

Elections --

signed by three students who saw the act.
Carroll Chapman, elections committee chairman, said a decision on the charges would be made tonight when the ballots are counted.

Chapman stressed the fact that both parties must have a poster in the Old Main lobby bearing pictures of their candidates. He also said there will be heavy penalties inflicted for campaigning in the lobby.

50 Vote Penalty

In last year's elections a record 62 per cent of the freshmen and 44.6 per cent of the sophomores on campus voted. A total of 870 out of 1387 freshmen voted and 1224 out of a possible 2749 sophomores voted. Of the total eligible voters in both classes, 50.7 per cent voted.

Each State Party candidate was penalized 50 votes because of infractions of the elections code.

'Who's in the News' Deadline Is Tomorrow

Biographical forms for "Who's in the News at Penn State" should be mailed to 115 Carnegie Hall by tomorrow, Leonard Kolasinski, editor of the publication, announced yesterday.

The book, which will be six by nine inches, with an imitation leather cover, will be available around Jan. 4.

"Who's in the News," now in its sixth edition, was started by the late Arthur R. Warnock, former dean of men. It is published by Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity, and Theta Sigma Phi, national women's journalism honorary.

Helenic Hayride Off

The hayride, sponsored by the Helenic Society, scheduled for tomorrow night has been canceled because of weather conditions.

In place of the hayride, the society is sponsoring a dance at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the Grange playroom.

Contributions will be solicited at the dance.

Third 'Independent' Distributed Today

The third issue of the Independent will be distributed today in the dormitories and downtown, Moylan Mills, editor, announced.

Ray Victor, junior in arts and letters, has replaced Richard Mills as business manager.

Alvin Goodman will take the place of Robert Schooley as circulation manager. Schooley leaves for the service Dec. 1.

Featured in this issue of the paper is a profile on Edna Baylson, recently elected Leonides president. An article on results of the recent Eastern Regional National Independent Student Association convention in Huntington, W. Va., will also appear.

Barbara Wexelman, Tamsin Bloom, and Rose Gelia have been added to the circulation staff.

MI Group Initiates Twelve Members

Sigma Gamma Epsilon, mineral industries honorary, initiated 12 members Tuesday. Following the initiation ceremony, a banquet was held at the State College Hotel.

Dr. John DeNovo, assistant professor of history, spoke on "The Origins of American Interest in Middle Eastern Petroleum." Dr. Thomas Bates, faculty adviser to Sigma Gamma Epsilon, also addressed the group.

Promotion Agency

The Central Promotion Agency will not move into its permanent location until after Thanksgiving, Walter Sachs, chairman of the All-College Cabinet committee investigating CPA, announced yesterday.

Sachs said no space has yet been allotted for the agency. He also said no additional meetings would be held until after the Thanksgiving holidays.

Bid-Replies Go to Dean

The judicial committee is composed of five Panhellenic officers, two advisers, a representative from the Dean of Women's office, and a stray Greek. A stray Greek is a member of a national sorority not represented on campus.

Panhellenic council also stated that replies to bids from sororities must be taken to the Dean of Women's office from where they will be sent to the sorority.

3 Doctors on Duty For Emergencies

Three State College doctors went on duty in this area last night to take care of emergencies when a family doctor cannot be reached.

This was the result of the State College Medical Society's recent decision to speed up the emergency call system so that in cases of accidents, especially, a doctor may reach the scene more quickly.

When such an event occurs, a call may be made to the police office, 4971, giving the place of the accident and the name of the person making the call. A physician and an ambulance, if necessary, will be sent out promptly.

Dr. Clara B. Owens, Dr. William McFarland, and Dr. Richard Ishler are cooperating in the plan.

Regional Executive Group of NSA to Meet

The regional executive committee of the Pennsylvania Region of the United States National Student Association will meet Sunday afternoon in Harrisburg.

William Klisanin, NSA chairman at the College and PRUSNSA president, called the meeting to discuss a new regional policy.

Walter Sachs, director of the group's office of public information, will also represent the State College Regional Headquarters. On the agenda are a basic statement of policy, office of public information, December regional assembly, student government clinic, reorganization of regional programs, regional finances, and membership drives.

PSC to Hold Party At Center Stage

The Penn State Club will hold a theater party tomorrow night at Center Stage, Lewis Hoover, president, announced yesterday.

Half of the price of tickets for members will be paid by the club. Guests may be invited but their tickets will not be financed by the club, he added.

The meeting originally scheduled for Nov. 20 has been canceled because of Thanksgiving vacation. The next regular meeting will be held Dec. 9.

Simmons Musicales

The Simmons Musicales will be held at 7:30 tonight in Simmons Lounge.

Records to be played are "Violin Concerto in E-flat" by Antonio Vivaldi, "Piano Concerto No. 20 in D-minor" by Wolfgang Mozart, "Symphony No. 4 in E-minor" by Johannes Brahms, and "Suite Elizabethaine" by Jacques Ibert.
