

The Lion's Lair

By ERNIE MOORE
Collegian Sports Editor

Villanova got the breaks—and Villanova won. That's all there is to it and that's the way the football team should look at it.

If the Nittany Lions stop to mull over their loss to the Wildcats, they'll be saying "if this hadn't happened" or "if this had happened" until the final whistle blows at the Pitt game. And then it's going to be too late to say, "Let's forget the Villanova game and concentrate on this next opponent."

We play Nebraska next week and that's the one we want to win. The Cornhuskers have been having a rough time of it since Bobby Reynolds has been out of action. But he'll be ready for Penn State and his return and the news of Penn State's loss is going to have a terrific psychological effect on Nebraska.

Last season, Reynolds led the nation in scoring with 157 points. The Cornhuskers defeated the Lions 19-0 and Reynolds scored all 19 points. In more than one contest, Mr. Touchdown, U.S.A., scored all his team's points.

This Saturday's game is going to be one of the toughest for the Lions. They're going to have to bounce back after losing to a team which we felt wasn't as good as State. Penn State lost, true. But a couple of breaks would really have made it an entirely different ball game.

All Villanova's scores came as the result of the Lions failing to punt out of danger. The Wildcats' first score came after a low pass from center was fumbled and the Wildcats took possession on the State 16 yard line.

The second score came as a result of a center pass which sailed over the State punter's head. The third score came about after a partially blocked kick.

It was a tough game to lose. But that game is in the books. Let's forget it. Let's concentrate on Nebraska and Bobby Reynolds.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: After Bob Pollard was tackled and kneed by two Villanova tacklers and the whole Villanova team charged him when he protested, the announcer for a Philadelphia radio station laughed a little and thumped to his audience, "There's a fight down there. One of the Penn State boys lost his head."

Yeh, and it never rains in State College, either!

Hornsby Browns' Skipper

NEW YORK, Oct. 8—(AP)—Rogers Hornsby today signed a three-year contract as manager of the St. Louis Browns and immediately declared "there'll be some changes made."

And one of the many changes will be "no more clowning."

"I take my baseball seriously and if my club is getting beat, I don't want anybody laughing at some clown," said Hornsby.

Broadcast Rule Repealed

NEW YORK, Oct. 8—(AP)—The major leagues took the lid off broadcasting and televising baseball games today by repealing the rule which allowed home clubs to veto out-of-town broadcasts in cities where games actually were being played.

Gym Managers

Candidates for assistant managership of the Penn State gymnastics team are asked to report to Rec Hall after 4 p.m. today.

NEW College Diner

Sidewalk Counter Service

for

FREEZER FRESH ICE CREAM

Between The Movies

Football --

(Continued from page six)

intercepted a Brannau pass on the Villanova 29 yard line. Pete Shopa picked up a first down to the 18 but here the Lions stalled again.

With only one minute and ten seconds left in the half State took over on their own 44. A Tony Rados to Shattuck pass moved the ball to the Wildcats' 46. On the next play Rados found Shattuck in the open with a pass and the big halfback went into the endzone for State's first score with only 15 seconds left in the half. Leonard's kick was good and Penn State led 7-6.

Another Break

Late in the third quarter, Villanova received another break and capitalized on it. On fourth down, with Betts back to punt, the pass from center sailed over his head. He chased it back to the State 22 where he was tackled. The Wildcats took over.

Brannau passed to Joe Rilo who made a nice catch while falling to the ground on the State one yard line. Haner went over on the next play and also converted. Villanova led 13-7.

The Wildcats scored their last and winning touchdown just a few seconds later. After Haner kicked off and State failed to move, Betts again went back to punt. This time the kick was partially blocked and Villanova recovered on the State 43 yard line.

Wildcats Score

A penalty moved the ball back to the Villanova 46. Brannau again hit Rilo with a pass on the State 18 yard line. On a delayed handoff, Addiego weaved his way to the two. Haner scored his third touchdown of the day by going into the endzone on the next play. His kick was good and Villanova led 20-7.

State scored its final TD a few minutes later when Bob Pollard intercepted a pass and took the ball back to the Villanova 49 yard line. At that point a fight started in front of the Villanova bench and the Wildcats were penalized 15 yards to their own 34 yard line.

Rados hit Chan Johnson with a pass to the 24. Shopa took it to the 21. A Villanova offside moved the ball to the 16. Rados passed to Shopa to the one, and on the next play Shopa scored. Leonard converted and State trailed 20-14.

Rados Passes

State threatened to tie the score right down to the very end. Rados hit on two passes to Betts, and Shopa to the Villanova 48. Another pass to Shopa after an offside penalty was good to the 43. But three more desperation heaves fell incomplete and Villanova took over with only one half a minute to go and held on until the final whistle.

VILLANOVA

Ends — Banas, Coughlin, Rilo, Kershaw, Patrick.
Tackles — Hegarty, Claffey, Leichweiss, Simeone, Faragalli.
Guards — Liotta, Knowlton, Porck, Carrieri, Jerry, Fitzpatrick.
Centers — DeRose, Gildea, Green.
Backs — Branna, McNicholas, Tomko, Zeuber, Coletta, Grief, Dejesem.

PENN STATE

Ends — Betts, Malinak, Silock, McPoland, Yukica, Simon, Wilson.
Tackles — Hoover, Brown, Scheetz, Pffirman, Rehm, Hockersmith, Barr, Cripps.
Guards — Bartek, Haldeman, Schoderbek, Barney, Pevarnik, Terry, Shumock.
Centers — Dooley, Gratson.
Backs — Szajna, Rados, Johnson, B.

Yanks --

(Continued from page one)

home lot with a firm grip on the winners' share of what will be a record World Series split. Durocher's miracle boys must face Eddie Lopat, their southpaw tormentor of the second game, on dead even terms.

Maglie not at Best

It was plain from the very start today that Maglie, with an unaccustomed four days rest since the playoff with Brooklyn, was not at his best. He was missing the corners with his curves, and he was forced to toss 25 pitches before he retired the Yanks in the first frame—a heavy expenditure of energy.

Now and then the Polo Grounders threatened to get to Allie, but he never failed to have the answer. Either he blew a third strike past the batter or the unhappy Willie Mays came up at an inopportune time.

X-Country --

(Continued from page six)

ligament behind his knee and had to quit.

In the intra-squad junior varsity race freshmen Jim Hamill and John Chillrud tied for first with a time of 16:42. Frosh Harry Biemiller took third followed by Stan Lindner and soph Dick Grice. Finish order:

Varsity

1, Smith, PS; 2, Hollen, PS; 3, Foster, PS; 4, Luteranick, P; 5, Horner, PS; 6, Betts, P; 7, Somers, P; 8, Ashenfelter, PS; 9, Delligatti, P; 10, Mahanna and Kuzma, P; 12, Bob Roessler, PS; 13, Pete Judd and Carl Godshall, PS; 15, Bob Gehman, PS; 16, Don Sallade, P; 17, Dave Pierson, PS; 18, John Davidson, PS.

Junior Varsity

1, Hamill and Chillrud; 3, Biemiller; 4, Lindner; 5, Grice; 6, Don Gaddes; 7, Jim Cressman; 8, Sam Hamilton; 9, Alan Terrill; 10, Tom Dembuski; 11, Paul Winniger.

Soccer . . .

(Continued from page six)

Jack Krumrine blocked the shot just 20 seconds before the half.

The second half was rather dull from a spectators' viewpoint as only one goal was scored, and that didn't come until 20 seconds before the final whistle. The tally, another by Coleman, came when he took a pass from wingman Bill Norcik.

Penn State's next match is Friday at West Point against Army, last year's Eastern Intercollegiate champions.

It's a Big Team

Penn State's offensive starters average 200 pounds, and the defensive platoon is just a shade behind at 198 pounds.

ALL-AMERICAN
Ed Salem
U. of Alabama picks SOLO

Novelty sportshirt of fine rayon gabardine. Fully washable. 4 exciting colors with contrasting knit waistband.

$5.95

Young Men's Shop

Four Lion Grid Foes Triumph Over Weekend

Four Penn State football opponents won weekend contests while three were losers and one tied.

Boston University, 39, Louisville, 7—Led by their great passing ace, Harry Agganis, the Terriers overran the Kentucky university, 39-7. Agganis ran for one TD himself and set up the others. The ex-Marine's southpaw slants were effective to John Kastan and Lindy Hanson. He also kicked two extra points.

Sports Staff Names Smith Athlete of Week

Lamont Smith, Lion freshman cross-country runner, has been named athlete of the week by the Collegian sport staff.

Smith paced Chick Werner's to their 19-36 win over the Pitt Panthers in his first collegiate race. The Leighton, Pa. athlete covered the College's golf course in 26:58 and finished 20 yards ahead of the second man.

The course record is 25:03, set by the great Horace Ashenfelter. But Saturday's intense heat hampered most of the hill-and-dalers.

Making his feat more remarkable is the fact that Smith had never run cross-country in high school. The only running he had done was in scholastic track. Last spring he won the PIAA Class B mile championship.

Smith nosed out soccerman Ron Coleman to win the honor. Captain Coleman scored three goals as Bill Jeffrey's team defeated Bucknell, 5-0.

Sport Tournament Entry Blanks Due

Entries are still being accepted for the intramural swimming and golf medal tournaments at the IM office in Rec Hall. The entry deadline is 4 p.m. tomorrow.

Entry fees for the tournaments are $1 for the swimming tourney and 50 cents per man for the golf tournament.

Each organization may enter one team in the swimming tournament, which will be a single elimination. Two men from each organization may be entered in the golf medal tourney.

Two Top Opponents

Penn State gridders rate Boston U's Harry Agganis and Nebraska's Bobby Reynolds the best backs they've faced the last two years. Reynolds is mainly a runner, Agganis a passer.

Purdue, 34, Iowa, 30—In a Big Ten battle, the Boilermakers rallied in the final quarter to eke out a victory over a tough Iowa team. Trailing 30-20 with less than five minutes of play, Little Dale Samuels, great quarterback, started throwing passes all over the field. He unlimbered two long aerials for touchdowns to give the Boilermakers a thrilling win. Samuels also kicked four extra points.

Syracuse, 46, Lafayette, 0—The Orangemen bounced back from the previous week's loss to Cornell to trounce Lafayette, 46-0. Syracuse now looms as one of the best independents in the East.

Temple, 14, Rutgers, 7—The Owls took advantage of two Rutgers fumbles to win 14-7. In the first quarter, Temple recovered a fumble on the 25-yard line and scored. Rutgers tied the game when Jim Monahan, one of the best runners in the East, went around end for 89 yards. Again in the second quarter, Temple recovered a Rutgers fumble on the 26, and scored six plays later.

Indiana, 13, Pitt, 6—Pitt scored first on a 17-yard run by halfback Billy Reynolds, but the Hoosiers tied the score in the second quarter and scored again in the third period. The Hoosiers were sparked by a Pennsylvanian, fullback Gene Gedman, who ran 85 yards for one score, and caught a forward pass for the other touchdown. Five Panther fumbles contributed to their loss.

RINGS

Let your Penn State ring WORK for you

The chairman of the board may be looking for some good Penn Stater as vice president of the company . . . How would he know that you were his man if you didn't flash that Penn State class ring on him?

Order Your Ring NOW

BALFOUR'S

At The Athletic Store