

Lion Track Team Competes In IC-4A's

Runners Face Stiff Trial Heats Today; Cornell Team Favorite

By JAKE HIGHTON

Nittany cindermen today open a two-day stand in Philadelphia for the 75th annual IC-4A track championships to be held on Franklin Field.

Rugged trial heats will be held in most events this afternoon to determine entries for the finals scheduled for tomorrow afternoon.

For the Lions, who lost to Navy and beat Pitt in dual competition and won the four mile relay championship at the Penn Relays, the IC's are the windup of the season. The exception is that a ny individual performers who may do well enough in the IC's tomorrow to merit a trip to the national championships in Seattle, Wash., on June 16.

Cornell Favorite

Powerfully track-equipped Cornell is everyone's choice to take the team title won by Yale last year, but Seton Hall and Manhattan with their crack sprinters and Georgetown with their strong distance runners must also be figured as threats.

Last year the Lions finished sixth in team scoring largely on the strength of Jim Gehrdes' double win in the 220 low-hurdles and the 120 highs. Vic Fritts scored with a second place in the high jump and Ted Roderer in the javelin and Chuck Drazenovich in the shot took fifth places.

Two Mile Run

Today for the Lions, Bob Freebairn and Bob Gehman are listed for the mile run. Freebairn hit his outdoor high against Pitt with a 4:16.6 clocking but has a good chance to win if he can clock around 4:13.

At two miles the Lions have Bill and Don Ashenfelter, legendary figures in Penn State distance running circles. Bill's biggest competition will come from Army's Dick Shea. Don has not been up to par this spring but he too can score in that event. State half-milers today are Bob Parsons and Johnny McCall. Both will be among a tough field, but "Wobbly Head" McCall is tough in the stretch and Parsons may show some of his high school greatness.

Lockhart In 220

Bill Lockhart, a quartermiler by trade, is good at the shorter 220 but here again the strength of the field is against him.

John Lauer was impressive in winning the 440 in 50.1 against Pitt but here too the field is strong.

With the rumor that Cornell's "Flash" Gourdine will not compete—he was spiked last Saturday—Guy Kay's chances in the 220 low hurdles are greatly improved. Larry Johnson of Army is his other big worry.

In the field for the Lions Roderer, with a few more feet to his 208 throw against Pitt, can score high.

Fritts and Jim Herb if they hit their life time peaks can both win the high jump tomorrow.

Pole vaulter Owen Wilkinson meets a tough field in the pole vault as do mile relayers Lockhart, Lauer, Kay and McCall. Bob Roessler will go as fifth man.

IM Track Correction

Phi Gamma Delta and not Phi Delta Theta won the field events in the IM track meet Wednesday night. The Phi Gamma thinclds scored 9 team points.

In yesterday's Collegian, it was reported that the Phi Delta had won with 8 team points.

Stickmen Play Cornell Tomorrow

Penn State's lacrosse team will conclude the 1951 season when it invades Cornell to do battle with the Big Red tomorrow.

The Lions will be seeking revenge for last year's 9-7 setback received at the hands of the New Yorkers, who ended up the season with a poor 3-6 log.

Lost To Hobart

Coach Jim Smith, serving his second term as head coach of lacrosse at Cornell, is having his troubles again this year. The New Yorkers have dropped a pair of contests to Hobart, 12-2 and 12-9. State, on the other hand, whipped the same club, 17-10.

The Big Red has also been defeated by Mt. Washington Lacrosse Club, Maryland, Army, Syracuse, and RPI. Mt. Washington, Maryland, and Army really poured it on as Cornell suffered 16-1, 14-2, and 20-1 beatings from those clubs, respectively. Army, however, is a good bet to surpland Johns Hopkins as national collegiate champions.

Lions After Sixth

Penn State, on the other hand, will be gunning for its sixth victory, its fourth straight win. The Lions have come along fast since the game with the Maryland Lacrosse Club, which State took, 7-6.

Coach Nick Thiel will probably open with the same starting ten that has run roughshod over all opposition lately. This team has scored no less than 37 goals in its last three outings.

Ike Williams Defends Title

NEW YORK, May 24 (AP)—Although lightweight champion Ike Williams is going to have a tight squeeze making the 135 pound limit, the Trenton, N.J., fighter ruled a big 3 to 1 favorite to defeat Jimmy Carter of the Bronx in their 15-round title bout in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night.

The 27-year-old champion, making his first title defense in 17 months, started drying out today. He won't take any liquids until after he weighs in at noon (11:00 EST) tomorrow. Ike weighed 135 3/4 today and expects to hit the 135 marker right on the beam. He labored through 15 rounds of gymnastics to sweat off poundage.

If he doesn't make it at noon, he'll have until 1:30 to shed the surplus. If he can't make it, he'll forfeit his crown. The fight then will become a non-title affair and Carter will be recognized as the No. 1 challenger in New York.

CHARLIE WILSON, Alpha Gamma Rho's one man track team, streaks across the finish line just a step ahead of Beta Theta Pi's Bill Abbott to win the 100-yard dash in the IM track meet last night. Wilson's time was 10.7.

Alpha Gamma Rho Wins 2nd Straight Track Title

By SAM PROCOPIO

Alpha Gamma Rho won its second straight intramural track meet last night as it nosed out Phi Delta Theta 16 1/2-15 behind the running of Charlie Wilson.

Wilson won the 100-yard dash in 10.7 and then anchored his team to the 880 relay win. He was approximately eight steps behind the leading runner when he got the baton, but outstepped his rivals past the finish line. The time was 1:38.2.

Wilson 'Iron Man'

Wilson who scored all of his team's points by taking 3rd place in the broad jump, 2nd in the 100 yard dash, and first place in the shot put. Last year he featured the track meet by scoring nearly all of Alpha Gamma Rho's points.

The meet was one of the closest in years with the first and fourth teams only 3 1/2 points apart.

100-Yard Dash

Bill Abbott, Beta Theta Pi, Dick Bell, Alpha Tau Omega, Donahue, and Pete Houston, Lambda Chi Alpha, finished behind Wilson in the 100-yard dash.

Phi Deltas, who were in the lead most of the way in the relay, lost out in the stretch to Alpha Gamma Rho's Wilson. Alpha Tau Omega got off to a fast start, but finished third. Delta Tau Delta and Chi Phi were runner ups.

Taft Wins 440

Herb Taft won the 440-yard dash in 55.4 to help Delta Tau Delta to finish third in team points with 14. The others who sprinted in the close race were Bob Winters, Beta Theta Pi, Bud Coleman, Phi Delta Theta, Dave Timothy, and Delta Tau Delta.

Fifth place was taken by Bill Erb of AGR.

Kryhoski Marries

LEONIA, N.J., May 24 (AP)—First baseman Dick Kryhoski of the Detroit Tigers, leading batter of the American League, was married last night to Miss Donna Henwood.

Miss Henwood, a 19-year-old former bank receptionist, and Kryhoski, 26, were married in All Saints Episcopal Church.

Heavy Hitter

Bill Hopper, of Crafton, Pa., Penn State outfielder, compiled a .310 batting average last year in his college baseball debut.

School Tennis Tournery Starts

The annual PIAA tennis championships get underway here tomorrow with six aspirants to the singles crown and four to the doubles title.

Fighting for singles honors will be Harold Haabestaad, Upper Darby; Bernard Leightseiser, Wyomissing; John Bowers, Edgewood; Edwin Seiling, South Hills; Silvio Sattelli, Erie Strong Vincent; and Jim Davis, Nesquehoning. Don Bossart, Latrobe, won this title last year.

Joe Dickson, of Edgewood, who paired with Gene Weinstein to capture last year's doubles crown, will have a new partner in Noel Gillette. Other entries are Jackson Allen and Wayne Smith, Norristown; John Reusing and Charles Kenney, Reading; and Thomas Clay and Jim Howell, Bethlehem. Reusing and Kenney were runners-up a year ago.

Baseball Team Plays Penn Today

By DAVE COLTON

Coach Joe Bedenk sends his baseball team against Penn at Philadelphia this afternoon. The Lions will try for their ninth victory this year after losing their third game of the season to Bucknell Tuesday.

Tomorrow the Nittanians will play Temple in Philadelphia to conclude their last trip of the season.

Bedenk will probably start fast-baller Owen Dougherty against the Red and Blue. Dougherty was knocked out of the Bison game but was not charged with the loss. He has won five games against no defeats.

Dougherty, District Nominee "Doc" is one of two Lion players nominated for the District 2 All-Star team. The other nominee, rightfielder Bill Hopper, will attempt to better his .410 batting average for the first eleven games.

Discussion of the All-District team will take place at the selection committee meeting in Scranton, Monday. Bedenk is a member of the committee which will select a District 2 representative for the collegiate world series in Omaha.

Penn State was among the teams being considered until the Eisons edged the Lions, 4-3. Princeton is the leading team for the honor, although Ithaca, Hofstra, Georgetown, West Virginia, and Seton Hall have been mentioned.

Penn Below .500

Penn has not had a successful season, and is under the .500 mark in victories. Bedenk will probably use the same lineup that has started the last two games. The only change is in batting order.

Harry Little will bat lead-off and play at the hot corner. Bob Schoellkopf will be in left-field, unless a left-hander pitches. In that case Captain Bill Ondick will move to left. Sil Cerchie, will bat number three and play center.

Hopper will bat in the cleanup notch, and play right-field. Stan Laganosky bats fifth, and handles first. Shortstop Paul Mowry will bat sixth, followed by Bill Mihalich, who has been hitting hard recently. Clarence Buss will do the catching. Right-handers Jack Krumrine, Bill Bair, and Bill Everson will be available for relief pitching.
