State Gridders Meet Villanova

Lions Hold Edge Over Wildcats In Series Which Began in 1902

By BOB VOSBURG

Today's game between Penn. State and Villanova will be the ninth meeting of the two rivals in a series that began with a 32-0 Lion victory in 1902.

State holds a five game margin over the Main Liners, having won five out of the first six times the two teams clashed. One game ended in a tie. Only in the last two games has Villanova been able to get past the Lions, chalk- ing up wins in 1936 and 1949. In the first five contests, Villanova was unable to cross the State goal.

In the 1902 clash, according to the state yearbook, "Villa Nova came up to play football, but was played with instead, and the score card read 32-0."

Worst Defeat

After scoring what was termed a "moral victory" over Yale in 1905, the Lions met the Main Liners and "the husky Villa Nova aggregation was given the worst defeat of the season, 29-0."

The 1910 Villanova game came just as the slump following a 10-0 loss to Penn was working itself off, and though State "showed undoubted superiority to the Main Liners eleven" they were unable to score, and the game ended, 0-0.

In 1911 State and "Villa Nova" collided on Beaver Field in one of the roughest battles ever fought on the Lions' home field, with the Lions coming out on top, 18-0.

Start Slowly

Because of loose play in the first half, there was no score. In the second half the Lions started like a whirlwind and got a touch- down in no time. Dexter Very, Jim Mauthe, and Miller led the State attack as the Lions "played rings around the visitors."

In 1932, "the most successful team that ever represented the Blue and White on the gridiron" ran all over Villanova, 71-0. The Lions this year were undefeated, scored on but once, and scored

Philip Murray Will Speak At Seminar

Philip Murray, president of the United Steelworkers of America, will make his first visit to the campus tomorrow when he joins President Eisenhower in address- ing the opening session of the Seminar on Human Relations.

Planned for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in room 121 Sparks Building, the session is the only one of the four-day seminar that is open to the public. The addresses will be the "Objectives of the Seminar and their Importance." Students and faculty are invited to attend. The Seminar is sponsored jointly by the College and the United Steelworkers for 26 National officers and directors of the Union. Madame Pandit, ambas- sador from India, will address the banquet session Wednesday night at the Nittany Lion Inn. A few tickets for the banquet are avail- able at the student union desk in Old Main.

Hatmen Will Welcome

All hatmen attending the Villanova game are asked to report on the Penn State side of the field 10 minutes before the game to welcome the Nittany Lions as they come on the field. The men do not have to wear their hats.

Yanks Even Series with Giants, 3-1

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Steady Eddie Lopat squared the World Series for the New York Yankees today by edging the New York Giants 3-1 with a five hitter in the second game, watched by 66,018 fans at Yankee stadium.

Gil McDougald's first-inning single following two bunts singles off loser Larry Jansen and an error gave the Yankees a run in the first. Joe Collins added the second with his 310-foot homer into the right field seats in the second. Lopat himself knocked in the final run with an eighth-inning single off reliever George Spencer.

Lopat Pressed

Lopat was hard pressed to escape from a seventh inning situation when the Giants scored their lone run. Singles by Monte Irvin and Whitey Lockman and a walk to Wes Westrum loaded the bases with only one out.

Pinch hitter Billy Rigney's fly to deep right let Irvin score easily from third. Another pinch hitter, Ray Noble, failed Manager Leo Durocher, when he lofted an easy pop foul to Yogi Berra for the final out.

From Collins' homer in the second to Bobby Brown's leadoff single in the eighth, Jansen and Spencer retired 16 Yanks in order. But they never could overcome that early Yank lead.

Thus, the clubs move across the Harlem River to the Polo Grounds tomorrow for the third game. They'll play the fourth and fifth in the National League Park Sunday and Monday. If a sixth and seventh are necessary, they return to the stadium Tuesday and Wednesday.

Irvin Hits Three More

Monte Irvin continued his sensational series hitting with three singles to make it seven hits in the series. The most any man ever got in a series was 12, a record held jointly by four men.

Jim Hearn, (17-9) was to pitch for the Giants tomorrow against Vic Raschi (21-10) in a battle of righthanders.

Near Capacity Crowd Will Watch Game

Penn State should have a good following at Allentown this afternoon when the Nittany Lions play Villanova at Allentown High School Field.

Harold R. "Ike" Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics, reported yesterday morning that 5000 tickets had been sold out of the Penn State block.

Many Penn State fans left for Allentown last night while the rest will leave early this morning for the game. Penn State's Blue Band will not make the trip to the Villanova game.

The Allentown High School Field seats 22,000 and there is expected to be a near capacity crowd there for the contest this afternoon. The game will begin at 2 p.m.

Students not having tickets for the game will be able to buy them at the gates.

Wildcats Play Host to Penn State On Allentown High School Field

By ERNIE MOORE

Penn State's football team will go after its second win of the young season this afternoon on the Allentown High School Field where Villanova College plays host to the Nittany Lions. Kickoff time is 2 p. m.

The Lions will be out to avenge the 26-7 licking the Wild- cats handed them in the 1949 opener on Beaver Field. The all-time series between the two schools stands in favor of Penn State which has won five and lost two, with one tie on the records.

Lions Enter Stiffest Part Of Schedule

With only one game in the books, Penn State must start on the stiffest part of its schedule today when the Lions play Villa- nova.

After taking over Boston Uni- versity in the season opener, 40-34, the Nittany Lions must take on Villanova, Nebraska, and Michi- gan State in that order—and it's no easy order to fill.

Tough Teams

The Villanova Wildcats are rated as one of the top independ- ent teams in the East this year Nebraska, although still without the service of Mr. Touchdown U.S.A., Bobby Reynolds, is said to have one of its best teams in years. If Reynolds gets back in action, the Cornhuskers are given an even chance of wresting the Big Seven crown from mighty Oklahoma.

At the moment, Michigan State is rated the top team in the coun- try. With 28 lettermen returning, Coach Biggie Munn is expecting his Spartans to have one of their greatest teams. Michigan State will come to State College for the Homecoming game.

After Michigan State the Lions entertain West Virginia, a team which is said to be "on the way back."

Purdue Next

The Nittanies take on Purdue the following week and will have to contend with Mr. Dale Samuels and Co.

Syracuse comes to the Nittany Vale on the following Saturday and the Orange is another team which is "loaded this year."

Rutgers plays host to the Nittanies the following week and

State Underdog

Villanova will go into the game six-point favorites, by virtue of its 21-7 win over Army last Sat- urday in the season opener. Penn State opened the season by de- feating Boston University, 40-34.

The game today should put both teams to the test. Villanova was a pre-season choice as the top independent in the East and the Lambert Memorial Trophy committee rated the Mainliners third in the East in this week's voting.

Wildcats Beat Navy

Although the season has not progressed far enough for the two schools to have played a common opponent, Penn State and Villa- nova did play a common foe in Spring scrimmages. The Wildcats defeated Navy in an unofficial contest last Spring. Just one week later, the Midshipmen from An- napolis outscored Coach Rip En- gle's gridders from Penn State.

Both teams are primed for this afternoon's contest. After hand- ing Army its first opening day setback since the early 1890's, Vil- lanova's gridders are anticipating an undefeated season. The Lions are not looking that far ahead but, as Engle says, "taking each game as it comes," they have marked this game as a must.

Offensive Test

The game today will also put Penn State's offense, which was so impressive against Boston Uni- versity last Saturday, to the test. The Lions gained 341 yards along the ground against the Terriers—enough to rank them ninth in the nation in rushing. The Nittanies' 424 total offense yardage ranks them fifteenth in the country, ac- cording to National Collegiate Bureau statistics.

Engle has had the Lions work- ing most of the week on their de- fense, which was not too impres- sive last weekend.

About Same Lineup

Rip will string along with al- most the same lineup which open- ed against BU for today's contest. The only change anticipated will be at a defensive guard position where Don Barney, who had been injured, will start instead of freshman Orville Haldeman.
