

Reds Dare UN to Stop Talks; Repulsed in Korean Assault

MUNSAN, Korea, Thursday, Nov. 15—(AP)—A Moscow-trained Chinese truce negotiator Wednesday virtually dared the United Nations to break off the Korean armistice talks and try to change the front lines by force of arms—if they could.

The challenge came from Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang, Chinese Red sub-committee chairman and former military attache in Moscow. It prompted no immediate reply.

However, the seriousness of the badly snarled buffer zone issue after a five-hour five-minute sub-committee session led the UN Command to declare "no mutually acceptable solution was in sight."

The Red Peiping radio, in a truculent broadcast today, declared that if the talks break down "we are prepared" to smash United Nations attacks. It urged the Chinese people to tighten their belts and strengthen their campaign in Korea "until the enemy is willing to accept peace."

The broadcast singled out Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief UN negotiator for special attack, accusing him of trying to "wreck finally the whole armistice negotiations."

The fundamental issue was this: whether to stop the fighting now on land and sea and in the air or after agreement is reached on the exchange of prisoners and other agenda items.

Army Charges Reds With War Atrocities

PUSAN, Korea, Nov. 14—(AP)—The U.S. Eighth Army today charged the Reds, in acts of "barbarism unique even in the Communist world," have killed about 5500 Americans and 290 other Allied prisoners of war.

That grim record, compiled since the outbreak of the Korean war, did not include South Korean soldiers, for whom exact casualty figures are hard to obtain. But the army indicated approximately 11,000 of them were killed.

As for civilians, the army cited estimates of 250,000 Korean non-combatants slain in atrocities.

Stalin's Health Reported Poor

ROTTERDAM, Nov. 14—(AP)—The Nieuwe Rotterdamsche Courant today quoted "reliable Russian circles in Berlin" as reporting Joseph Stalin's health has deteriorated rapidly. It said Russian leaders were informed Stalin is suffering from a malady affecting the heart muscle and that doctors mentioned the possibility of an operation.

The paper's Berlin correspondent said Stalin left for the Crimea at the end of October.

SEOUL, Korea, Thursday, Nov. 15—(AP)—Allied observers reported Chinese Communist troops dragged away "hundreds of dead and wounded" Wednesday night after unsuccessful tank-infantry assaults on two Allied hill positions on the Western Korean front.

An Allied officer told AP correspondent Milo Farneti the Chinese ripped clothing off their own dead and Allied casualties. "It looks like they're running out of equipment and clothing," the officer said.

The Western Front turned quiet after U.N. troops beat back the sudden Red attacks west of Chorwon by midnight Tuesday. The Reds waited until darkness came again Wednesday to retrieve their casualties, apparently to escape Allied planes.

(In Sydney, Australia, Lt. Gen. Sir Horace Robertson, commander in chief of British Commonwealth forces in Japan and Korea until last week, predicted a winter of tough fighting lay ahead in Korea. He said the enemy had increased their number of artillery, mortars, rockets, tanks and aircraft, and apparently had an unlimited amount of ammunition.

Robertson said the war was beginning to resemble World War I action in France with a steady increase of artillery pounding from fixed positions. He pleaded for "more troops, more ammunition and more everything now.")

Thompson B, Kappas Post IM Victories

Thompson B and Kappa Kappa Gamma were victorious in last night's WRA IM basketball games.

The Thompson B sextet took the measure of the Chi Omega squad in a 29-21 game. Tied at halftime, the Thompson team staged a third quarter spurt that netted them a ten point lead and the game. For the winners, Amber Hassinger garnered 26 tallies. Ruth Rand, of the losers, netted a total of 15.

The Kappa Kappa Gamma team swamped Alpha Chi Omega 24-7. Honors for the winning squad went to Marilyn Porter with 11 points. In other games, Phi Mu forfeited to Simmons and Thompson C to Alpha Epsilon Phi.

Gamma Phi Beta captured their table tennis matches from Delta Gamma by taking a set of singles and one of doubles. Delta Delta Delta bowed to Delta Zeta as the latter also took a singles and a doubles. A strong Alpha Omicron Pi took both singles games and the doubles from Kappa Delta. Thompson D and McAllister II registered a double forfeit.

Warren Throws 'Hat in Ring'

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Nov. 14—(AP)—Governor Earl Warren of California today became the second avowed candidate for the 1952 Republican Presidential nomination.

The 1948 GOP nominee for Vice President said he would permit state party leaders, who last week urged him to run, to enter his name in the California primary. He will decide later about campaigning in other states.

Warren joined Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) as a declared Republican candidate.

Sen. Richard M. Nixon, (R-Calif) described Warren in Boston last night as the "strongest dark horse." Some think his best chance lies in the possibility of a deadlock between Taft and General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who has not announced his presidential intentions.

The 60-year-old Warren, California's first three-term governor, has made a career of public service. He has fought his campaign battles as a progressive Republican and has frankly gone after Democratic and independent votes in a state where Democrats outnumber Republicans three to two.

In 1946 he took advantage of the unique California cross filing law to win reelection as Governor by taking both major party nominations. Last year he defeated James Roosevelt for the governorship by more than 1,000,000 votes.

His only political defeat was as Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's running mate in 1948.

Stolen Evergreens

KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 14—(AP)—The boys and girls of the Ball Hill Methodist church Sunday school class for 8-to-12-year-olds saved their pennies, nickels and dimes for months to buy evergreens for the bare church yard.

Finally, last month, they had enough money to buy six trees. They were planted with due ceremony.

Last night, someone stole every tree.

Private Property

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 14—(AP)—Contractor Joseph J. Schultz today laid claim to part of a busy street intersection—and built a fence around it.

Traffic dodged around the barricade. Unimpressed with the fact it has been used for public traffic for 40 years, Schultz produced a deed showing land he bought extends into the intersection.

Modern 'Lazarus'

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 14—(AP)—Seven days after her body was taken to the morgue, Mrs. Theresa Butler, 60, sat up in a hospital today and ate her first meals.

Last Thursday, a doctor pronounced her dead. Today her family physician said she was in "good shape."

Truman to Open Files In Tax Fraud Probe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14—(AP)—Rep. King (D-Calif.) said today President Truman has agreed to open the tax fraud files of the Justice Department to a House subcommittee investigating the nation's tax collecting system.

King, who is directing the probe, indicated that the President also was willing to let the committee examine the Justice Department's personnel files.

King has said he wants to find out why a "high percentage" of alleged tax fraud cases which internal revenue agents had recommended for prosecution were "dropped at higher levels."

Members of the House ways and means subcommittee say that inability to get at Justice Department documents has blocked the inquiry for several weeks. The decision to take the case directly to the President was made after members called for a "show-down."

As King made his announcement, John B. Dunlap, head of the Internal Revenue Bureau, told a news conference that he had ordered a housecleaning of the bureau's alcohol tax unit. He said reports of "irregularities" would be investigated by outside agents—Secret Service officers and agents of the Bureau of Narcotics.

Dunlap also disclosed that he has recommended to the Treasury Department that the alcohol tax unit be stripped of its
