineers use drill-grounds for their playing field. It has an armory in short right field and a mound in left field which usually means a lot of extra base hits.

IM Track Entries

Intramural track entries are due in Dutch Sykes' IM office by 4:30 p.m. Tuesday. Physical examinations are required for all running events. Exam schedules are made through the IM office.

WRA Softball Results

Alpha Epsilon Phi slid through with a win in a close game against Delta Delta Delta, 14-13, in WRA intramural softball Wednesday.

Alpha Chi Omega whipped Delta Gamma 24-14. Beta Sigma Omicron forfeited to Alpha Xi Delta.

Michigan State's crack tennis team is almost entirely home grown, seven of the eight top men coming from Michigan.

Net Squad Plays Terps Tomorrow

Undeclared in five previous appearances, Coach Sherm Fogg's tennis team will meet another dangerous foe tomorrow afternoon when it hosts a strong Maryland contingent on the varsity courts.

The Terps under the tutelage of Doyle Royal had been flying high until a once beaten Navy squad beat them recently, 7-1. However, since then the Royalmen have fully recovered, having posted victories over Bucknell, Georgetown, Loyola, William and Mary, and Washington and Lee. Their 5-4 triumph over the Diplomats was one of the biggest upsets in the school's net history. It was the first time the Terps ever scored a win over their rivals.

Returns Pace

John McCool, Thomas Beight, and Lee Childs are the returnees who are pacing the Terps this season.

Unofficially, McCool has the distinction of being the only undeclared net performer on the Maryland squad this year. In the Middies' 7-1 win over Maryland, McCool netted the only point for the Marylanders.

Terps Upset

Last year the Terps upset the Nittanians, 5-4, at College Park, Md. After the Foggmen swept through the first four singles event, the Terps retaliated to cop the next two singles sets, and make a clean sweep of the doubles.
