Schools To Hold Open House Sat.

Chem-Phys School | Engineers To Have Exhibits, Displays To Conduct Tours

Demonstrations, techniques, and apparatus of all fields of chemistry and physics will be shown in Pond, Osmond, Walker, Textile Chemistry, and Frear lab-spending Mother's Day weekend cattors from the students of the order of oratories.

The evening program will feature a reception for parents in peted in a poster contest to adthe lobby of Osmond to - give vertise the open house. The win-them an opportunity to meet the ning posters will be shown in the faculty. Refreshments will be Athletic Store windows today, to-

The School of Chemistry and Physics will hold an open house on Saturday to provide an op-portunity for parents and pros-pective students to view its many racilities.

at the college may attend.

Junior architect students commorrow, and Saturday.

Phi Eta Sigma Initiates Frosh, 19 Sophomores

Phi Eta Sigma, national freshman fraternity, initiated 26 freshmen last night at the State College hotel.

Those initiated were Ned Clark, witham Collins, Robert F. Conin, Wilson Cramer, William Craven, Richard Dennis, David Craven, Richard Dennis, David Fishburn, Sidney Gass, Lawrence Gregor, Harry Haziehurst III, Robert Hess, Arthur Hussey, Wal-ter Jaworek, William Johnson, Albert Kalson, Jackson Keim, William Kilmer, Charles Mathias, Richard Oswald, Wayne Otto, Donald Plasterer, Robert Rapp, Charles Rockman, Charles Rohr-beck, Philip Sheridan, and Thom-as Younkins

Deck, Friing Sneridan, and Thomas Younkins.
 In the same ceremony, 19 sophomores were initiated. They are ceremony, 19 sophomores were initiated. They are the forman, Robert Bealer, Fresbyterian Church sponsored by the Penn State Christian Asser, Willard Dye, Jr., John Goetter, Jr., Thades and the Penn State Christian Association.
 This choir sang for a time over the National Broadcasting Company network. They entertained soldiers during World War II and have made a tour of Europe. They are now on a good-will tour, booked by the Religious Artists Service, to promote inter acial brotherhood. While in State College they will live in thomas of townspeople.
 At a banquet following the exercises, the Senior Award of the chapter was presented to Russell Herman, Jr., a Phi Eta Sigma in the program is open to t

To Elect Officers

Caboose Becomes New Classroom A caboose is the last word in classrooms for students at Penn State.

In studying traffic management, the students boarded the caboose at Bellefonte and rode the 18 miles from the Belle-fonte Central Railroad into State College. The expedition included a visits the offices of the Short Line Railroad in Bellefonte, where George E. McClelland, vice-president and general manager of the line, explained problems in handling freight.

In Dance Festival

MARGARET BARTH and Warren Homas as they will appear with five other couples in the Edelweiss Schuhlpatters folk dance group at the Folk Dance Festival tonight in Recreation Hall. The group from Reading will demonstrate the German dance "Heitauer," or "Dance of Courtship." This is the first time Miss Barth has appear-ed with the Edelweiss Schuhlpatters. Homas has been with the group since it was organized two years ago. Both Miss Barth and Homas are freshmen at the College.

Cadets Awarded Air ROTC Medals

tion Medal, donated by the Penn-sylvania State College and Centre County Chapters of the Reserve Officers Association white was presented to Cadet Colonel Alan E. Wolfe. Artz Outstanding Cadet Cadet Maj. Robert B. Artz re-ceived the Outstanding Second Year Advanced Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps Medal. The Air Force Association Med-al for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania The Air Force Association Med-al for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Council and the Pennsylvania Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding seconder Calebar or the mathematical for outstanding second for the mathematical for outstanding second for outstanding for outstanding second fo The Air Force Association Med-al for outstanding scholastic abili-Following Calahan on the pro-gram was Mrs. E. M. Grove of films of Korea and told of her experiences there.

line was decorated with the Out- Mrs. Grove, who is the wife of Dates for ICSF parties next

Recreation Conference Underway

More than 300 state and national recreation leaders arrived in State College yesterday to be-gin the fourth annual Pennsylvania Recreation Conference on Campus. The Pennsylvania Recreation Society, the College's School of Physical Education and Athletics, and the General Extension Services are sponsoring the three-day event.

The program is to continue through Friday. The conference theme is "Mobilizing Resources for Pennsylvania's Recreation."

Speakers Named

The speakers scheduled to participate in the program are: Hugh Masters, director, division of ed-ucation, W. K. Kellogg Founda-tion of Battle Creek, Mich.; Dr. Harold D. Meyer, recreation con-sultant, North Carolina Recrea-tion Commission; William C. Brown, secretary, Pennsylvania Department of Welfare; Richard Gerstell, director, Pennsylvania Civil Defense Council; and Conrad L. Wirth, assistant director, National Park Service, Depart-ment of Interior, Washington, D.C.

According to Fred M. Coombs, conference chairman, the event is to assist recreation leaders in keeping pace with the social needs of communities by provid-ing current information to plan, establish, and improve recreation facilities and programs.

Folk Festival Planned A folk dance festival is plan-ed for Recreation Hall at 8:45 to-night. The public is invited to participate in the evening of dancing exhibitions. A number of folk dance groups will present folk dance groups will present special numbers. No Admission There will be no admission charged for the dance festival, Dr. Bertram Kessel, who is in charge of arrangements for the exhibitions, announced. Lawrence Loy, noted square dance caller, will call the dancing.

Workshops in crafts, social recreation, and camping will be other features of the conference.

Fellowship Plans Robert Calahan of Harrisburg, May 30 Picnic

Plans were completed for a joint Memorial Day picnic among all local student foundations who ing the state investigating wage are members of Inter-Church Stu-

Following Calahan on the pro-gram was Mrs. E. M. Grove of State College who showed colored films of Korea and told of her ex-periences there ter.

chapter was presented to Russell
Homes of townspeople.
The program is open to the public. A free-will offering will be taken, part of which will go taken, part of which will go taken, part of which will go to the choir's scholarship fund.
The initiation and the banquet were conducted by the officers of the chapter including David the choir's scholarship of $250 is given a qualifying Negro student each year for four years to attend the college of his choice. Forty students are now received to attend the college of his choice. Forty students are now received ing these scholarships.
State To Replace
State To Replace
Dimed Lime
Di

Sewage Pipe Line The General State Authority is replacing the sewage and sani-tation pipe line along College Engineering Group The Student branch of the avenue.

	American Society of Mechanical	• A local contractor is in charge	standing First Year Advanced Air	Maj. Gen. E. M. Grove presently	year were set for Oct. 12, Dec. 7
	Engineers will elect officers for	of laying the new 12 and 14 inch	Force Reserve Officers Training	on duty in Korea and Okinawa,	and April 12. Plans were made to the coming year at their meeting	transite pipe which replaces the	Corps Cadet Medal.	spent 1947-1948 in Korea.	hold a World Student Day of	:
	tonight in 219 Electrical Engi-	ald smaller line			Prover meeting cometime in Febneering at 7:30 o'clock.	The complete length of the line	Codet M/Set Alan C Man ware	Arnold Air Society	ruary.
	neering at 7.50 0 clock.	boging of the source disposal	Cadel M/Sgl. Alan C. May were	Arnola Air Society	Officers for next year include
	Plans for the annual student	begins at the sewage disposal	awarded the Outstanding Sec-			· .
	branch dinner to be held May 23	plant, near the conege pond, fulls	ond Year Basic Cadet Medal and	Names Commander	Robert Buchanan, vice-president;
	and a report of the regional con-	parallel to college avenue, men	the Outstanding First Year Basic		, the problem of the ference at the University of Pitts-	crosses Allen street where it	Cadet Medal, respectively.	The Arnold Air Society, a na-		1
	burgh will be given at the meet-	stops.	The medal for Military Drill,	tional Air ROTC honorary, has
	ing.	Several weeks work is suil nec-	Air Force Reserve Officers Train-	named John J. Frantz new squad-	Edwerth E. Korte, adviser.
	ASME also will make available	essary for completion of the new	ing Corps, was received by Cadet	ron commander.
	applications for transfer to jun-	line.	Lt. Col. William F. Hoyer.	A list of other officers elected	College Symphony ior membership. All members are			were William J. Frech, squadron	concac symptony	•
		Enlagono Brosidont	Mills Elected President	executive officer; Edward J. Chesla, squadron operations offi-	To Hold Concort
	asked to attend.		will's Elected President	Chesla, squadron operations offi-	To noid Concert	1
			Of Sigma Delta Chi	cer; Jack W. Enterline, squadron	The College Symphony Orches-
	Women's Debate Team	Of Eng. Council		adjutant: John W. Cable, squad-	tra will present its annual
•		•	Moylan Mills was elected pres-	Luca flagman officiant and Doul C	The state of the second st	4
				Ton innance onicer, and radi S.	LVIOLDER'S Day concert at 3 n.m.
	Journeys To Juniata	Election of officers was com-	ident of Sigma Delta Chi ⁺ na-	Ton mance onicer, and I day of	Mother's Day concert at 3 p.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium
	•	pleted at the Engineering Stu-	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism	Beighley, squadron public infor-	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium,
	Four members of the women's	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday.	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer.	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro-	Y
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun-	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes-	r
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting.	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night.	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday.	¥
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da-	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca-	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the	¥
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob-	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud-	۲
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr-	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music	¥
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi-	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer.	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer.	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60.	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian	¥
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation."	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60.	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant	¥
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation." Ethel Brown and Alice Murray	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last issue of the engineering News-	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also initiated. They are Dean Glad-	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60. NSA TO MEET, TONIGHT	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant Kije" by Prokofieff, and three	х
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation." Ethel Brown and Alice Murray will take the affirmative side.	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last issue of the engineering News- letter would be available today	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also initiated. They are Dean Glad- felter. George Glazer. Robert	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60. NSA TO MEET. TONIGHT The National Student Associa-	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant Kije" by Prokofieff, and three dances from "The Bartered Bride"	х
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation." Ethel Brown and Alice Murray will take the affirmative side, and Shirley Gallagher and Mari-	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last issue of the engineering News- letter would be available today and that a council-faculty mixer	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also initiated. They are Dean Glad- felter, George Glazer, Robert Fraser, John Pakkanen, Ernest	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60. NSA TO MEET. TONIGHT The National Student Associa- tion will meet in 233 Sparks at 7	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant Kije" by Prokofieff, and three dances from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana.
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation." Ethel Brown and Alice Murray will take the affirmative side, and Shirley Gallagher and Mari-	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last issue of the engineering News- letter would be available today and that a council-faculty mixer	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also initiated. They are Dean Glad- felter, George Glazer, Robert Fraser, John Pakkanen, Ernest	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60. NSA TO MEET. TONIGHT The National Student Associa- tion will meet in 233 Sparks at 7	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant Kije" by Prokofieff, and three dances from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana.
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation." Ethel Brown and Alice Murray will take the affirmative side, and Shirley Gallagher and Mari- lyn DuPont will argue the nega-	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last issue of the engineering News- letter would be available today and that a council-faculty mixer would be held following next	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also initiated. They are Dean Glad- felter, George Glazer, Robert Fraser, John Pakkanen, Ernest Moore, Leonard Kolasinski, and	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60. NSA TO MEET TONIGHT The National Student Associa- tion will meet in 233 Sparks at 7 tonight to discuss the June con-	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant Kije" by Prokofieff, and three dances from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana.
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation." Ethel Brown and Alice Murray will take the affirmative side, and Shirley Gallagher and Mari- lyn DuPont will argue the nega-	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last issue of the engineering News- letter would be available today and that a council-faculty mixer would be held following next	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also initiated. They are Dean Glad- felter, George Glazer, Robert Fraser, John Pakkanen, Ernest Moore, Leonard Kolasinski, and	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60. NSA TO MEET. TONIGHT The National Student Associa- tion will meet in 233 Sparks at 7 tonight to discuss the June con-	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant Kije" by Prokofieff, and three dances from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana. The doors will open at 2:30 p.m.
	Four members of the women's debate team will travel to Jun- iata College tonight to participate in a no-decision debate on the question, "Resolved: That the non-Communist nations should form a new international organi- zation." Ethel Brown and Alice Murray will take the affirmative side, and Shirley Gallagher and Mari- lyn DuPont will argue the nega-	pleted at the Engineering Stu- dent Council meeting Tuesday. Charles Falzone was elected president at last week's meeting. Other new office holders are Da- vid Margolf, vice-president; Rob- ert Watson, secretary; and Lawr- ence Schniepp, treasurer. It was announced that the last issue of the engineering News- letter would be available today and that a council-faculty mixer would be held following next	ident of Sigma Delta Chi, na- tional professional journalism honorary, at its meeting last night. Other officers elected are Paul Poorman, vice-president; Robert Vosburg, secretary; and David Colton, treasurer. Seven new members were also initiated. They are Dean Glad- felter, George Glazer, Robert Fraser, John Pakkanen, Ernest Moore, Leonard Kolasinski, and	Beighley, squadron public infor- mation officer. The organization is made up of Air Force ROTC cadets who have higher than average aca- demic standings and leadership ability. Its membership is about 60. NSA TO MEET. TONIGHT The National Student Associa- tion will meet in 233 Sparks at 7 tonight to discuss the June con-	Sunday in Schwab Auditorium, Theodore Karhan, assistant pro- fessor of music, announced yes- terday. The program will consist of the "Overture to Ruslan and Lud- milla" by Glinka, "Water Music Suite" by Handel, eight Russian folk songs by Liadov, "Lieutenant Kije" by Prokofieff, and three dances from "The Bartered Bride" by Smetana. The doors will open at 2:30 p.m.	