 Campus Chest is Earl Baker. Other committee members are Robert Evans, Sally Fischer; Joseph Folcarelli, John Hoseford, and Ann Swagler.

Last Year's Drive Success
 Students in charge of solicitations are John Allison, fraternities Donald Beal, town men; John Laubach and Joseph Haines, campus men; Joan Yerger and Virginia Opoczanski, campus women; and Patricia Jones, town women. Murray Goldman will be solicitation chairman.

Although last year's drive was short by $3500 it was considered a success by the chest officials. Originally scheduled to last for one week, '50's drive was extended to two weeks so that the solicitors would have more time to contact the students they had missed. The final total was $10,500.

 other hands. After the bands have arranged themselves on the field they will play two or three numbers en masse.

The original plan was to have the program performed at half time, but West Virginia University's decision to bring its band with them made the pre-game arrangement necessary.

West Virginia's band will honor the armed forces of the United States by having formations to depict the Marines, Air Force, Navy, Armored Forces, and Infantry. They will also have a novel "band within a band" consisting of a special group of members who play accompaniment to the cheers.

Fishburn said that he hopes all students will turn out for the game early enough to see the program and thus encourage continuation of the annual Band Days.

COME TO CHURCH

Dr. Elton Trueblood of Earlham College has this to say concerning the church:—"The sober fact is that the Christian Churches and the Hebrew synagogues are the only organizations in our civilization whose primary purpose is to keep alive the moral and spiritual principles without which a decent world is impossible."

Any organization depends for its existence upon the vitality of its following. Each church member is a tiny rootlet nourishing and sustaining the life of the whole cause. Fruits depend upon roots. Uphold your church.
