

Exhibit --

the TUB and the Pattee Library includes oil, watercolor, and pencil drawings and paintings. The landscape horticulture exhibit at the TUB includes plans for an outdoor amusement restaurant and a state park.

Models and plans for a photographer's studio, an elementary school, and a farm are being displayed by the Department of Architecture at the TUB and on the third floor of Main Engineering.

The home arts display is arranged like a gift shop at the TUB. There are wooden salad sets, textiles done by both silk-screen and hand-stencil, hand-hammered copper bowls, lamps, and cherry and maple tables all designed and made by students. Samples of weaving include place mats, luncheon cloths, and upholstering fabrics.

COME TO CHURCH

Most mothers encourage the members of their families to attend worship services regularly in churches of their choice. We urge you to find your way into a sanctuary on Sunday, there to give thanks for all worthy mothers and to seek a double portion of their spirit of devotion to God.
