 consulates in New York and Cleveland.
 2. The removal of the travel ban on United States citizens in Hungary.
 3. The restoration of Hungarian property looted by the Nazis during World War II and then in the U.S. zone of Germany.
 Born in New York City in 1911, Vogeler was educated here and in Germany. He was graduated from the Peekskill Military Academy in 1928 and a year later received an appointment to the United States Naval Academy. He had to resign from the Academy because of ill health, however, and then attended Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
 After working at the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply Co., and at Libby-McNeil and Libby in engineering capacities, Vogeler accepted a position with I. T. & T. as the company's resident representative. In 1946 the territory supervised by him was increased to include Czechoslovakia, and two years later it was further increased to include Hungary.

 tion between the administration and the houses during the rushing period. Rushing techniques and penalties for rushing violations were other points Hittinger suggested for discussion.
 The finance group met at Beta Sigma Rho where Ralph H. Wherry, associate professor of economics, discussed common fraternity financial problems.
FMA Discussed
 David E. Bauer, industrial engineering instructor, spoke to the house maintenance session at Delta Chi on repair and preventive maintenance. He also discussed a Fraternity Management Association which would permit the fraternities to make wholesale purchases of such items as fuel, canned goods, and dairy products.
 The importance of having pledges do constructive work instead of constant hazing was stressed by Arthur M. Wellington, professor of education and psychology, to the pledge training group at Phi Kappa Psi.
Program Commended
 M. Nelson McGeary, head of the political science department, commended the workshop program as showing fraternity cooperation. He addressed the social activities committee at Alpha Sigma Phi.
 In his speech to the public relations session at Alpha Gamma Rho, James H. Coogan, assistant director of public information, suggested the IFC establish a public relations committee so that the public can be informed of the good things which fraternities do, instead of hearing only the bad incidents.

 of President Milton S. Eisenhower whose position "some lucky student" will take for one day.
 Bonn said the program would be carried out in a similar manner as the "mayor for a day" programs held in many cities in Pennsylvania and elsewhere.
 Harry Cover, All-College vice president, will recommend to cabinet that a committee be formed to compile information on sorority houses. He said that due to the large number of rumors and misconceptions, available knowledge of the situation should be compiled and made known to the students.
 Committee reports will include a Tribunal report by David Mutchler, chairman of Tribunal, on the goal post problem, and a Student Loan Fund report by Ralph Egolf, committee chairman.
 James Worth, All-College president, will read the list of complimentary tickets to be given out for the junior and senior proms. He will also make appointments to committees.

Doctors warn smokers about throats. Kaywoodie Pipes have Three Throat-Guards to give extra throat protection.

FIRST THROAT-GUARD: "Wider-opening" bit. Spreads out smoke, helps cool it. No hot smoke to irritate throat or "bite" tongue.

SECOND THROAT-GUARD: Exclusive, patented "DRINKLESS" device. Cuts down irritating tars... keeps every pipeful lit longer.

THIRD THROAT-GUARD: World's best imported briar. It's specially heat-resistant and porous. Makes smoke cooler... less irritating.
