College's 'Blue Band' Started 52 Years Ago

By PAT NUTTER

By halftime, last Saturday fans were sweltering under the sun's hot rays. But the Penn State Blue Band marched onto the field as jauntily as if it were regular football weather. Rooters forgot their arguments about unpredictable Penn State weather to watch the 96 man band do its stuff.

78 Teachers, 3 Districts On Strike

(AP) —Seventy-eight teachers have been quite a performance, were on strike for back salaries because it resulted in the boy today in three Pennsylvania being appointed chief musician school districts but a threatened and added to the non-commission of the performance of the perf fourth walkout was called off for sioned battalion staff. Authoriza-the present.

Teachers at nearby Cass Township tonight agreed to continue working after the district officials said they were securing a $21,000 bank loan—good for two months'

school grants in the next two Cass Township teachers were out Sept. 4-6 until they received $25,000 for nine-weeks back pay.

Band to Use 'Hail! Oh Hail!'

The Blue Band will be ready to play "Hail! Oh Hail!" some time this month, James Dunlop, period before it will be ready for the band, Dunlop said. He explained that the song would have to be arranged first and then copied 24 times copied 24 times.

He said the music would have to be photostated and 96 copies made for band members.

The Blue Band will not be present when Penn State's football team plays Villanova at Allentown Saturday, Dunlop said.

Pfc. George Graduates From German School

Pfc. Richard George, 22, recently graduated from the European Command Finance School at Friedberg, Germany, with a

"superior" achievement rating. George was a junior at the College at the time of his inducthem instruments. Vacancies still tion into the Army last October. He attended schools in Altoona and entered Penn State in June, fantry Division as administrative or the TUB." assistant in the division finance

Ronald Wahl, president, asks guild can and active members to attend.

It was just 52 years ago this fall that the seeds of a Penn State band took root. In those days, male students took four years of military tactics and Old Main was a barracks dormitory. One bugle hanging on the wall of Geogre H. Deike's room.

Played for Captain

Deike, who had been a regimental bugler during the Span-ish-American War, played his bugle for the Captain. It must tion was given to organize a bugle corps.

The corps got under way that sign up with Miss Brewer in the fall with six members. It played Dean of Women's office.

Applicants for the position of WSGA treasurer must be second or third semester students and of music they didn't want it. Meanwhile, Gov. John S. Fine's that Penn Staters had had a taste budget office in Harrisburg said of music they didn't want it to Donated $100 General James A. Beaver, president of the Board of Trus-$25,000 for nine-weeks back pay. tees, and Dr. Atherton, president Also away from their class- of the College, each donated $50 rooms were 41 teachers from the to start a brass band fund. How-district in Clearfield County; 28 at McAdoo Borough and nine at Kline Township, both in Schuylkill County.

Some $25,000,000 is due 2208 fourth-class school districts this month. An additional $30,000,000 isto be paid next month to 300 first, second, and third class districts. These are semi-annual grants.

However greats 1. The ever, more money was needed. Finally, General Beaver wrote to Andrew Carnegie telling him of the plight and asking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers. From then on, the College has had a band.

1. Today's Blue Band boasts 96 members members would not see the property of the plight and asking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers. From then on, the College has had a band.

1. Today's Blue Band boasts 96 members would not see the plight and asking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers. From then on, the plight and asking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers. From then on, the plight and asking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers. From then on, the plight and sking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers. From the plight and sking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers. From the plight and sking for $100. The famous philanthropist replied with a check for $800. The cadet band got under way with 23 inembers.

grants.

However grants to State-aided hospitals, colleges, and other institutions are being held up as mon-preferred appropriations. They will have to await their money until a two-year $653,000,000 appropriation bill is finally passed by the legislature.

Today's Blue Band boasts 96 members marching in eight ranks, twelve deep. All are selected after individual try-outs. No members are carried over from one year to another. There are the band this money until a two-year $653,000,000 appropriation bill is finally passed by the legislature.

Today's Blue Band boasts 96 candidates will be posted in the women's dormitories, and the ranks, twelve deep. All are selected after individual try-outs. No members are carried over from one year to another. There are the band this passed by the legislature.

music and working out the for-mation on a blackboard. Each band member has a number and he follows his number on the blackboard presentation, thus be-

Dunlop said the music for Ray Fortunato's song, which has gained increasing popularity since it was introduced by the Glee Club last year, is now being arranged for the band.

"Hail! Oh 'Hail!" must go through a lengthy processing period before it will be ready for the solution of lawn displays. Ken Tomlinson of lawn displays. Ken Tomlinson is chairman of the judges committee.

A committee was appointed by IFC President Stanley Wengert to work with dorm counselors to are spent practicing both the formations.

All fraternities were asked to come to the auditions last Monday and Tuesday nights may audition tonight, according to John Huber, Nittany-Pollock resident counselor in charge of the i band.

Tonight at TUB

The band will be composed of five saxophones, three trumpets, three trombones, and four rhy exist, Huber said.

Several music arrangers have and entered Penn State in June, 1947.

George is now stationed in Frankfurt with the Fourth Infantry Division as administrative on concerts in Schwab Auditorium

Darrell Rishel, a resident coun-Radio Guild Elections
Officers will be elected at the Penn State Radio Guild meeting at 7 tonight in 304 Sparks

Records West Dorm area, is also working with the band. The band will rehearse from 6 to 8 every Thursday night.

averages.

Fees Payable Today

College fees will be payable today and tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the basement of Willard Hall.

Nominations

Today is the last day for women to nominate themselves for WSGA and WRA elections.

Application blanks are avail was a barracks dormitory. One able in the Dean of Women's of-day during inspection, the Com-fice, 105 Old Main. Offices open mandant of Cadets discovered a are for two WRA freshman representatives, one WRA sophomore representative, freshman senator, and tréasurer.

Elections will take place Oct. 16 and 18.

By 2 p.m. yesterday, very few women had registered, according to Joanne Williams, WSGA elections chairman. Miss Williams said that many women who want to sign up for WSGA committee work are filling out application blanks by mistake. Those interested in committee work should ested in committee work should those for WRA sophomore reprethere is enough state money to assure payment of $55,000,000 in ments for the band.

Standard Want It to sentative must be sophomores. Candidates for both positions must have at least a 1.5 All-College average and no major Judicial record. Applicants for WSGA freshman senator and WRA freshman representative must be first semester freshmen, and if elected must have at least a 1.5 All-College average at the end of their first\semester.

Interviews for each candidate with the application boards will be arranged by appointment. They will be either tonight or Saturday.

After the interviews, all elig-

The fast-stepping band rehearses every day. Monday evelings are spent studying the music and working out the Theme, Judges coming familiar with his part in the members voted Governor the movements.

The IFC selected "Freedom's Keystone" as its Homecoming theme last night.

Each afternoon Tuesday through Friday from 5 p.m. to of lawn displays. Ken Tomlinson turn in names for an orchestra for the IFC Ball.

Donald Carlson the Greek-Week banquet committee announced that the ban-School of Physical Education, tion Week, assisting in the Mardi An All-College dance band, sponsored by the Dean of Men's office working through the resident counselors, will meet for its first rehearsal at 6 tonight in the Anyone who was unable to come to the auditions last Monday and Tuesday and mittee. .

Cosmopolitan Club Will Meet Sunday

The Cosmopolitan Club will ECAC.
meet 2 p.m. Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank D. Kern, Chicag eign-born students for a number of years and is composed of interof years and is composed of interested American and foreign stuin football.

Were the minimated to the following practice and modification University of West Virginia, Morgantown, W. Va.

Joseph Rakosky and Richard alleys in downtown State College. ing.

Gilbert Attends US Olympic Plan Fete

Harold R. Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics at the College, attended the United States Olympic committee meeting as official representative from the Olympic boxing committee last Monday at the New York Athletic Club.

Plans for United States participation in the 1952 Olympics, fund raising campaigns, and the setting of the time and place for the final national tryouts of the various teams were discussed at the meeting.

Final national tryouts for the boxing team will be held June 16-18 at Kansas City, Mo. the Olympic boxing committée announced

Must Raise $850,000 Penn State, along with Illinois is being considered as a site for the final gym tryouts, which will be held April 20. National Ama-teur Athletic Union men and women championships will also be determined at these tryouts.

Approximately $850,000 m u s t be procured to send the various
United States' teams to the Olympics. Since no one organization backs the sending of teams to the Olympics, money must be raised through contributions.

All colleges in the country, as well as the sponsors of bowl games, are co-operating with the United States Olympic committee in a fund raising campaign.
Pan-American Reports

At Penn State on Alumni Day, Oct. 20, contributions will be solicited in the alumni and other guest sections. No direct solicita-tions will be made from the student body.

General and financial reports on United States participation in the Pan-American games held last winter were given along with reports from the various games committee chairmen.

The 1952 winter sports are scheduled from Feb. 14-25 in Osfor the forthcoming Thespian lo. Norway. Summer events will musical comedy revue, "Bottoms take place from July 19-Aug. 3 Up," were named yesterday by in Helsinki, Finland.

Women named to the chorus are Phyllis Auerbach, Patricia Bowles, Shirley Bush, Eugenie Deger, Diane Delp, Nancy Harris, Patricia Kendall, Doris Leventhal, Ruth Lyne, Joanne McNally, and Marilyn Stewart. APO to Hold Mixer Monday In Old Main In Old Main

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, will hold a mixer for upperclassmen who are interested in joining the organization at 7:45 p.m. Monday in 304 Old Main.

The purpose of the organiza-Grant Price has been announced as music co-ordinator for the show. Don Smith will lead the orchestra.

Sets will be designated by Car-

Students who wish to join the fraternity must have had affiliation with the Boy Scouts at some time and must have an earnest interest in serving their fellow men. They must have an All-College average of 1.0 or better. Freshmen are not eligible for

Some of the services rendered by Alpha Phi Omega last year

Dr. Robert W. Stone, Bacter-In August the NCAA met in iology department head at the Chicago to draft 12 revision College, was elected president of proposals brought to the attenthe Allegheny Branch, Society of The club has served as a gettion of member colleges. Inacquainted organization for forcluded were the elimination of annual meeting Saturday at the eign-born students for a number contact of the attention of the Allegheny Branch, Society of the Allegheny Branch, Society of the Allegheny Branch, Society of amount and the Allegheny Branch, Society of the Alle

dents, according to Dr. Kern.

Postcards have been sent to prospective members. The meeting is open to anyone.

An athletics advisory board at Costlow, graduate assistants in the College introduced the two the department, presented papers at the meeting. Rakosky collaboration is open to anyone.

Schott presented the same reconstitution of their papers.

Harold R. Gilbert

Thespians List 'Bottoms Up' Dance Chorus Members of the dance chorus

ible nominees will be put on the dance directors Jeanne Wiener primary slate. Pictures of the and Mike Claysmith. candidates will be posted in the Women named to the chorus

Men dancers are Bob Bowers, Dick Dunn, Norman Gardner, Seymour Goldstein, Alex Gregal, Dan Grove, Don Herbein, Warren Hommes, John Kelly, Dave Lew-is, Lynn McCaffrey, Moylan Mills, Charles Naginey, Ben Shields, and Don Stahl.

Grant Price has been announced as music co-ordinator rol Chapman. Production director Ray Fortunato has announced the addition of Mary Brown to the cast.

ECAC to Meet In New York

Dartmouth, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Princeton will also be on hand to discuss 304 Old Main, preceding the the future status of college sports mixer. and the abuses and attacks made on intercollegiate athletics.

The conference is a preliminary Bacteriology Society meeting to form recommendations for new rule revisions by the

The band will rehearse from 6 to 8 every Thursday night.

Twenty students in the School of Liberal Arts completed the spring semester with perfect 3 averages.

The band will rehearse from 6 to 8 every Thursday night.

Parking Prohibited

The Borough Council announced the ECAC. They appointed to the five-college committee to study for the recommendations and respect to the same re-Costiow with Dr. John Garey on their papers.

Dr. Stone was program chair-five-college committee to study for the meeting. Members of his staff attending were Dr. John Garey on the port to the executive council of their papers.

Dr. Stone was program chair-five-college committee to study for the recommendations and respect to the recommendations are respect to the r