

Alumni Institute Planned For June

An Alumni Institute will highlight the class reunion weekend to be held on campus from June 21 to 23.

For the first time, the College is giving its alumni an opportunity to hear outstanding members of the staff discuss current topics, as well as participate in the traditional social events of the class reunions.

WSGA To Hold Fall Convention

The College will be the site of the 1952 convention of the Eastern Intercollegiate Association of Women Students.

The convention, sponsored by WSGA, will be held during the fall semester and will be attended by representatives of colleges east of the Mississippi and seven western schools. Approximately 55 schools will send delegates.

Virginia Miller, secretary of WSGA, is general chairman for the convention, and her assistant is Anne Lee. Other committee heads are Mary Lou Transue, arrangements; Joyce Buchanan and Lois Pulver, discussions; Eleanor Griffith, programs; Jane Mason, publicity; Sally Miller, display.

Barbara Klopp, social; Doris Free and Janet Herd, registration and information; Grace Porello, housing; Nancy McClain, hospitality; Sylvia Powers, transportation; Joan Edwards, finances; and Byrne Tetley and Lila Barnes, food and banquet.

Coads interested in working on committees for the convention may contact Miss Miller or sign up in the dean of women's office.

Honorary Holds Dinner Dance

A dinner dance was given recently by Sigma Tau, engineering honorary at the University Club, to initiate the new pledges. Dr. Carrol D. Champlin, of the Department of Education, spoke on "What American Students Should Know About Soviet Russia."

WRA Clothing Drive Set To Begin Monday

Beginning Monday and continuing until the end of the semester, the Women's Recreation Association will collect coeds' old clothing.

The clothes will be sent to children in Europe by the Foster Parents of America organization. Collection boxes will be placed in front of mirrors in the halls of the women's dormitories and in the hostesses' offices.

Marilyn Williams, president of WRA, said that all types of clothing, from shoes to raincoats, are needed.

SIGMA DELTA CHI INITIATES

Initiation ceremonies will be held for prospective members of Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary, 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity house.

Klopp Attends IC-4A Jubilee

Barbara Klopp, recently selected Miss Penn State, is representing the College at the 75th diamond jubilee celebration of the Intercollegiate Amateur Athletic Association of America in Philadelphia over the weekend. Miss Klopp, one of 43 queens representing various schools, attended a banquet last night where she delegates to the convention picked a queen to represent the C-4A.

The queen will ride in a parade through Philadelphia today on a float surrounded by her 42 attendants. The College will be represented in the parade by approximately 20 delegates besides Miss Klopp.

While in Philadelphia she will stay at the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority house.

Committee Hears Plans For Mixers

Plans for coordinated mixers to be held in the various schools next fall during Orientation Week were outlined at a meeting of the Inter-Student Council Committee Tuesday night by Edward Shannon, chairman of the committee.

Members of the committee, which is composed of student council presidents, are David Miller, Agriculture Council; Tyson Craine, Chemistry-Physics Council; Ralph Egolf, Education Council; Charles Falzone, Engineering Council; Betty Anders, Home Economics Council; Hanken, Liberal Arts Council; Willard Rehburg, Mineral Industries Council; and William Mihaich, Physical Education Council.

Panhel Open House To Preview Rushing

A preview of fall rushing will be given at the Panhellenic Council's open house to be held from 9 to 10 p.m. Monday in the main lounge of Simmons Hall.

The open house is for all women interested in rushing sororities in September. Those eligible for rushing will be upperclass women with 1.0 averages or better, and second semester freshmen with averages of 1.5 or above.

Three representatives from each of the 19 sororities on campus will attend the open house.

ICG To Install 4 New Officers

The Intercollegiate Conference on Government will meet at 7 p.m. Monday in 107 Willard to install four new officers, William Klisanin, president of ICG, announced yesterday.

Richard Bard, past president of the club, will install the officers. Those to be installed are: William Klisanin, president; George Reese, vice-president; Edward Gilday, secretary; and Edward Chesla, treasurer.

After the installation of officers, an evaluation of ICG will be made along with plans for next year.

Registration will begin at 1:30 p.m. in the main lobby of the West Dorms dining hall. Alumni returning for that week-end will be housed in the West Dorms.

Guest speakers for the institute are Dr. C. E. Brehm, 1911, president of the University of Tennessee; Dr. Gerald Wendy, former dean of the School of Chemistry and Physics and writer of scientific articles; and Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower.

Brehm To Open
Dr. Brehm will open the institute on Friday morning at 10. Immediately following the opening there will be a panel on "Civilization in 2000 A.D."

The institute will continue in the afternoon with two lecture sessions. Some of the topics to be discussed by campus professors are "Test Tube Calves," "Live Longer and Like It," "Fly-Tying and Casting," "How to Buy a Fur Coat," and "ABC's of Atomic Energy."

Informal class parties are scheduled for Friday night. Saturday morning will feature open houses of the various schools, conducted campus tours, and an alumni council meeting. The all-class luncheon will be held Saturday noon.

Prexy To Be Guest
President Eisenhower's talk to the alumni will highlight the institute on Saturday afternoon.

The class reunion banquets will be held Saturday night followed by a square dance in Rec Hall.

Local class committees are working on the special events for their classes and planning for their banquets.

Clover Club Holds Picnic Tomorrow

The Clover Club, agronomy organization, will hold its annual student-faculty picnic at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at Legion Park, west of State College on the road to Pine Grove Mills.

Tickets may be purchased at 119 Plant Industries for 75 cents. Students who do not have transportation to the picnic will meet at 119 Plant Industries before 1:30 p.m.

Pre-Law Honorary Hears Brewster Talk

Pi Lambda Sigma, pre-law honorary fraternity, held its annual closing banquet Thursday night at the Eutaw House. Dr. R. Wallace Brewster, head of the Department of Political Science, spoke to the group on "The Powers of the Chief Executive."

The following officers were elected: Hardy Williams, president; Sanford Hertz, vice-president; and Peter Stavisky, secretary-treasurer.
