

TODAY'S WEATHER:
COOLER
WITH SHOWERS

The Daily Collegian

FOR A BETTER
PENN STATE

VOL. 51—No. 135

STATE COLLEGE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 10, 1951

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Carnival To Feature New Ferris Wheel

Penn State's third annual Spring Carnival, with ferris wheel, hot dogs, cotton candy, and fifty entertainment booths, is only one week away.

Taking into account the possibility of rain, which has plagued both previous carnivals, the Spring Week committee Tuesday night set Wed. and Thurs., May 23 and 24, as rain dates for the carnival.

The carnival will open at 1 p.m. next Thursday and continue to 10 p.m. in the Osmond parking lot.

A ferris wheel will be a noted addition over carnivals of the past. It will not be in competition for the $100, $50, and $25 cash prizes, but will be operated under the direction of the Spring Week committee.

Osmond Site

The carnival, which in past years has been held on South Allen street and East Beaver avenue, stakes claim on the Osmond parking lot this year.

The Hotel Greeters Association, organization for hotel administra-

Cabinet Will Choose Six Committees

Six new committees will be appointed at tonight's All-College Cabinet meeting by James Worth, All-College president. Two other committees will present reports requesting funds.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in 201 Old Main.

Committees To Be Named

The six committees to be appointed by Worth are:

1. Drink colloquy committee to make arrangements for the fall meetings to be held at the College. Several speakers are expected to discuss some phases of drinking.

2. Student public occasions committee to work with the administration in planning public programs such as graduation and Honor's Day ceremonies.

3. Committee to choose student leaders who will meet with the State College Chamber of Commerce. The student leaders chosen will discuss with the group local problems which involve students.

4. Memorial Day committee to plan a program for the College.

5. Co-chairman of the student radio committee, which will make a further investigation of the possibilities of having a campus radio station.

6. Orientation Week co-ordinator who will take charge of the program to familiarize new students on campus with the traditions and background of the College.

Cash To Make Request

Ralph Cash, chairman of the displaced persons committee will request that money be appropriated to be used for approximately 30 displaced persons who will be studying at the College next year. Although the students will be working, the funds will provide clothing and entertainment. The rest will go into a reserve fund.

Dr. Weyl To Give Fourth Lecture In Priestley Series

Dr. Woldemar A. Weyl, head of the Department of Mineral Technology and professor of glass technology, will present the fourth in the series of Priestley lectures at 7:30 tonight in 119 Osmond Laboratory.

Dr. Edward Steidle, dean of the School of Mineral Industries will serve as chairman and will introduce Dr. Weyl, who will speak on scientific and technical developments in class technology and ceramics during the last quarter century.

Born and educated in Germany, Dr. Weyl conducted research at the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute for silicate research. He later was head of the department of glass research there before coming to this country as a visiting professor in 1936.

COMBINED ARTS DISPLAY

Work of students in the various arts at the College will go on display this week as the Combined Arts Festival exhibits open on campus. The displays will continue until May 20.

Laubach Elected New AIM Leader

By DAVE JONES

John Laubach, president of the Nittany Dorm Council, was elected president of the Association of Independent Men last night by the association's Board of Governors. He defeated David Mutchler by an 18 to 11 vote on the third ballot.

Fireworks were provided during the election proceedings when Weston Tomlinson, member of the West Dorm Council, challenged the right of Howard Sprenkle to sit as alternate for Stanley Zimmerman, West Dorm Council secretary. Tomlinson said Zimmerman had instructed him to sit in the position.

Charges Block Voting

Tomlinson said Mutchler, John Stoudt, Ray Evert, and Joseph Haines were prominent in the Lion party and said he had been informed that five representatives from the West Dorm Council had been instructed to vote in a block for these Lion party members.

Other candidates for the office were William Raymond and Richard Mills. Joseph Galati, in a letter to the board, withdrew his name from among the nominees.

Richard Schoemberger, sitting as alternate for Blair Green, protested Tomlinson's remarks and said he would vote for whom he thought most capable.

Stoudt Elected

Stoudt, was elected AIM vice-president by the board. He defeated William Brown, 15-14. After Stoudt's nomination, Tomlinson charged that Stoudt had approached him prior to the meeting and asked him to vote for "the four Lion candidates."

Stoudt replied "I did not state that." William Zakor, a board member, said he felt that politics should be kept out of the AIM board. Richard Bard, board president, requested that members keep political affiliations out of the meeting.

Tomlinson said Richard Klingensmith, a board member, told him before the meeting that he had been approached to vote for the four candidates.

William Brown was elected secretary and Ray Evert was elected treasurer.

Laubach gained 11 ballots, Mutchler seven, Mills six, and Raymond five on the first vote. In the second vote, Laubach held his 11 ballots, Mutchler polled 11, and Mills polled seven. The final vote went to Laubach, 18-11.

(continued on page eight)

Players Director

Prof. Robert Reifsneider

Players Show Opens Tonight

The Players' production of Moss Hart's musical play, "Lady in the Dark," opens at 8 tonight in Schwab Auditorium.

The play will continue tomorrow and Saturday nights. Tickets are available at the Student Union desk in Old Main. Prices are 60 cents for tonight's performance and $1 for tomorrow and Saturday's showings. Only a few tickets remain for the Saturday performance.

The show has music by Kurt Weill and lyrics by Ira Gershwin. Robert D. Reifsneider, assistant professor of dramatics, is director; Ed Menert is musical director; and Dennis Smerk is assistant director and stage manager.

Choreographer is Harry Woolver and Elmer C. Wareham is musical advisor.

Sets and costumes were designed by Charles Schulte.

Featured in the cast are Sonya Tilles, as Liza Elliott, whose dreams form the basis for the plot of the play; Dave Owen as Charley Johnson, advertising manager of the magazine "Allure"; Joe Bird as Kendall Nesbitt, publisher of the magazine; Robert Amole as Randy Curtis, movie idol; Joe Hudak as Russell Paxton, photographer; Marilyn Stewart as Maggie Grant, fashion editor; Betty Lou Morgan as Alison DuBois, fashion columnist; and Don Colbert as Dr. Brooks, psychiatrist.

The play alternates between realistic and fantasy sequences, and will require 15 set changes during the course of the show.

More than 150 costumes will be used. There are 40 cast members.

College Quintet Places First In Star Contest

The Four Flats and a Sharp, a vocal quintet of students from the College, won first prize in the second weekly star discovery contest held Monday night at the Cathaum Theater.

In the quintet are Polly Potter, William Detweiler, Richard Whitman, David Margolf, and Earl Baker.

First and second place weekly winners of the contests, will reappear at the Cathaum in the finals on May 28. The first and second-place winners will then appear in a show at Greensburg. Winners there will go to Pittsburgh for the regional finals.

Two six-month contracts with a Hollywood movie company will be given the two regional winners. A recording contract will be given to the third-place winner.

Walter Bankhouse, baritone, won second prize Monday night.

Other participants were Alan McChesney, baritone; Angelo Vespa, violinist; Dean Hample, tenor; and Phyllis Rishel, pianist.

Barth, Homas To Be Dancers At Festival

See Picture Page Two

Margaret Barth and Warren Homas, two freshmen at the College will form one of the five couples in the Edelweiss Schuhplatters dance group which will do "Heitauer" or the "Dance of Courtship" at the Folk Dance Festival in Recreation Hall to be held from 8 to 10:45 tonight.

Miss Barth, a freshman in home economics from Woodbury, N.J., says she dances for pleasure, but doesn't plan to dance professionally. This is the first time she has danced with the Edelweiss Schuhplatters group.

Homas, a freshman in engineering, has always been interested in dancing. He started folk dancing with the Edelweiss Schuhplatter group when it was begun, two years ago.

In the last two years the group has participated in several folk dance exhibitions around Reading and New York. They always do German dances in costume.

Dancers In Costume

In tonight's exhibition, the men will wear black knee-length pants, white shirts, green vests, leather suspenders, and dark green caps with white feathers. The girls will wear heavy pleated blue skirts, white peasant blouses, and white stockings.

There are twelve other dance groups in the festival. The Lycoming Senior Extension group will present the "Quilt Dance," which was originated by Mrs. Arthur Davis, of State College. This dance was demonstrated last fall at the State Farm Show in Harrisburg.

Hillel Foundation will demonstrate "Mayim," a Hebrew dance. This dance, which means water, originated on the shores of the Galilee River. The words to the song are taken from the Book

(continued on page eight)

Amendment To Charter In Court

A proposed amendment to the College charter which would equalize representation of agricultural and industrial men on the Board of Trustees will be discussed at a hearing before Judge Ivan Walker at a session of Centre County court tomorrow in Bellefonte.

The charter, as it stands now, requires 32 members on the board, twelve of which are chosen from agriculture and industry. The new plan would limit representation to six members each.

Representation of the two factions has been nearly equal in the past, but there have been times when one or the other group controlled the membership.

The amendment was approved by a 13 to 9 vote at a trustees meeting Jan. 20. The petition to Harrisburg for the change was also approved by the Council of Education.

In opposition to the amendment is the State Council of Farm Organizations, which filed exceptions on the grounds that it would harm agriculture.