

Stickmen Win, 10-5; Wilcox Sets Mark

Captain Phil Benedetti, Lion goalie, was voted the George R. Pittenger Memorial award at the annual lacrosse banquet which was held at the Eutaw House last night.

The award is given annually to the man who is judged the most improved player on the squad as well as the most valuable.

Also over the weekend, Jack Wilcox established a new Penn State individual scoring record for a year when the State lacrosse team wound up its regular season with a 10-5 triumph over Cornell Saturday at Ithaca.

Wilcox Breaks Record

Wilcox, a strong candidate for selection to the North-South all-star contest, tallied 20 goals to break the former record 18 set by Cliff Sullivan in 1946. Wilcox sent a shot home just 3:55 after the match had started to break the record. Wilcox also scored another goal later in the game.

Paul Raffensperger also broke the previous existing record when he scored his lone goal of the game. Raffensperger's tally gave him a total of 19 goals.

Another Penn State record went by the books as the 10 Lion tallies gives them a total of 101 which surpasses the old record of 86 set in 1946.

Cornell Scores First

Cornell jumped off to a fast 1-0 lead after 0:27 seconds on a shot by Tom Nuttle. State roared back to tally four straight shots and assume a commanding lead.

Penn State's scoring was evenly divided. Besides Wilcox's pair and Raffensperger's goal, "Doak" Walker, Jim Reed, and Wayne Hockersmith added two goals each. Dick Rostmeyer accounted for the final Lion tally.

The win for State was its fourth in a row and its sixth of the year against three losses.

The 6-3 log was the best for a Nick Thiel team since 1946, when his club won seven and lost three. However, the 6-3 record duplicated the season of 1948.

20 Players Receive Letters

Thiel announced that 20 players as well as head manager Howard Decker would receive letter awards. The players are John Amber, Benedetti, Tony Eagle, Barr Asplundh, Bill Forrest, Al Fulton, John Henry, Ed Herring, Hockersmith, Bob Koons, Raffensperger, Rostmeyer, Reed, Vance Scout, Dale Sheffer, Jay Stone, Walker, Don Watkins, Wilcox, and Bud Wolfram.

Colgate Net Team Mauls State, 8-1

By JOHN SHEPPARD

With Dick Gross and ageless Gus Bigott registering the lone point, Penn State's tennis team was defeated 8-1 by Colgate on the varsity courts, Saturday afternoon.

The victory—number 19 in 22 matches for the Red Raiders—was almost the exact duplicate of last week's 9-0 conquest over the locals.

Entering the final doubles match with a commendable 8-0 lead, Colgate's intentions of making it two shutouts in a row over State were suddenly jolted when the Nittany No. 3 combo of Bigott and Gross scored several aces to capture the event. The twosome stopped veterans Dick Millar and Dick Heath, 6-4, 6-4.

Lust Downs Landon

For the second time in the past two weeks, Captain Bill Lust was a straight set winner over State's Captain Owen Landon. His scores were, 3-6, 4-6.

Sophomore sensation Ben Bishop topped Dick Wieland in straight sets, 0-6, 9-11.

In the third singles fray veteran Bob Barker took the measure of Bill Aiken, 3-6, 6-8.

Davis Bows

After losing his first set, 3-6, Ed Davis came back to cop the second set, 6-0, only to have letterman Stew Bicknell take the last set, 5-7.

Colgate's No. 5 man, Ed Stern, won over Bill Wood, 6-3, 1-6, 0-6, and Ted Stanton defeated Bigott, 1-6, 1-6.

In the doubles activity, State's No. 1 and 2 combinations were beaten in straight sets.

The Nittanians conclude their season tomorrow, hosting Duquesne University on the varsity courts.

Nichols, Wert Reach IM Net Quarter-Finals

Bill Nichols and Dick Wert, Lambda Chi Alpha, moved into the quarter-finals of the IM tennis doubles tourney by defeating the defending champs, Coleman Gainsburg and Harold Wolfson, Zeta Beta Tau, 6-1, 6-3.

In the independent round-robin tournament Steve Slovenkai and Joe Soltis will be one set of the finalists by virtue of their record of four wins and no losses. They will face the winner of the Frank Corrado and Gene O'Neil—Eryth Rea and Neil Powell match.

Dick Zucker and Bob Kauffman, Phi Sigma Delta, reached the quarter-finals with an 8-6, 7-5 win over Ron Coleman and Sandford Bennett, Alpha Tau Omega; as did Vic Lynch and Gordon Stroup, Beta Theta Pi, by defeating Dave Crum and Edison Garner, Phi Kappa Psi, 8-6, 7-5. Mike Iorio and Anthony Grimaldi, Alpha Phi Delta, won by forfeit over Charles Walton and Frank Conte, Theta Xi.

All-Stars IM Soccer Kings

The All-Stars with slick ball handling won the independent intramural soccer championship last night, 2-1.

Tau Kappa Epsilon and Sigma Phi Epsilon went into the fraternity finals as they defeated Alpha Gamma Rho and Phi Gamma Delta.

Win IM Horseshoe Title

Don Hazlett and Eusebio Lavin of Alpha Chi Rho won the intramural horseshoe crown by defeating defending champs, Bill Aiken and Jack Pickett, Phi Delta Theta.
