

Bob Pollard Goes 65 Yard for Score

BOB POLLARD, Penn State wingback, leaps out of the way of two would-be Michigan State tacklers while teammate Joe Graison gives him a key block which clears the path to the goal line. His touchdown run, the longest of the day, covered 65 yards and gave the Lions a temporary lead. Lions Chan Johnson (10), Bill Leonard (12), and Dick Cripps (72), move up to form interference.

Gridders Scare Spartans But Lose 2d Game, 32-21

Penn State's football team had Michigan State's Coach Biggie Munn sitting on pins and needles for almost three quarters Saturday afternoon on Beaver Field. The spirited Lions, who had their sights set on the season's biggest upset, just couldn't keep pace with the seemingly endless stream of fresh talented reserves the Spartans had and they went down to their second defeat of the year, 32-21.

A record crowd of 30,684 saw the Lions spot the Michigan gridgers 13 points in the first quarter only to come roaring back to take a 14-13 lead early in the second half. After Bob Pollard's brilliant runback of a Michigan punt which put Penn State in a temporary lead, the record Homecoming crowd sensed an upset over the nation's third ranking team. But a wealth of offensive backs, which helped to run up 303 yards on the ground, just wore the Lions down, scoring twice in the third quarter and once more in the final period.

Score 21

Coach Rip Engle's gridgers lost no prestige in losing to the Spartans. The Lions ran up 21 points against the tough Spartan defense—something no other team has been able to do this year.

Offensively, it was Matt Yanosich, Bob Pollard, and Tony Rados who stood out for the Lions. Yanosich scored the first Lion TD and picked up 43 of Penn State's 67 yard rushing total. Pollard made a beautiful 65 yard runback of a Spartan punt for the second Penn State score while Rados passed for one TD and set up another one.

On the defense, guard Pete Schoderbek, ends Dave Simon and Jesse Arnelle, and halfback Keith Vesling played good games.

Two Quick Scores

In the first quarter, the Spartans looked like they might make the game a runaway when they turned two Penn State fumbles into touchdowns and took a 13-0 lead over the underdog Lions.

Bob Carey kicked off to the Lions to start the game but on the first play from scrimmage, Ted Shattuck fumbled the ball and Bill Horrell recovered for Michigan State on the State 25 yard line. A penalty moved the ball back to the 30 but it took only six plays for the Spartans to go over. Vince Pisano turned left end from the twelve for the score. Bob Carey's placement was good and Michigan State took a 7-0 lead.

Quick Kick

State took the return kickoff but could gain nothing and Shattuck quick kicked. The Spartans took over on the MS 43 and moved downfield to the 26 where the Lion defense stiffened and Penn State took over.

Shattuck picked up a first down in two plays but Shopa, after gaining 14 yards on the next play, fumbled and Bill Hughes recovered for the Spartans on his own 47.

With Pisano and McAuliffe carrying, the Spartans put together three first downs to the Lion ten yard line. On the third down, McAuliffe went over right tackle from the three for the score. Carey's kick was wide and Michigan State led, 13-0.

Lions Score

An exchange of kicks found Penn State in possession on the MS 41. Jim Pollard picked up five to the 36. On the next play, Tony Rados hit Matt Yanosich with a pass on the three yard line. Jim Ellis pulled him down on the one. Yanosich went over left guard for the score. Bill Leonard's kick was good and the score stood at 13-7.

The Lions jumped into the lead shortly after the second half got under way. After Leonard kicked off to the Spartans, and they could pick up only one yard in three plays, Yewic punted.

Pollard Scores

Bob Pollard took the punt on his own 35, got a block from Chan Johnson, and then proceeded to squirm and jump through the entire Michigan State team. He broke free on about the 42 where he finally picked up his

Sportswriters Increase Lead Over Gridders

The sportswriters defeated the football team's representative for the fifth successive week and increased their lead over the gridgers in the Daily Collegian's football selections contest this week.

The three writers tied for first with nine correct and six wrong. Offensive guard Len Bartek had eight right and seven wrong for the football team.

Many upsets gave the forecasters their worst week of the season. All of the predictors missed Arkansas over Texas, Southern California over California, Indiana over Ohio State, and Texas A&M over Texas. Three missed Kentucky's victory over Villanova and Rice's upset of Southern Methodist.

The sportswriters combined average is .651, while the football team has .573. Assistant sports editor Bob Vosburg still leads individually with a .676 mark. Sports editor Ernie Moore follows with .647, and Dave Colton, assistant sports editor, has .632.

Boudreau Is New Red Sox Manager

BOSTON, Oct. 22—(AP)—Every member of Boston's disappointing Red Sox, Ted Williams included, was threatened with the trading block today when Lou Boudreau signed a two-year contract as the club's bench manager.

"We need an established catcher and a good double play combination and we'll trade anybody to get them," Boudreau said.

Arabs Oust Watts Volts 20-0, in IMs

By GEORGE BAIREY

Don Miller and Chris Christiansen combined their talents for three scores which figured into a 20-0 second round Arab win over Watts Volts last night at the IM field.

Sleeper plays counted for two of the three Arab markers. The third came on a two-yard shot over the middle.

A 45-yard Skip Rebele to John Bristol desperation TD heave with a scant two minutes left in the final half gave Phi Gamma Delta an 18-12 decision over Beta Sigma Rho in another second round IM contest.

The two fraternities matched score for score, with the Beta Sig's coming from behind to knot the game both times. Time ran out with the ball in Beta Sig's possession on the Phi Gam 20 yard line.

An 80-yard scoring play midway in the first half proved to be the only tally in the Dorm 33—Penn State Club game. The score was 6-0.

Dave Zebley uncorked a long, looping aerial to sleeper Carl Shaner for the winning Dorm 33 marker. Neither team threatened in the final half.

A lone Phi Delta Theta first half score and a very tight defense outweighed and outlasted the continuous Sigma Phi Epsilon threats in the final fraternity game last night. The result was another 6-0 decision.

Bob Bowers, Jim Fink, and Fred Huston put together a 41 yard scoring play in the initial period. SPE, continually threatening in the second half, did not have enough for the tying score.
