

British, Egyptians Clash in Suez Area

CAIRO, Egypt, Oct. 18—(AP)—British sea reinforcements arrived in the Suez tonight to back up airborne parachute troops joining the British garrisons who already have fought their first battle with Egyptian army troops.

The Egyptian government announced a British cruiser from the Mediterranean has anchored at Port Said, the northern head of the canal. It said the warship came in "Contrary to all customs and without advising port authorities."

Forces Due at Gulf

The cruiser presumably is H.M.S. Gambia, which has been reported enroute to the Suez from the British naval base at Malta. Other British sea forces are due shortly from the Persian Gulf by way of the Indian Ocean and the Red Sea.

The first clash between military forces of the two countries resulted in the British winning control Wednesday of a canal bridge in the grimly disputed area.

Armies Dig In

As the British reinforcements poured in by sea and air, both the British and Egyptian armies were digging in along the highway between Cairo and the canal to establish gun emplacements in their respective sectors.

British tommyes were posted in foxholes with rifles on a ridge running at right angles to the highway near the canal and a distant hilltop bore what travelers said appeared to be artillery.

A total of 12 Egyptians are reported to have been killed and scores injured in the rioting that began Tuesday at Ismailia and spread along the canal.

Pa. School Taxes May be Increased

HARRISBURG, Oct. 18—(AP)—Most Pennsylvania residents will be paying higher school taxes next year, says a school expert.

Perston O. Van Ness, executive secretary of the State School Directors Association, predicts that most Keystone communities will have to boost school taxes in 1952.

The increases will be necessary, he said, in order to meet climbing school costs.

"There is no question about it," Van Ness asserted, "many school districts are hard-hit now and more will be hard-hit next year."

The education official said legislation now before the general assembly to lift pay levels for Pennsylvania's 60,000 public school teachers will help aggravate school cost problems.

The legislation would grant all teachers an immediate $200 pay granted most teachers this fall, increase on top of a $200 raise

The first American Bible in English was printed in Boston in 1752. John Eliot's Indian Bible, issued in Boston, 1661, was the first printed in North America.

Senate Passes New Tax Bill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—A new compromise tax bill, making the income tax boost just a little less, was passed quickly by the Senate today.

A voice vote in the Senate sent the modified revenue measure back to the House and a vote there tomorrow. The House voted 203 to 157 Tuesday against the bill in its original form.

The new bill is estimated to raise $5,691,000,000 in new taxes, compared with the estimated $5,732,000,000 in the previous one. In most essentials, however, the two measures are the same despite the $41,000,000,000 money difference.

If the House should pass the bill tomorrow, Congress probably could adjourn Saturday until January. If it turned it down again, there is a possibility of further delay or a special session during the time now set aside for vacation.

House leaders called their members to meet at 11 a.m. tomorrow, ready to vote on the bill. Its chances appeared improved but it still was not a certainty by any means.

Jessup Voted Out By Subcommittee

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—President Truman's nomination of Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup as a delegate to the United Nations was voted down by a Senate foreign relations subcommittee today, 3 to 2.

In the Senate, Republicans quickly demanded that the issue be settled once and for all by a floor vote.

The GOP demand apparently stemmed from fears that if the Senate itself does not act on the nomination before Congress adjourns, President Truman might give Jessup a recess appointment.
