

11 Top Commies Denied Retrial

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—The Supreme Court today declined to reconsider its decision against 11 U. S. Communist party leaders but agreed to hear two other major cases affecting Communists' rights.

The leaders, seven of whom now are serving prison sentences, while four are fugitives, were convicted of plotting to teach the violent overthrow of this government. Their lawyers asked the Supreme Court to rehear the case and reverse its decision of last June upholding the convictions.

The court did agree to rule on (1) constitutionality of a section of federal law requiring deportation of aliens for past membership in the Communist party; and (2) whether aliens facing deportation may be held without bail on a finding by the attorney general that they have been active Communists.

The high tribunal took no action today on a petition for further consideration to six attorneys for the 11 Red leaders.

The attorneys were sentenced to prison on contempt of court charges. They were sentenced by Federal Judge Harold Medina to terms ranging from one to six months. The judge held they conducted themselves improperly in court during the long, stormy New York trial of the Red leaders. They had been granted a stay of their terms pending the supreme court's decision on the petition.

Stassen Says Reds After India

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen charged today a Red "pattern of action" is being cut out for the domination of India, just like the one that led to the Communist conquest of China.

Stassen also declared the record makes it clear that the State Department—despite denials by Secretary of State Acheson—played a part in undermining Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese Nationalist regime.

Testifying before a Senate foreign relations subcommittee, the former Republican governor of Minnesota said:

"The denials by the State Department of things which I know are true, the claims by the State Department of things I know are not true, leave me very uneasy (Continued on page eight)

British Suez Threatened By Egypt

CAIRO, Egypt, Oct. 8—(AP)—Egypt announced tonight she is cancelling her treaties with Britain in an effort to drive the British out of the Suez Canal area and the Sudan.

(The Foreign Office in London said Britain would refuse to recognize the one-sided cancellation of treaties providing for mutual defense and for joint rule of the Sudan.)

Embassy Issues Statement

(The Foreign Office showed signs of shock that Egypt had acted before receiving new proposals which Britain promised over the weekend would be forthcoming. These proposals were believed based on decisions reached at the recent Ottawa Conference of the North Atlantic Treaty organization to create a new Middle East defense command. This plan envisaged a compromise by which a garrison from several nations might hold the Suez, the extremely important link between the Mediterranean and the Orient.)

The British embassy in Cairo tonight issued a statement saying "a unilateral abrogation by the Egyptian government of the 1936 treaty with Great Britain has no legal force since that treaty contains no provisions for denunciation at any time."

No Negotiation Basis

It pointed out that the treaty is to last for 20 years, after which it might be renegotiated by either party.

Aid, Defense Bills Approved by Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8—(AP)—The Senate approved two big money bills—one authorizing a $7,483,400,000 foreign aid program and another appropriating $1,744,000,000, largely for defense and economic control activities.

Both actions were on voice votes, and helped mark progress toward a fall adjournment of Congress.

However, senators debated all afternoon on the smaller money bill. It made cuts of a little less than $7,000,000 in the amount recommended by its appropriations committee.

The bill now goes to conference between the House and Senate. It is one of the 13 money bills which must be disposed of before Congress can quit this year.

Biggest allotments in the bill are: $790,000,000 for development of strategic and critical materials, $272,000,000 for the Atomic Energy Commission, $116,000,000 for the Veterans Administration, $192,000,000 for emergency agencies such as the Economic Stabilization Agency, and $290,000,000 for the Civil Defense Administration.

Senate passage completed congressional action on the foreign aid measure. It now goes to President Truman for his signature. The bill authorizes $5,028,000,000 in military aid to western European nations and $1,022,000,000 in economic assistance. Smaller amounts are ear-marked for South American countries and friendly nations in the Near East, Africa and Asia.

The Senate already had passed the compromise version of the bill once but had to take action again to approve a change made in the House.
