

Bucknell Whips Lion Nine, 4-3

Roush Fans 10 Batters, Spoils Lion Playoff Bid

Coach Bill Lane's Bucknell Bisons knocked the Nittany nine out of contention for District 2 baseball honors by downing the Lions, 4-3, at Lewisburg yesterday.

Righthander Dick Roush struck out ten batters, and limited the Lions to eight hits. Bill Brown was the losing hurler, although he gave up only one run and three hits in five innings of relief pitching. Southpaw Owen Dougherty, mainstay of State's staff, started on the mound but was removed after yielding three runs and three hits in his three innings on the mound.

The victory was the ninth for the Bisons in twelve games. Coach Joe Bedenk's team now has a 8-3 record.

Six Lion errors contributed heavily to the Bucknell cause. Pitcher Dougherty committed three errors, while Clarence Buss, Harry Little, and Stan Laganosky also made miscues.

Bill Mihalich was the offensive star for the Lions with three hits in four attempts. Bill Hopper had two singles and a walk.

Bucknell opened the scoring in the last of the second. Abe Powelson, rightfielder, singled to center. Catcher Jim Diguseppi bunted and Dougherty fumbled the ball.

Tall first sacker Marty McKibbin laid another bunt along the third base line which Dougherty again fumbled and then threw wild over third. Powelson scored on the play, and Diguseppi went to third and McKibbin to second. Bob Albert lifted a fly to left and the catcher scored after the catch.

The Bisons scored again in the third on a double by Andy Shirk, and a single by Powelson.

Trailing 3-0 in the fourth, the Lions rallied to tie the game. With one out Sil Cerchie reached first on an error, and stole second. Hopper singled to bring him home. Stan Laganosky connected with another single and on a throw to third went to second.

Paul Mowry struck out, but Mihalich dropped a double to left to score both runners, and tie the game.

Brown took the mound in the fourth. McKibbin reached first as Lag dropped a throw at first. He went to second on a sacrifice, and scored on pitcher Roush's two-out single.

Tennis Tourney Narrows Down To 14 Teams

Four matches were played last week and one was forfeited in the IM tennis doubles tourney, thereby narrowing the field to fourteen teams. Three of the victors advanced to the quarter-finals.

In other matches Ron Coleman and Sandford Bennett, Alpha Tau Omega, beat Charles Brouse and Bill Whiteford, Tau Kappa Epsilon, 9-7, 7-5; and Sam Lemon and Stuart Butz, Sigma Nu, won by forfeit over Bill Nichols and Dick Wert, Lambda Chi Alpha.

Golfers Rout Bucknell, 8-1, For 4th Win

Coach Bob Rutherford's Nittany Lion golf squad copped its fourth win of the season yesterday by defeating Bucknell University, 8-1.

The match was played in three foursomes with a point going to the best ball.

Bowers Medalist

Lion Bob Bowers took medal honors, shooting a 73, one over par.

In the first foursome, the Bisons No. 1 man, Bill Allen defeated Captain Joe Durniak, 6 and 5, for Bucknell's only point. Hud Sampson downed Van Johnson, 4 and 3. State won best ball, 2 and 1.

Berra's Homer Leads Yankees Past Detroit

The league-leading New York Yankees backed up Allie Reynolds' four-hit pitching yesterday afternoon with an extra base barrage that included Yogi Berra's fifth homer for a 6-1 clean sweep over the St. Louis Browns.

Six of the nine hits exploded off Ned Garver, the Brown's ace, were for extra bases with first baseman Joe Collins blasting a triple and double.

It was the third win for "Old Wahoo." He had been troubled by a sore elbow in early spring.

At Boston, catcher Les Moss, acquired only a week ago, broke the spell southpaw Ted Gray has cast on the Boston Red Sox with a grand slam homer that overcame the Detroit Tigers, 6-3.

Lefty Maury McDermott, reinstated as a starter only a few days ago, held the Tigers to seven hits after an uncertain start. The Tigers filled the bases in the first inning on two singles and a base on balls and McDermott forced in a run by passing Hoot Evers.

RIP ENGLE LEFTY JAMES GEORGE MUNGER

Penn State's Engle, Cornell's James, and Penn's Munger will share lecture assignments during the three-day football clinic to be held at Penn State August 13, 14 and 15. Their mastery of the wing-T, T and single wing is expected to attract hundreds of schoolboy coaches.

Col'umn What You Want

By DAVE COLTON

The June issue of Sport magazine has an article on page 90 titled, "College Baseball Comes of Age." It tells how college baseball has grown to a position rapidly approaching that of NCAA basketball in prestige and popularity since the NCAA sanctioned its first national tournament in 1947.

Chief credit for this belated popularity, Sport says, belongs primarily to pioneers Eppie Barnes and Joe Bedenk, coaches of Colgate and Penn State. The magazine describes how these two men got together in 1944 with 20 other coaches to form the American Association of College Baseball Coaches.

Personalities . . . Bill Mihalich, smooth fielding second baseman for the Nittany nine, holds the intramural basketball scoring record for one game with 35 points. He is the sparkplug of the Edinboro team which has won the independent title the past two years. Henry Albright, who broke his ankle in Saturday's game has a 2.56 All-College average in chemical engineering. He has been a regular on the baseball team for three years, and is a member of Parmi Nous.

Ron Coder, senior goalie on the soccer team, was the Iranian's hero on the soccer trip to Iran because of his sterling defensive work. Stan Laganosky, slugging first baseman for the Lions, was tapped for Druids his sophomore year because of his basketball ability. Big Lag is probably one of the best players in school.

George Emig, soccer star, was followed and worshiped by the children of Iran because of his flaming red hair. . . Gus Bigott, All-American soccer player at the College in 1938, and a member of the tennis squad that year has still retained enough "zip" to win letters in both of the sports this year.

Bill Hopper, slugging outfielder for Bedenk's diamondmen, works out with the Pittsburgh Pirates in Forbes Field during the summer. . . Sil Cerchie, sophomore centerfielder, has worked out with the Cleveland Indians.

Pete Sarantopoulos, cross-country letter winner and vice-president of the Athletic Association, was a track star more than ten years ago. . . Ron Coleman, captain-elect of the soccer team, will be Penn State's hope for All-American next year. Ron hails from St. Louis, Mo., and can be regularly seen checking the ball scores of his Cardinals at Gramms.

Condolences to Pete Raidy, fencing, Nelson Bevard, rifle, Paul Friese, skiing, and George Hamilton, swimming, captains without a team. These men were to be captain of their respective sports next year but these sports, along with golf have been dropped by the College because of financial difficulties.

Michigan State Freshmen Jolt Cub Track Team, 95-36

Michigan State rudely jolted the Penn State frosh's dreams for an unbeaten track season when the Spartan freshmen trounced the Lions 95-36 in a telegraphic meet last week. The season-closing meet left the frosh with a 3-1 record.

Norm Gordon's outstanding frosh distance runners, who usually sweep all three places in the mile and two mile, had to be content with second places. Red Hollen took second in the two mile in 9:47.2 and Pete Judd and Carl Godshall were two, three in the mile.

Sax, Milsom Win

Ollie Sax closed a banner year with a 49.7 second 440 victory and John Milsom shut out in the hurdles, won the 100 in 10 flat. Ted Mortensen tied for second in the same event.

Bernie Kelley won the javelin for the frosh for the fourth straight time with a 174 foot throw. Bill Selvig was runnerup to teammate Kelley.

In the weights Pat Lamb grabbed a second in the discus and a third in the shot for the Nittanies and Dick Wendler got a third in the discus. Dan Garson tied for third in the high jump.

Can Boast

Coach Gordon can still boast one of the best frosh track teams in the East. Comparing times of the recent New York City Metropolitan freshman championships, Penn State would not only have won, but routed all the track-loaded New York schools.

Teams like Manhattan could do no better than win two events. On a comparative time basis, Penn State frosh would have taken 7 events.

The frosh earlier beat Penn, Notre, Dame, and Ohio State in telegraphic competition.

AGR Places In 3 Heats; Wilson Stars

Alpha Gamma Rho, defending intramural track champions, placed runners in each of the final events during trial heats last night in a part-time downpour of rain.

The 440-yard dash and the 880-yard relay were held up for approximately 10 minutes, but the teams went back into action despite a slight drizzle.

Robert Fey and Don Gaddess were independent final winners in the 100-yard dash and 440-yard dash. Fey was timed in 11.3, while Gaddess finished in 56.5.

After the teams changed leads twice in the 880-yard relay, Chuck Wilson, of Alpha Gamma Rho, took the baton from John Terry 10 steps behind the leading runner, and finished one step ahead of Bill Hickey, Phi Delta Theta, to win in 1:39.9. Bill Kincaid, Stew Stanley and John Terry were the other runners for Alpha Gamma Rho.

Vince O'Bara, Johnny Reese, Bill Hickey, and Don Reynolds of Phi Delta Theta, finished third with 1:40.2. Alpha Tau Omega placed third with Dick Bell, Malcolm Dunkel, Don Voxel, and Frank Angelo in 1:40.4. Delta Tau Delta followed with 1:40.5. Delta Chi came in fifth with 1:43.2, while Chi Phi scored sixth in 1:43.9.

Qualifiers for the 100-yard dash were Bill Abbot, Beta Theta Pi, 10.7, Wilson, Alpha Gamma Rho, and Bell, Alpha Tau Omega, both running in 10.9. Six fraternities were tied for third with 11.1. Those tied were Paul Eckert, Phi Kappa Alpha; Hill, Omega Phi Si; Herb Raifsnider, Lambda Chi Alpha; Ed Donahue, Delta Tau Delta; Reese, Phi Delta, Theta; and Pete Houston, Lambda Chi Alpha.

The six fastest times in the 440-yard dash were Herb Taft, of Delta Tau Delta, 55.3; Bob Winters, Beta Theta Pi, 55.7; and Dave Timothy, Delta Tau Delta, 55.9; Bud Coleman, Phi Delta, 56.0; Ed Chesla, Chi Phi, 56.9; and Bill Erb, Alpha Gamma Rho, 55.3.

Lion Thinclads Go In IC-4A's Friday, Sat.

Fourteen Nittany trackmen will meet just about the toughest competition possible Friday and Saturday when they work against more than 50 IC-4A colleges fielding about 600 top-notch athletes.

Coach Chick Werner is sending his best performers against competition which is second only to the National Collegiate and AAU championships.

Half of the IC-4A performers for the Lions will be making their final Penn State track bow. Seniors Bill and Don Ashenfelter are entered in the two mile. Two other seniors, Bob Freebairn and Bob Parsons will make their final run, barring the Nationals, in the mile and 880.

Bill Lockhart, ace sprinter and quarter miler will make his final Nittany effort in the 220.

In the field, two outstanding performers will take their final Penn State fling. Vic Fritts, IC-4A 1950 indoor champion, is listed to take a crack at the outdoor high jump championship.

Ted Roderer, who has long hovered around the 200 foot javelin mark, is ready to go in his last try Saturday.

Grid Comeback

Rip Engle's 1950 Penn State football team bounded back from three straight defeats to compile a season's mark of five, three and one.
