

Wildcats' Starting Lineup Has Only Three Seniors

The Villanova Wildcats have a young team supplemented by four juniors, and four sophomores in the offensive lineup. Co-captains Nick Liotta and Joe Rilo, and tackle Dan Simeone are the only seniors in the tentative lineup.

The offensive lineup has the following men:

ENDS: Joe Rilo and Ray Rigney. Co-captain Rilo rates with the best at his position. He is a senior and a keen student of the game who possesses natural leadership qualities. Rigney, six foot, seven inch sophomore, shows great promise. His height makes him a favorable pass target. Frank Banas and Frank Rehak, 1950 lettermen, are also capable.

TACKLES: Bill Heggarty and Dan Simeone. Heggarty, huge sophomore, is regarded as one of the best tackle prospects in the nation. He stands six feet five inches tall, and weighs 230 pounds. He captained the freshman team last season and is a bruising blocker and tackler. Simeone, 210 pound letterman, is the starting right tackle. He has won varsity letters at end and tackle and played fullback in high school.

GUARDS: Nick Liotta and Pete Carrieri. Co-captain Liotta, 225 pound senior, rates as one of the finest linemen to ever wear the Blue and White. He may play both offense and defense if needed. Carrieri is the offensive right guard. He scales 230 pounds, and is another soph who starred on the yearling squad last fall.

CENTERS: Joe DeRose, Joe Viverto, Tom Gildea, and Tom Green. De Rose, big 205 pound junior, usually draws the starting pivotman assignment. Viverto, 205 pound freshman, has been performing well and is pushing DeRose for first string honors. Gildea and Green, both juniors will see lots of action.

QUARTERBACKS: Bill Brannau, Joe McNicholas, Paul Tomko. Brannau handles the vital T-formation spot although he only weighs 155 pounds. He is a deceptive ball handler and throws a hard bullet-like pass. McNicholas and Tomko, 175 pounders, will be available for reserve duty.

HALFBACKS: Ben Addiego, Walt Zuber, Bill Grief, and Ralph Cecere. Addiego, 180 pound soph speedster, looks like the outstanding halfback. He combines speed with shiftiness and is a smart ball carrier. Zuber, 175 pound junior, is a fixture at right-half. He played first string all last season. Grief and Cecere, both sophomores, are good backs also.

FULLBACKS: Bob Haner, John Helm, and John Sullivan. Haner is an all-around performer and was one of the best players on last year's squad. He is a bruising ball carrier, backs up the line, and kicks extra points. Helm and Sullivan will improve as the season continues.

Sarantopoulos-

Loves to Run

But the love of track which enflamed Pete his final year in high school made him return to track because it "offered a challenge."

The 175-lb. outfielder had to train for two years to get the trim 148 pounds he is today.

Last fall although he wasn't able to make the national championship scorers—how many did?—he earned his varsity x-country letter which was just about the best thing that ever happened to him.

This Greek whose parents were from Athens and Sparta has the marathoners' habits. He can run "all-day" but lacks the speed for the "shorter" five miles. Pete has been drilling on this speed so necessary for Nittany harriers—who don't jog by any means.

"Pop" Pete: A phys. ed. major, Pete hopes to coach track after graduation in February. . . . Pete lives in perfect atmosphere in a room on College Avenue. With he and Bill Ashenfelter the talk is just "track." . . . Pete claims running keeps him "ten years younger."

Marty Cooper is the gal who cheers Pete when he is "down in the dumps and running comes hard."

Fogg to Speak To Ski Club

Sherm Fogg, assistant professor of physical education and coach of both the tennis and skiing teams, will address the Penn's Valley Ski Club meeting 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in 110 Electrical Engineering Building.

The meeting is primarily a membership drive to acquaint newcomers with the club.

This ski club which has been active in State College since 1936 is open to all—both townspeople and students.

Skiing ability is by no means a requisite. Most of the present members of the club learned to ski after joining.

Before any person can be entered in competitive skiing events which the club participates in, the person must be a member of the club.
