

West Dorms Begin Sunday Entertainment

The West Dorms entertainment committee presented the first in a series of weekly programs Sunday afternoon in the main lounge. Edward Tomaszewski, resident counselor and entertainment director acted as master of ceremonies.

The program included accordion selections by Robert Kokat, acrobatics by Gayle Thrush, a Charleston act by Ronald Everling and Libby George, hillbilly numbers played on the ukulele by Joseph Hastings, a piano solo by Sugi Lasker, "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Vicki Kaiser, and an original piano composition by Robert Stephens.

Dean McCreight and Everett Williams, guests from Lock Haven State Teachers College, also sang.

Accompanied by Robert Stephens, McCreight sang "One Alone" and "The Blue Room." Williams, a deep baritone, sang "Lucky Old Sun," "Deed I Do," and the Negro spirituals, "Nobody Knows the Troubles I've Seen" and "Bless This House."

Tomaszewski is seeking skit writers, dancers, musicians, magicians, and singers for a program Nov. 4. The entertainments are not restricted to residents of the West Dorms and anyone may participate.

Applicants are asked to fill out a form at the main lobby desk or to contact Tomaszewski, extension 2272.

Appeals--

"Pi Lambda Phi will be asked to submit its entire appeal in a written form before tomorrow night's meeting," Wengert added.

Neither Kolber nor Lurie could be reached for comment on the board's refusal to accept the appeal, but it was reliably reported that they would make no public statement.

Members of the board of control present at the meeting beside Wengert were John Allison, Edward Shihadeh, John Fitzpatrick, Wesley Menzel, Frederick Rodgers, Wallace Kreiger, James Phillips, John Vasilakis, Milton Bernstein, and James Wharton. Thomas Hanna and Donald Carlson were absent.

Political Parties --

Final nominations for State Party freshman and sophomore class clique officers will be held Sunday. The Lion Party will hold elections for two clique officers-at-large at its Sunday meeting.

Leonides Heads To Be Elected

Leonides, independent women's organization, will hold elections for the office of president and vice president from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Thursday.

Elections are being held to fill the offices left vacant when president Doris Sher transferred to the University of Tennessee, and vice president Alice Hennessey resigned.

Nominees for president are Edna Baylson and Vivian Peterson. Candidates for vice-president are Betty Johnson and Janet Magrini.

Posters with pictures of the nominees will be placed in the women's dormitories. The elections committee, with Muriel Amel as chairman, will supervise the voting at the ballot boxes.

Two Professors Added to Staff

Dr. William N. Leonard, head of the department of economics and commerce, announced yesterday that Dr. Howard A. Cutler, assistant professor and assistant to the dean of the College of Commerce and Business Administration at the University of Illinois, and Dr. Nathan Belfer, assistant director of the research department of the International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, have been named as new faculty members.

Pomp, Ceremony Greet Royal Pair

VICTORIA, B.C., Oct. 22—(AP)—It was a typical British welcome for royalty here today—pomp, ceremony and cheers.

The pomp and ceremony came in the British Columbia legislative building where an official welcome was extended by Premier Byron Johnson.

Later, at a government luncheon, Princess Elizabeth made a broadcast to the empire in which she told her people: "This journey has indeed been a tremendous experience. We hope we will have a chance to return to the west coast before too long has passed."

The streets were crowd-packed as the royal pair toured the city. The ivy covered buildings along the procession route were decorated with bunting and flags.

Leonard, Leffler Attend Conference

Two members of the economics and commerce department, Dr. William N. Leonard and Dr. George L. Leffler, represented the College last week at the annual meeting of the Associated University Bureaus of Business and Economic Research.

Representatives at the meeting, held at Tulane University, discussed research problems and relations with private business, state and federal research agencies. Dr. Leonard was a member of a panel on personnel relations.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

No. 26
THE ROOSTER

You have to get up early in the morning to put one over on this cock-of-the-walk! When it came to making "quick-trick" experiments of cigarette mildness, he stated flatly, "That's strictly for clucks"! How 'ya going to keep 'em down on the farm—when they know there's one convincing way to prove cigarette mildness!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as a steady smoke—on a day after day basis. No snap judgments. Once you've enjoyed Camels for 30 days in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .
