

20 Groups to Sponsor Booths at Mardi Gras

Twenty campus women's organizations have turned in applications for booths for the annual Mardi Gras carnival Nov. 2 at Recreation Hall.

Proceeds from the carnival, sponsored by Mortar Board, senior women's activities honorary, will be invested in the Charlotte E. Ray Memorial Scholarship Fund. Income from this fund is used for scholarships for worthy women on campus.

Booth Applicants

The deadline for submitting photographs of Mardi Gras king candidates has been extended to 5 p.m. tomorrow. Photos must be five by seven inches, and must be glossy prints.

Organizations which have submitted booth applications are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Epsilon Phi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, freshman council.

Mardi Gras King

Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Delta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Leonides, Phi Mu, Phi Sigma Sigma, Sigma Delta Tau, Theta Phi Alpha, and Zeta Tau Alpha.

Mortar Board will set up a carnival booth for voting for the Mardi Gras king. Each vote will cost one cent. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes will be crowned during the carnival.

Pictures of candidates will be displayed next week in the window of the Athletic Store.

Tickets at Door

In addition to booths sponsored by women's organizations, a refreshment stand will be set up by Mortar Board. Alpha Phi Omega, service honorary, will help with booth construction.

Tickets priced at ten cents each will be sold at the door, and will be used for admission to the carnival booths. The organization which takes in the largest number of tickets will be awarded possession of the Mardi Gras trophy cup, for one year. Alpha Omicron Pi has possession of the cup for the past two years.

Last year Pat Heims, Phi Kappa Tau, was elected Mardi Gras king. He was sponsored by Alpha Omicron Pi.

Co-Edits

Beta Sigma Omicron

Beta Sigma Omicron recently ribboned Nancy Forsythe and Kathleen Clarkson.

Lambda Chi Alpha

Lambda Chi Alpha recently entertained Delta Gamma at dinner. The fraternity's pledge class presented skits and musical entertainment, and the program ended with dancing.

New pledge officers of the fraternity are Carl Lunde, president; Edwin Thompson, vice president; Charles Hamilton, secretary; Lawrence Ream, chairman, entertainment committee; and Webster Haag, chairman, pledge program committee.

Help the boys in Korea—join the Red Cross blood drive Nov. 13 and 14 at the TUB.

For The Belle Hop Ball A New Hair Style

So you'll have that smooth, neat collegiate look, get your hair cut, styled and set by one of Garey's skillful operators.

Garey's

Beauty Salon

Glennland Building

Dial 2071

Historians Plan Conclave Here

Approximately 200 amateur and professional students of Pennsylvania history will attend the convention of the Pennsylvania Historical Association at the College Nov. 2 and 3.

The representatives from local and county historical societies will stress the history of central and western Pennsylvania counties.

Among those included on the program are Dean Ben Euwema of the School of Liberal Arts, Professor Samuel P. Bayard of the English Composition department, Professor Albert F. Buffington of the German department, Walter Boyer of the English Literature department, and Arthur R. Warnock, dean of men emeritus.

They will discuss British and German traditions in Pennsylvania's folk music, the history of Centre County, and five other topics.

Recovery of Oil To Be Discussed

Research studies to determine ways of recovering the 20 to 30 per cent of oil that remains in oil fields will be discussed at the 15th annual Technical Conference on Petroleum Production opening here today.

The three-day conference is sponsored by the College and the Pennsylvania Grade Crude Oil Association.

Speaker for tomorrow night's dinner session will be John A. Loftus, economic adviser, Bureau of Near Eastern, South Asian, and African Affairs, U.S. Department of State. His subject will be "Oil Problems in the Middle East."

Science Demonstration Presented in Schwab

"House of Magic," a General Electric show of scientific marvels, was presented last night in Schwab Auditorium.

Among the features of the program were "the lamp that lights without wires," "the train that obeys a human voice," and "motionless motion."

The show was sponsored by the student branch of American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the Institute of Radio Engineers. No admission was charged.

WARNER
Cathoum
RHONDA FLEMING
MARK STEVENS
"LITTLE EGYPT"

State
First Time On Screen
See Thrills and Terrors
"JUNGLE
HEAD HUNTERS"

Nitney
DOORS OPEN 6:20
CARTOONS at 6:53, 9:09
17 CARTOONS

IM Hockey To Be Added To WRA Slate

Intramural competition in field hockey will be added to the list of Women's Recreation Association activities, it was announced yesterday. The addition of the sport to the WRA schedule came about because of the interest shown in the Field Hockey Club.

In last night's activities, Phi Sigma Sigma swept over Chi Omega in the first of the table tennis matches. Phi Mu took Kappa Kappa Gamma, Sigma Delta Tau won over Beta Sigma Omicron, Alpha Chi Omega over the Co-op, Alpha Epsilon Phi over Kappa Alpha Theta, and Alpha Xi Delta over Theta Phi Alpha.

In basketball Zeta Tau Alpha overcame Delta Zeta 24-14, Kappa Delta took Delta Gamma 19-11, and Thompson A forfeited to Delta Delta Delta. The last game saw Gamma Phi Beta handing defeat to Alpha Omicron Pi by a 28-22 score with Nicholson taking the evening's scoring honors with 14 points.

FBLA to Meet

Dorothy Dalbor, Future Business Leaders of America president, will explain the purposes of the club at a meeting at 7 p.m. tomorrow in Atherton lounge. Membership degrees will be conferred and a social hour will follow. The meeting is open to the public.

Eisenhower to Speak

President Milton S. Eisenhower will address the Pennsylvania State Grange at 10:30 a.m. today in Butler.

Music Lovers, Knitters Gather At Simmons Lounge Musicales

By DOROTHY BENNETT

Every other Thursday night a group of students and faculty members gathers in Simmons lounge to hear the musicale. They read, write letters, study, knit, and some just listen to the music.

The musicale was started in 1948 by a group of graduate students who had large record collections, which they thought others might enjoy hearing. The record sessions began in Atherton lounge, then moved to Simmons. Now the musicale is usually known as the Simmons Musicales.

When the originators left campus, Monica Hearn, a bacteriology major, Joseph Hess, a wood utilization major, and Frank Innis, a graduate student in psychology, formed a new committee.

Most of the records are from private collections.

A typical program includes recordings of symphonies and concertos by Mozart, Hayden, Shostakovich, and Strauss. Before playing each record, Hess comments briefly on the work and the author, and there is sometimes a discussion about the composition.

Miss Hearn said the musicale is "for the sake of music only." It is a non-profit organization.

WRA Officers Installed

Three representatives were installed by the Women's Recreation Association executive board last night.

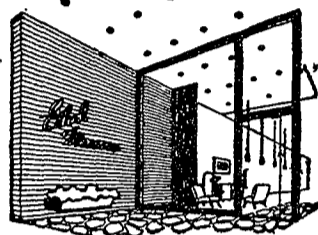

Elected Thursday, the new officers are Virginia Hinner, sophomore representative, and Marcia Ferguson and Ellie Gwynn, freshman representatives.

You can really help the GI's—join the Red Cross blood drive Nov. 13 and 14 at the TUB.

and is open to anyone who wishes to listen.

Music begins at 7:30 p.m. and usually lasts for about two hours. Students wander silently in and out all during the program. Students who are attending for a music course listen with keen concentration, apparently trying to identify the various instruments. The real music lovers sit with dreamy expressions, and usually nod their heads in time to the music.

Attendance at the musicale averages about 35. The record is 60.

thru the Looking Glass

with George

"Horseflies can be reared in large numbers at a reasonable cost on fermenting dog biscuit." How interesting. This gem appeared as a filler above this column last week. And me trying to interest you in good things to eat at Ethel's.

Lemon, Sugar?

Oh well, let's let the biscuit ferment and enjoy a martini olive. Or will you have a cocktail cherry? Or perhaps you prefer a cocktail pearl onion, hmm. You can get them by the bottle at Ethel's gourmet's center. Along with more kinds of tea than an imaginative Englishman could dream up. They come beautifully boxed: four, six, eight, and up, kinds of tea to the box. Makes it easy to buy a bread and butter gift whether you've a dollar or five dollars to spend.

They'll Eat Out Of Your Hand

Mmmm, and don't forget that dreamy Almond Rocca candy. If you want to win friends and influence the opposite sex, just proffer a piece of Almond Rocca. Comes boxed and canned; fresher than today's eggs.

A Good Steer On Shoulder Bags

While we're not on the subject, I've been meaning to remind you about a new shipment of those much wanted shoulder bags. You know the ones: natural leather with saddle stitch and big old-gold medallion clasps. Notice these are not plastic... they're straight from the steer. And only $4.95. Take a look at Ethel's window for a sample showing.

Let the Desire Burn Inside

But don't just stand there burning with desire. Come in. You'll be dry, warm, and well taken care of. Ethel appreciates your interest and business. Just tell her George sent you.

CATHAUM

BEGINS FRIDAY Featuretime— 1:00, 3:03, 5:06, 7:09, 9:25

"... THE FRANKEST, and MOST PROVOCATIVE SCENE OF ITS KIND EVER FILMED..." —TIME MAGAZINE

Paramount presents MONTGOMERY CLIFT ELIZABETH TAYLOR

SHELLEY WINTERS in GEORGE STEVENS' Production of A PLACE IN THE SUN

"I'm in trouble, George... bad trouble..."

Ethel Meserve
112 E. COLLEGE AVE.
STATE COLLEGE, PA.