

Mardi Gras to Feature Variety Shows, Games

Booths ranging from animal races to dart games will highlight this year's Mardi Gras carnival, which is being held from 8 p.m. to 12 midnight tomorrow in Recreation Hall.

A charge of fifteen cents will admit Mardi Gras goers to the carnival. Tickets priced at ten cents will be sold at the door, and will be used for admission to each booth. Dancing will be free of charge.

Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, which sponsors the carnival annually, will set up a refreshment booth. A cup of cider will cost one ticket. Two doughnuts also may be purchased for one ticket.

Ticket Count

Voting for the King of the Mardi Gras will end at 11 p.m. The coronation will take place at 11:30 p.m., when all booths will close. Nancy McClain, president of Mortar Board, will crown the king, the candidate for whom the greatest number of one cent votes have been cast.

Booth chairmen will turn in tickets collected at their booths between 11:45 p.m. and midnight to the ticket table. Miss McClain requested that each group sponsoring a booth make an approximate count of their tickets before turning them in.

Decorating for the carnival will begin at 5 p.m. tomorrow. Each group will bring its own props, and will be responsible for clean-up afterwards. Members of Alpha Phi Omega, service honorary, will aid with booth construction and clean-up.

Twenty Sponsors

A bronze cup will be presented to the group whose booth takes in the greatest number of tickets. The winner will be announced in the Daily Collegian.

Eighteen sororities, Leonides, and the Women's Student Government Association's freshman council will sponsor booths.

Alpha Chi Omega will test Mardi Gras goers' skill with their "Basketball Throw." "Take a Chance with AEPHI" will be the theme of Alpha Epsilon Phi's booth.

A "Rat Race" will be the theme of Alpha Gamma Delta's booth. Alpha Omicron Pi's booth will be entitled "Broadway Hits" and will feature song and dance routines.

"Loop the Leg of an Alpha Xi" will be the theme of Alpha Xi Delta's booth. Chi Omega will call Mardi Gras goers to their "House of Blue Lights," a variety show.

"Coffin Capers" will be Delta Delta Delta's booth theme. It will feature a spook show. "Dart a DG" is the title of Delta Gamma's booth. Darts with rubber suction cups on the ends will be shot from pop guns.

"DZ Showboat" is the theme of Delta Zeta's variety show. Singing and dancing acts will be featured in a variety show sponsored by the Women's Student Government Association's Freshman Council.

"Get Pinned by a Gamma Phi" is the name of Gamma Phi Beta's booth. Customers will shoot arrows having suction cups on the ends at pictures of imaginary fraternity and sorority pins.

Kappa Alpha Theta will test customers' skills with rubber balls which knock down three large yellow stuffed cats. "KD Bar None" is the title of Kappa Delta's variety show.

"Kappa Kuties," a freak show, will be Kappa Kappa Gamma's booth theme. Leonides will sponsor a game of skill called "Strike It Rich." Customers will attempt to pound nails into blocks of wood.

"Phi Mu's Wheel" is the theme of the booth sponsored by Phi Mu. Phi Sigma Sigma's booth, "Claim Your Name," will have customers knock over balloons on which are painted letters of sororities, fraternities, and independent group names.

Sigma Delta Tau will use live white mice to carry out their booth theme. "Little Egypt" is the theme of Theta Phi Alpha's variety show. The show is built around an Arabian theme, and will feature Little Egypt, the dancer, and a chorus.

Zeta Tau Alpha's booth, "Penny Pitching," will test Mardi Gras goers' skill at tossing pennies onto a board. Customers will be given pennies for tossing in exchange for tickets purchased at the door.

Marriages

Satler-Nelson

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nelson of State College have announced the marriage of their daughter, Harriet, to Leroy Satler of Philadelphia.

The wedding was held at the Hillel Foundation. A reception and dinner which followed the ceremony was held at Zeta Beta Tau.

Mrs. Satler was a member of Sigma Delta Tau sorority.

ALD to Hold Tea Today

Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's scholastic honorary, will hold a tea from 3:30 to 5 p.m. today in the northeast lounge of Atherton Hall.

Klopp Chosen Queen at Penn Junior Prom

Barbara Klopp, Miss Penn State of 1951, was crowned Junior Prom queen at the University of Pennsylvania last weekend.

A student committee chose five finalists from the 31 pictures submitted. Judges representing the offices of the deans of men and women at the university then selected Miss Klopp as queen, and announced their choice at a party before the dance. Miss Klopp, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, was told of the honor by her escort, Richard Mills, a Sigma Nu at Penn.

At the dance Friday the queen was presented with a bouquet of roses and serenaded by members of Sigma Nu with "The White Star of Sigma Nu."

Delta Gamma to Honor Officer at Tea Saturday

Delta Gamma will hold a tea from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday in Simmons lounge. The tea will honor Mary Reif, secretary of Province II of the sorority.

Guests will include two representatives from each sorority; city panhellenic officers; College panhellenic officers; Pearl O. Weston, dean of women; and alumnae of the sorority.

Chi Omega, Phi Mu Fives Play to Tie

Another tie was registered in the White Hall basketball scorebooks when Chi Omega and Phi Mu battled to an even score at 20 all.

Even the forwards found competition close with Elizabeth Duda dropping in 10 points for Phi Mu and Margaret Doggett doing the very same for Chi Omega. One game resulted in a 2-0 default when Thompson C lost a guard on fouls and having no substitutes, had to forfeit the game to Alpha Chi Omega.

The remainder of the games produced rather lopsided scores with Simmons scoring a 51-6 victory over Thompson B.

Alpha Epsilon Phi bowed to Kappa Kappa Gamma by a 59-4 score. Scoring honors went to Patricia Capper of the Kappa Kappa Gamma team with 24 tallies and to Nancy Jarden of the Simmons squad who sent 20 points through the hoop.

In table tennis, Gamma Phi Beta beat Delta Delta Delta, and Alpha Omicron Pi took McAllister II. Delta Gamma forfeited to Delta Zeta and Thompson D forfeited to Kappa Delta.
