

Past Grid Heroes To Receive Honors

Seldom is anything forgotten more quickly than yesterday's sports headlines. To remedy this shortcoming on the part of fans, the Penn State Alumni Association today is starting an annual policy which will honor football letter-winners from Nittany teams of the past.

Ten of the 86 alumni members of Lion grid teams between 1887 to 1901 and the 1926 team have accepted invitations to return to their alma mater on this 31st Homecoming Day.

Kistler Speaks At Tomorrow's Chapel Service

Dr. Raymon Kistler, president of Beaver College, Jenkintown, will speak in Chapel at 11 a.m. tomorrow on "Science and God's Word."

The Chapel choir, under the direction of Willa Taylor, will sing "Our Father" (Gretchaninoff) as the anthem; an introit, "Bless the Lord, O My Soul" (Ippolitof-Ivanov); and for the services of prayer, "Open Thou My Lips" (Rachmaninoff).

Organist George Ceiga will play as the prelude, "Corale and Minuet Gothique from Suite Gothique" (Boellman), and as the postlude, "Toccata from Suite Gothique" (Boellman).

The UN flag will be displayed in the chapel to commemorate United Nations week, starting tomorrow. Next Thursday the UN will celebrate its sixth birthday.

Acacia will give the flowers to be displayed and attend Chapel in a body to honor their new pledges.

Government Group To Meet Monday

A forum on parliamentary procedure will be sponsored by the Intercollegiate Conference on Government 7 p.m. Monday in 214 Willard. This will be the last chance for prospective members to join the club.

The ICG was established to give students an opportunity to learn through experience and model organizations how government works. The forum will be conducted by Joseph F. O'Brien, acting head of the speech department.

Rifles' Ribbons Now Unauthorized

The ribbons now being worn by the Pershing Rifles are not approved for wear on the ROTC uniform, according to Capt. Raymond E. Johnson, commanding officer, Company F, 15th regiment.

Due to a conflict with an Italian government decoration, the wearing of these ribbons will be discontinued immediately, Capt. Johnson said.

Also, no inactive members of the National Society of Pershing Rifles are permitted to wear the cord, except those approved by the Plans and Training Board. All violators will be reported to ROTC headquarters.

Alpha Lambda Delta

Newly elected officers of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary, are Jean Richards, president, and Alice Murray, vice president.

These officers were elected at a meeting last night. A committee was also set up to tutor freshman girls who need scholastic aid.

Other officers, who were previously elected, are Elizabeth Johnson, secretary, and Marilyn Closser, treasurer.

La Vie Asks Pictures To Depict Social Events

Students taking pictures this semester at any social events are asked to submit negatives and prints to James Geffert, editor of the 1952 La Vie, in 412 Old Main.

Prints submitted should be five by seven inches in size. If they are clear and depict the various phases of human life, they will be used in the campus life section of the yearbook. Prints not used will be returned.

Win or Lose, Students See Gay Weekend

Though uncertain about the results of today's game, students are expecting a gay weekend with the return of the alumni.

"I hope we lose, because if we win this town will be 100 percent drunk instead of 65 percent," cynically viewed Bernie Velenchik.

"Penn State is going to win because of good team spirit," Dick Jones, halfback, said. "Knocking off Michigan State will put Penn State on the football map."

Mickey Klein expressed the coed's view of the weekend with "This will make the ratio go up."

"If we beat them today, we'll go to a bowl game," predicted Ernie Schonberger.

Joan Lustig is worried about how 40,000 people are going to fit into State College. Kay Lloyd can't wait to see the alumni return.

"We are playing one of the best teams in the country. We can't belittle ourselves in losing, and we may win," viewed Stu Allen.

Anne Fleming and Pat Thompson said, "We're going to put up a good fight, it will be a good game, but we'll get beat."

"Our boys haven't really shown their abilities to the fullest extent. Maybe, this week, the team will hit its peak—and then, look out," observed Jay Lavin.

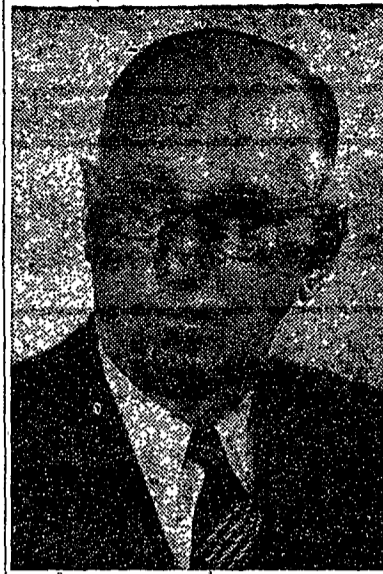

Mary Lynch said, "I'm looking forward to one gay celebration with so many people on campus." Connie Janssens said she's been trying to picture Beaver Field filled to standing room.

"Today's game will be the most important in the East," according to Jerry Polis.

Louise Morris pondered, "How are all the fraternities going to think of different lawn displays depicting 'Freedom's Keystone'?"

Beat Michigan State

Church Speaker

Dr. CHARLES BOSS

Boss to Speak To Methodist Church Group

Dr. Charles F. Boss, executive secretary of the Methodist Commission on World Peace, will be guest of St. Paul's Methodist Church tomorrow.

Dr. Boss will speak at the 10:45 a.m. service on "Can Peace Be Won?" At 4 p.m. he will meet with local church leaders interested in promoting the cause of world peace in their local churches. At 5:15 p.m. he will join Wesley Foundation for its fellowship supper.

At 6:30 p.m. Dr. Boss will speak to the Wesley group on "The Possibilities of Peace" and he will preach at the 7:30 p.m. worship service at St. Paul's.

Dr. Boss, who has studied conditions in Germany, Poland, Russia, France, England, Switzerland, and the Scandinavian countries, has served as counsellor and resource leader in Methodist youth enterprises.

In 1947 he spent three months in Europe on a peace mission, during which he visited most of the countries of Western Europe.

UN Week To Start Wednesday

United Nations Week celebrations at the College will begin Wednesday, the sixth anniversary of the signing of the United Nations charter at San Francisco, with a public lecture and discussion on "United Nations—Debating Club or True Peacemaker?" at 8 p.m. in 121 Sparks.

Guest speakers will be Nuri Eren, member of the Turkish delegation to the U.N., and Dr. Jan-Albert Goris, member of the Belgian delegation to the UNESCO.

Films entitled "The Marshall Plan in Action" will be shown Thursday. They will describe the results of the Economic Cooperation Administration's efforts in Europe's recovery. Different films will be shown at the three following programs: 9 to 10 a.m. in 10 Sparks, 11 a.m. to 12 noon in 14 Home Economics Building, and 3 to 4 p.m. in 10 Sparks.

The School of Home Economics will hold an International Festival, which will include exhibits, lectures, films, musical events, demonstrations and a costume show, from 2 to 5:30 p.m. and from 7 to 10 p.m. Oct. 28. This festival will carry out the theme of United Nations Week which is to emphasize and encourage international understanding.

The entire United Nations Week program is being sponsored by the All-College committee for international understanding, headed by D. W. Russell, professor of education.

He was a leader at the World Conference of Christian Youth at Oslo, Norway, and served as United States representative to the World Union of Peace Organization in Switzerland. In 1948 he went on a similar mission east of the Iron curtain.

Beat Michigan State

Student Church Groups Feature Guest Speakers

Many of the student church foundations will have speakers at their meetings tomorrow evening.

The Roger Williams Fellowship will hold a supper meeting from 5 to 7:30 p.m. at the University Baptist Church. Immediately following the supper, Theodore E. Bubeck, a missionary who has recently returned from the Moanza Mission Field, Belgian Congo, Africa, will speak to the group on "God's Alternative to Animism."

At 7 p.m. tomorrow in the Friends Meeting House, 318 South Atherton street, Joanna Bucknell will report on the American Young Friends Conference held at Wilmington, Ohio, this summer, and a discussion of some of the major issues of the conference will follow. A work party is planned this afternoon.

The Unitarian Student Fellowship will hear Dr. Henry Finch, Department of Philosophy, discuss "Lao-Tse, An Ancient Chinese Philosopher and the Issues of Today," at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Living Center of the Home Economics Building. The meeting is open to all.

The Wesley Foundation will hold a supper and singing program at 5:15 p.m. and at 6:30 p.m. Dr. Charles F. Boss, Jr., Executive Secretary of the Methodist Peace Commission, will speak on the topic "Is Peace Possible?"

Prodip Roy, graduate student from India, will speak on "Experiences in the Indian Student Christian Movement" at 6:30 p.m. at the Westminster Foundation. The foundation will hold open house tonight and an open cabin party to be held at the CA cabin next Saturday and Sunday.

The Evangelical United Brethren Foundation will have their student fellowship meeting at 6 p.m. tomorrow in the church student room.

G. Simitis, Lithuanian student, will speak at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Lutheran Student Foundation about experiences in his homeland.

The Canterbury Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Episcopal rectory, and the United Student Fellowship will meet at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Reformed Church basement.

"Keep A Check On Your Alma Mater"

Follow Campus Activities and the Success of the Nittany Lions

Make Every Day Seem Like Homecoming

SUBSCRIBE TODAY

$2.00 per Semester or at the New Special Rate of $3.75 per Year

Name .....

Address .....

Enclosed:

The DAILY COLLEGIAN Campus

State College, Pa.

$2.00 Sem. ( )    $3.75 Year ( )

(Clip and Mail)

ANTES FALL SPECIALS

To make your money go farther

While They Last ...

FENDER SKIRTS
For '49, '50 & '51 Fords
WERE $16.75 NOW $12.45

FRONT GRILL GUARDS
For '51 Fords
WERE $21.75 NOW $13.50

SPOTLIGHTS
WERE $19.95 NOW $12.75

GENUINE Ford PARTS MADE RIGHT FIT RIGHT LAST LONGER

ANTES MOTOR SALES

N. ATHERTON STREET