

Modern Dance Club To Present Recital

The Modern Dance group will present the second showing of its Spring Recital at 8 tonight in White Hall. The concert will also be held Saturday at the same time. Tickets may be obtained at the main office, White Hall.

The concert will consist of three sessions. The first is a biblical suite including "Twenty-third Psalm" and "Go Down Moses;" "Jeremiah's Lamentations," a solo by Miss Dorothy Briant, advisor to the dance clubs; and "Solomon's Prayer," a solo by Betty Jane Strom.

The second part will consist of sketches from Alice in Wonderland including "Jabberwocky," "Mad Tea Party," "Tweedledee and Tweedledum," "Lobster Quadrille," and "Jack of Hearts." Joan Wiley, portraying the part of Alice, will open the section with the solo, "Alice's Dream."

The third section, "Dances Across Canvases," will depict interpretations of pictures through dance. These include "Manhattan Skyline," "Pastel Portraits," "Steel Jungle," "Nuance," a duet by Phyllis Sones and Miss Briant; and "Perspective," a solo by Michaline Claysmith.

Co-Edits

Phi Sigma Sigma

Phi Sigma Sigma sorority held its pledge dance Saturday night at the Phi Sigma Delta fraternity house. James Erb and his Penn State Blue Notes played for the dance. After the dance, the pledges gave the actives a party in the sorority suite.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Thomas Bradrick was elected president of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. Other officers are Bruce McMillin, vice-president; Edward Shihadeh, secretary; William Wagner, corresponding secretary; and Charles Gerdes, treasurer.

Engagements

Yeager-Springer

Col. and Mrs. Robert Springer, of North Charleroi, Pa., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jo, to Gerald Yeager, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Berry, also of North Charleroi. Miss Springer is a graduate of Allegheny General Hospital School of Nurses' Training, and is now a member of the nursing staff of the Centre County Hospital in Bellefonte.

Mr. Yeager is a senior in the School of Liberal Arts, and is majoring in commerce and finance.

May Queen, Court Reign At Ball Fri.

The tenth Coronation Ball will be held tomorrow from 9 p.m. to midnight in White Hall. Gene Magill and his orchestra will provide the music.

The price of admission will be $1.50 per couple, but all parents will be admitted free of charge. The dance will be informal. Card tables will be available for bridge or canasta, and refreshments will be served.

Decoration Theme

The decorations will follow a May Day theme. WSGA will have a display in the lobby of White Hall. The display was arranged by the freshman senators, Barbara Werts and Elizabeth Stutter. The committees for the dance are Barbara Klopp, general chairman; Nancy Kern, decorations; and Jane Mason, refreshments.

The annual May-Day ceremony will be held on Saturday from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in front of Old Main. In case of rain the ceremony will be held in Recreation Hall. Teas will be held in the various women's living units from 2 to 3 p.m. on Saturday, preceding the festivities. The dormitories will be open for inspection by visiting parents.

May Queen

Martha Baltzell will reign as queen of the May Day festivities, and Louise Robertson, freshman, will be maid of honor. Sally Sechler and Charlotte Stine will be senior attendants. Phoebe Erickson and Juliana Fees will serve as freshmen attendants. In addition to the queen and her court, coeds will participate as jesters, heralds, and members of the hemlock chain and honor arch.

Tickets for the Coronation Ball may be obtained from members of the house of representatives, senate and members of Panhellenic Council. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

An old tradition of the College was that no one was to leave an inter-collegiate game until the last line of the Alma Mater had been sung.

Alpha Xi Delta

Alpha Xi Delta sorority entertained Phi Kappa Psi fraternity last Saturday afternoon at the Phi Kappa Psi house. Volleyball, badminton, and softball were played outdoors. A picnic lunch was served.

Dr. Winona Morgan, professor of child development and family relations, spoke to the sorority Monday night on the White House Conference for Children which she attended last December. The sorority carries on its national philanthropy project as a member of this conference.

"Silvana Mangano is NOTHING SHORT of a SENSATION!..."

full-bodied and gracefully muscular, with a rich voice and a handsome pliant face, she handles with vigor and authority the characterization of a tortured libertine. It is not too excessive to describe her as Anna Magnani minus fifteen years, Ingrid Bergman with a latin disposition and Rita Hayworth plus twenty-five pounds. Passion toils and tumbles through 'BITTER RICE'. It is as earthy and elemental as any picture you are likely to see."

- SEYMOUR PECK, Compass

"Mangano is a vital personality, an unwashed beauty of the Ingrid Bergman type and a good actress. It is a fast moving melodrama. De Santis, who directed 'BITTER RICE', has put everything into the action."
