

Syria's New Pro-Russian Reds Propose Gradual Withdrawal Premier Swiftly Arrested

DAMASCUS, Syria, Nov. 29—(P)—Syria's new Pro-Russian Premier and all his ministers were arrested today in a swift, bloodless military coup by Lt. Col. Adib Shishekly, a power behind the scenes here since 1949.

The Syrian strong man never gave Populist Marouf Dawalibi, advocate of closer Arabic-Russian ties, a chance to get set as successor to Pro-Western Premier Hassan El Hakeem, a backer of the projected Middle East defense command who resigned Nov. 10. Less than 24 hours after Dawalibi succeeded in forming a coalition cabinet with the backing of his Populists, Independents and the Moslem brotherhood, the soldiers struck.

In addition to the ministers, other populist leaders and independent members of Parliament supporting their policy were rounded up. Populist newspapers were reported suspended.

Radio Damascus announced the Army seizure of control "to safeguard the country's security." It broadcast a statement by Shishekly charging the Populist were seeking "to undermine the country's independence, break up the army and create a new throne in Syria."

Observers say Shishekly harbors no special bitterness against the West—as some Arabs do—and has little if any sympathy for the Eastern bloc.

Sen. Wherry Rep. Leader, Dies at 59

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—Senator Kenneth Spicer Wherry of Nebraska, one of the top Republicans in the Senate and a jolly, aggressive salesman of old line GOP Policy, died today at the age of 59.

Wherry, who had been floor leader for the Republicans since 1949, died of pneumonia. He had undergone an abdominal operation last month but lately had been reported recuperating.

Wherry became ill last night and was taken to the George Washington University Hospital this morning, suffering from chills and fever with respiratory complications. Death came at 12:45 p.m., EST.

Gov. Val Peterson, Republican Governor of Nebraska, said today he would not discuss appointment of a successor to Wherry until final respects have been paid him.

Red Build Up

U.S. FIFTH AIR FORCE HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Nov. 30—(P)—The Fifth Air Force today reported sighting the astonishing total of 7,765 Communist trucks last night in North Korea. This is about double the previous record.

The conclusion was inescapable—the Reds were swinging into a big buildup as action died to a whisper along the fighting front.

The World At a Glance

Korean War

SEOUL, Korea, Friday, Nov. 30—(P)—Allied big guns resumed firing Thursday at Communist positions on the Korean front following "clarification" of a directive to U.S. Eighth Army Troops, but infantry still kept mainly under wraps.

Gen. James Van Fleet, Commander of the Eighth Army, explained Wednesday's front line lull as the apparent result of "misinterpretation" of a basic directive he issued to his troops.

Thailand Coup

BANGKOK, Thailand, Nov. 29—(P)—A military junta tonight ousted Thailand's government in a bloodless coup and abolished the constitution.

Most of Bangkok appeared unaware of the coup that overthrew Premier Pibilsonggram. The Premier, who had been arguing with military forces against the move, reportedly will return to his job when a new government is established.

Enlistments Extended

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—The armed forces again have extended the period during which men can enlist in the services after taking pre-induction physical examinations for the draft.

The new deadline is Dec. 31. It had been Nov. 30.

More Advice

TACOMA, Nov. 29—(P)—Edgar N. Eisenhower, a brother of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, said today he hoped the General would not seek the presidential nomination on any ticket.

And he asserted he never had told anyone his brother would seek the Republican nomination.

MUNSAN, Korea, Friday, Nov. 30—(P)—A Red proposal for gradual withdrawal of foreign troops threatened today to throw the Korean armistice talks back where they were when they began last July 10.

The debate resumes at Panmunjom today at 11 a.m. (9 p.m. Thursday, EST.)

With the war in a state of some uncertainty since a provisional buffer zone was decided last Tuesday, early withdrawal of foreign troops has become the core of the Communist position. With the buffer zone set—provided a full armistice is reached by Dec. 27—the main delegations began discussion of the next item (No. 3): guarantee for security of troops after an armistice.
