ned. Essentially it will be a shooting gallery with members of the two groups holding the targets.

Delta Tau Delta fraternity will set up a target which when hit upsets a bucket of water in what it calls "Drown a Delt."

Delta Zeta sorority plans a "Nautical Revue."

Balls Thrown at ZBT's
Zeta Beta Tau fraternity will permit the throwing of tennis balls at a hat worn by a member and protruding above a barricade in "Tip the Topper."

Phi Kappa Psi fraternity will hand out beach balls to be thrown at men sitting on a bar above their "Mud Bath."

Alpha Phi Delta fraternity will give prizes to all who can "Down a Clown" with water-filled balloons.

Zeta Tau Alpha sorority will hold a "Circus Show."

Alpha Chi Sigma fraternity and Kappa Delta sorority have plans for a "French Hoopla," tossing hoops over men and women's legs protruding through the backdrop.

Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity will sponsor "Kill the Cat," the object being to knock stuffed cats from a rack with baseballs.

with the captivating "Saga of Jenny," her only song in a lower pitch.

Outstanding among the male performers is Joe Bird, who brings a quiet dignity to his portrayal of Liza's "benefactor."

Ad Manager
Dave Owen, as Charlie Johnson, breezy advertising manager, is spotty. In some scenes he is altogether convincing and in others he seems stilted and unreal.

Bob Amole is completely miscast in the role of Randy Curtis, Hollywood movie idol. He looks and acts ill at ease at all times.

Joe Hudak does well in the almost foolproof role of the photo-

sylvania State College," the President told the legislators, "use several procedures to assure themselves that the personnel of the institution are loyal to the nation and to the commonwealth, and free of subversion."

The President said that faculty members can be kept on probation for as much as seven years and that even after receiving tenure could be dismissed for cause.

Under the federal oath procedure supported by the President, the oath is backed up by a special law which establishes "a fine and imprisonment for anyone falsely representing his own position in relation to the law." The President said that the proposed state bill was weak since it was the belief of attorneys that falsely taking an oath is not perjury in itself.

Perjury Strong Point
Supporters of the state bill have contended that a strong point of the law was that subversives could be prosecuted for perjury if they falsely took the oath.

In scoring the section of the bill that would empower the attorney general to name subversive organizations, the President said that if any one person had the power to determine what organizations—including political parties—were subversive, the United States' democratic tradition would be endangered.

"It is surely un-American," the President said, "to give to one man control of the allegiance, the conscience, and the thoughts of great numbers of his fellow citizens."
