O'Hora Describes Purdue As Tough Football Opponent

Dale Samuels Key to Purdue Grid Attack

The Nittany Lion football squad will go up against win-starved Purdue University this Saturday and Assistant Coach Jim O'Hora, who scouted Purdue against Wisconsin and Notre Dame, reports that the Boilermakers are going to be a/tough foe to handle.

With but one win in the record backs and a losing strak ord.

books and a losing streak of three straight games, Coach Stu Holcomb's squad has had a rough time of it so far this season and the Boilermakers would like nothing better than to jump back on the victory trail when they meet Penn State in Lafayette, Ind.

One Win, Four Losses

O'Hora reports that Purdue is a much better ball club than its four losses and one win record four losses and one win record indicates. He pointed out that all four of the Boilermaker's losses came at the hands of grid powers. After losing to Texas in the opener, 14-0, Holcomb's squad edged Iowa, 34-30, for its only win. Miami of Florida downed the Boilermakers in their next outing, 7-0. Tough Wisconsin and Notre Dame also took the measure of the Purdue gridders. Wisure of the Purdue gridders. Wisconsin won 31-7, while Notre Dame whipped the Boilermakers,

"Purdue is a typical Big Ten team," said O'Hora. "They have a hard, rough ball club. They have a strong passing attack with a good passer and good receivers." Samuels Good Passer terback and passer.

"Samuels is a good passer and he's fast and shifty. He likes to run but not as much as (Harry)

O'Hora went on to say that the Boilermakers depend a great deal on Samuels' passing in their offensive attack.

"Their passing attack is 40 percent of their offense. They threw 26 passes against Notre Dame and 33 against Wisconsin."

X-Country Team to Seek Comeback Against NYU

Shorn of much of its luster as a result of a 22-35 defeat by Army last weekend, the Lion cross-country team will try to get back on the winning trail again when it meets New York University Saturday on the College course.

After the Michigan State meet, in which the Lions looked so impressive, NYU was not expected to be too big an obstacle for Chick Werner's hill-and-dalers.

But with Army trimming Penn State so decisively, the NYU duel takes on a different appearance.
