

Junior Class Queen To Reign Over Prom

Hundreds of coeds and imports at tonight's Junior Prom will be billowing about in gowns of frothy net, aglitter with the sparkle of rhinestones, amid the usual atmosphere of a big dance. But for five coeds, candidates for the title of Miss Junior Class, the dance will be of special significance.

This year will mark the first time that a Miss Junior Class has been chosen. A committee headed by Joan Yerger will make the final selection. Fifteen outstanding juniors chose the five finalists from a field of 12 candidates.

Golfing, Canoeing

Nancy Bailey, the only blonde finalist, transferred to the College this semester from Pennsylvania College for Women, where she won academic honors for two years. Nancy, whose home is in Franklin, is majoring in sociology, and plans to be a hostess for Pan American Airways. As freshman attendant to the Christmas Ball queen at PCW, Nancy is not new at acquiring beauty honors. The blue-eyed junior, a Kappa Alpha Theta pledge, is fond of golfing and canoeing, and has her senior life saving and swimming instructor badges.

U.S.S. Bordelon

One of the three brown-haired finalists, Catherine Corbiere came to Penn State as a freshman, one of the "famous 500." A French major in the School of Liberal Arts, the brown-eyed junior is a collector of classical recordings and a surf fishing enthusiast.

This past summer Catherine was chosen Queen of the U.S.S. Bordelon in a contest conducted by a branch of the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps. A member of Kappa Alpha Theta, Catherine plans to enter foreign service after graduation. She has served on freshman council and the Freshman Customs and Regulations Board, and is a member of the French and Spanish Clubs. Catherine has had a variety of summer jobs, and has been everything from a soda jerk, department store clerk, and playground instructor, to a librarian in her home town, Allentown.

Record Collector

Kathleen Parnell, another of the "500," came to the College from her hometown of Tamaqua. The only black-haired finalist, Kathleen is majoring in institution administration. A member of Chi Omega, she served on the advertising crew for the Thespian show, "Bottoms Up." Kathleen collects classical recordings, and, though she has never been a queen before, was "very pleased" with the news of her selection as finalist in the Miss Junior Class contest.

May Queen Attendant

Barbara Reynolds, the second of the three brown-haired finalists, came to the College from Swarthmore, where she spent her freshman year. The 20-year-old blue-eyed candidate, who lives in Media, came to Pennsylvania from New Jersey and Missouri. A secondary education major, Barbara, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, is fond of all sports and dancing.

In high school Barbara was a May Queen attendant. At the College she works on the editorial staff of Froth, on the staff of Edits, publication of the School of Education, and is currently carrying on a series of interviews as part of the promotion activities for Players' current production, "Our Town."

Mary Alyce Strom, the third of the brown-haired finalists, also attended Swarthmore before coming to Penn State. A hotel administration student, Mary's home is in Havertown, where she moved from Indiana. A member of Kappa Alpha Theta, the hazel-eyed finalist was Mardi Gras queen and Queen of Sports at Swarthmore.

Mary is on the sophomore board of La Vie, and is secretary of the Greeters Club.

Millstream--

(Continued from page four) able to transmit a magazine, for example, across the continent in less than a minute. Ultrafax, developed sometime ago by RCA, has already transmitted "Gone With the Wind" in less than two minutes.

In the military field, Sarnoff envisages the day when all battles on land and sea will be viewed by field commanders on special television receivers made possible by electronics.

As Sarnoff says, the next age may well be the Electronic Age.

WSGA Chooses Two Delegates

Yvonne Carter and Guyla Woodward were named Women's Student Government Association delegates to the Penn State Christian Association's colloquy on government at the senate meeting Wednesday.

Newly-elected freshman Senators Louise Guld and Ann Cunningham and Treasurer Carolyn Pelczar were formally installed.

Mary Jane Woodrow, president, appointed a committee to check and revise the WSGA handbook and constitution. Jane Steiber will head the group. Assisting her will be Carolyn Alley, Ruth Coats, Linda Jacobs, Diane Miller and Dorothy Naveen.

Miss Woodrow reported that 1154 of the 1959 women polled by WSGA opposed the release of election figures while 642 favored it and 163 were indifferent. About 85 percent of the women living in dormitories were polled, according to Miss Woodrow.

Three Journalists To Speak at Tea

Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, will sponsor a tea Nov. 18 in the northeast lounge of Atherton.

Three prominent women journalists will be guest speakers. They are Rebecca Gross, editor of the Lock Haven Express, Mrs. Robinson McIlvaine, president of the Pennsylvania Women's Press Association, and Mrs. Marion Shatto, women's editor of the Sharon Herald.

Fraternity Hears Secondary Ed Prof

In an after-dinner speech at Theta Kappa Phi, Dr. Donald McGary, professor of secondary education, gave a talk on the role of educational institutions in the new concept of world citizenship.

"Our job (the educational institutions of the world) is to develop this broad world concept, and to eliminate the wide-spread illiteracy and racial barriers that exist all over the universe," he said.

Pearl O. Weston, dean of women, and Harold R. Gilbert, graduate manager of athletics, were dinner guests at the fraternity earlier in the semester. Guests will be invited to the fraternity each Wednesday night.

100 Frosh Women Get Psych Results

Approximately 100 freshmen women have received interpretations of their psychology tests during the past ten days, supervisor of the clinic announced yesterday.

Freshman women in education, home economics, liberal arts, and physical education, who took the psychology tests during Orientation Week, may have their results interpreted now, according to M. L. Seigler of the Student Advisory Service.

Students may request appointments at the Psychology Clinic Annex at the rear of Women's Building.

Give one, serve all
Give to the Campus Chest

Thetas Take IM Game 25-24

Kappa Alpha Theta and Thompson D registered basketball wins last night as the WRA IM activity concluded the first half of its schedule.

Alpha Xi Delta lost a close 25-24 game to Kappa Alpha Theta. Trailing at the end of the third period, the losers attempted a comeback in the final minutes. Joan Hertel, of the winning sextet, sent 12 points through the hoop and Pat Lively, of the losers, netted 14 tallies.

Thompson D stopped the Sigma Delta Tau squad 33-25 with Linda Salzberg garnering 14 points for the victors. The remaining games saw Phi Sigma Sigma forfeiting to Alpha Gamma Delta and Beta Sigma Omicron to Theta Phi Alpha.

Official standings of the teams will be reported in the near future. The teams will start the final half of IM activity Monday.

CATHAUM

BEGINS MONDAY

Featuretime 1:00, 3:05, 5:10, 7:15, 9:34

Prices For This Engagement Requested By Producer

ADULTS—Mat. 75c tax incl.
ADULTS—Eve. $1.00 tax incl.
CHILDREN 35c tax incl. all times

"A Streetcar Named Desire"

ELIA KAZAN PRODUCTION DIRECTED BY CHARLES K. FELDMAN
from TENNESSEE WILLIAMS' Pulitzer Prize and Critics Award Play

IT STARS
VIVIEN LEIGH
AND
MARLON BRANDO

AND IS
THE MOST EXCITING WARNER BROS. PICTURE

first
Player's Show
in
Schwab Auditorium

"OUR TOWN"

Nov. 9 and 10
Tickets at Student Union

Your Favorite Perfumes and Colognes

are at
McLANAHAN'S

- Chanel
- Coty
- Dana's Tabu
- D'Orsay
- Elizabeth Arden
- Helena Rubinstein
- Houbigan't Chantilly
- Lucien Lelong
- Prince Matchabelli
- Richard Hudnut's R.S.V.P.
- White Shoulders
- Yardly

- Lanvin's Arpege and My Sin
- Fabrage's Tigris and Woodhue

"The most complete cosmetic counter in Centre County
..... complete as a large department store."

McLanahan's Drug Store

134 S. ALLEN

PHONE 6797

Our Goal... healthy, happy people!

Cost To You--$2

You Know Us As...

- P.S.C.A.
- Scholargram
- State Comm. Fund
- Salvation Army
- W.S.G.A. Xmas Fund
- Heart Fund
- March of Dimes
- W.S.S.F.
- Leo Houck Cancer Fund

We Need YOUR Help NOW
So That We Can Help You Later

GIVE ONCE to CAMPUS CHEST
SERVE ALL of us