Doodlers Win Again; Lead Softball Loop

The Doodlers continue to set the pace in the Summer Session softball league by winning two more games. They beat the Wonders 18-5, and later in the week shut out Mu Lambda, 13-0. The Doodlers have now gone undefeated in six games.

Also, East Stroudsburg continued undefeated by knocking off Greenhouse 4-1, and smothering Beta Sigma Rho 19-0. They have won four games.

Beaver House continued to press the leaders with a forfeit win over the Woodchoppers and a 9-7 victory over the Wonders. Beaver House has now lost one game while winning four.

The final game played this week saw the Rockets edging Mu Lambda, 8-7.

Other home games will pit the Nittany Lions against Nebraska, at Lincoln; Villanova, at Allentown; Purdue, at Lafayette; Rutgers, at New Brunswick; and Pitt, at Pittsburgh.

Grads Receive Football Blanks

Application blanks for 1951 football games were mailed today to 40,000 Penn State alumni. H. R. Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics, anticipates a lively interest in the 1951 schedule opening against Boston University on September 29.

Other home games will pit Michigan State, West Virginia and Syracuse to Beaver Field for traditional encounters.

Few Matches Completed In Tennis Tourney

Only a few matches have been played in the tennis tournament as the tourney enters the next-to-last week of play.

Ralph Wert, tournament director, said yesterday that some of the matches would have to be forfeited if competitors do not complete their scheduled matches.

In women's singles competition, Hyman defeated Turshottan to move into the semi-finals. Her opposition will be the winner of the Zerbe-Parsons match.

The mixed doubles have reached the quarter-finals. Haft-Moss won over Simon-Hyman by default. Doehar-Rock and Davis-Pershotten have moved into the quarter-finals by drawing byes.

Men's singles competition shows seven matches played. Davis byed and won in the semi-finals from Simon via the forfeit route. Corrado beat Miller in one match and went on to defeat Jackson later in the week.

Tennis Coach Sherm Fogg beat Brubaker but then lost to Tyrance. Tyrance had advanced by drawing a bye in the preliminaries.
