

Alpha Omicron Pi Wins Mardi Gras Trophy Cup

Alpha Omicron Pi won possession of the Mardi Gras trophy cup for the third consecutive year by collecting 1383 tickets at the annual carnival Friday night.

Donald Cook, sponsored by Alpha Xi Delta, was crowned King of the Mardi Gras by Nancy McClain, president of Mortar Board, sponsors of the carnival. Barbara Klopp, Miss Penn State of 1951, presented the king with a complimentary gift certificate from Jack Harper's. The king, a member of Beta Theta Pi, also received a silver scepter and a certificate of kingship.

Broadway Hits

Final figures for proceeds are not yet available, but Lois Pulver, Mortar Board treasurer, said that profits from this year's carnival were expected to top last year's figures. A total of $1422.38 was taken in this year, but total expenses have not yet been determined.

Alpha Omicron Pi's booth was entitled "Broadway Hits," and featured song and dance routines. Theta Phi Alpha placed second with 593 tickets. "Little Egypt," a variety show built around an Arabian theme, was the theme of Theta Phi Alpha's booth.

Other Booth Figures

Approximately $433 was collected at the king booth. Admission charges brought in about $226, and refreshments, sold by Mortar Board, brought in about $75. A total of $674.90 was taken in by 20 booths sponsored by 18 sororities, Leonides, and freshman council.

The number of tickets taken in by other booth sponsors were Alpha Chi Omega, 551; Kappa Delta, 506; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 439; Chi Omega, 366; Gamma Phi Beta, 347; Leonides, 335; freshman council, 330; Delta Delta Delta, 313; Delta Gamma, 310; Alpha Xi Delta, 266; Delta Zeta, 226; Alpha Gamma Delta, 159; Kappa Alpha Theta, 145; Zeta Tau Alpha, 117; Phi Mu, 96; Alpha Epsilon Phi, 95; Sigma Delta Tau, 92; and Phi Sigma Sigma, 80.

Proceeds from the carnival go to the Charlotte E. Ray Memorial Scholarship Fund, income from which is used for scholarships for worthy women on campus.
