KAT, Theta Phi Enter Finals

Kappa Alpha Theta and Theta Phi Alpha netted basketball wins that enabled them to enter playoffs for the IM title which begin tonight.

Getting off to a slow start, the Thetas trailed Alpha Gamma Delta to 11-7 at halftime. They narrowed the margin to 14-12 in the third period. In the opening seconds of the last period Shirley Holloway sunk a pushup to tie the game. Then the Thetas went on to win. Sandy Heckman and Holloway kept pouring in pointers while the Alpha Gamma Delta squad was held scoreless. This win gave the Thetas the League VII title.

The Theta Phi Alpha sextet netted the League VIII title with an easy victory over Sigma Delta Tau 31-14. Betty Coltellaro took scoring honors for the winners and the evening with a total of 13.

Tonight McAllister meets Leonides and Kappa Delta takes on Alpha Omicron Pi at 7 p.m. At 8 p.m. Simmons will meet Kappa Kappa Gamma while Kappa Alpha Theta plays Theta Theta Phi Alpha.

In table tennis, last night, defending champion, Kappa Kappa Gamma took Atherton East, and Thompson C eliminated McElwain. Tonight's matches see Sigma Delta Tau play Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Zeta meeting Alpha Omicron Pi at 6:30 p.m. At 7:15 Kappa Kappa Gamma and Thompson C, meet.

Nicoll Crowned Mil Ball Queen By Rip Engle

Attractive brown-eyed Katherine Nicoll, the finalist who was "flabbergasted" when notified of her selection, was crowned queen of the Military Ball Saturday night at Recreation Hall. Rip Engle, head football coach, presented the crown.

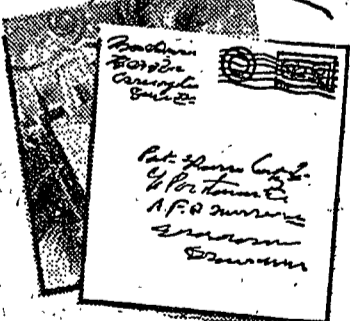

The fifth semester physical education major was selected from a crop of four other beauties, Joan Brown, Patricia Day, Joan Deeg, and Mary Oehlschlager.

Miss Nicoll, who hails from Bethlehem, wore a red strapless ballerina length gown. Robert Dennison was her escort. She succeeds Helen Costello, last year's queen.

The brunette received a silver crown engraved with the emblems of the Army, Navy, and Air Force. Each finalist was presented with a bouquet of roses and a rhinestone necklace, bracelet, and earring set.

The candidates were escorted to the bandstand by an honor guard from Pershing Rifles, Arnold Air Society, Scabbard and Blade, and the Quarterdeck Society. Cadet Col. Jack Enterline, Air ROTC, was master of ceremonies and introduced the finalists.

In the holiday mood...

For a holiday as bright as the balls on a Christmas tree, give her gifts from Mary Leitzinger.

Give her a glittering gift of jewelry from our sparkling collection.

You'll warm her heart if you warm her hands with our hand-knit, 100% wool gloves.

Gifts she'll live in all year round — nylon slips, gowns, panties, and hosiery.

Christmas treasure — she'll cherish kitten-soft cashmeres and nylon matching sweater sets.

'Tis the night after Christmas and all through the house she'll prance in her three-piece pajama set with its gay plaid duster.

She'll stay snug and dry under a smart shower stick or convenient folding umbrella.

A sugar-plum vision she'll be—in a full black silk velveteen skirt or a quilted skirt in bright Oriental colors.

Mary Leitzinger says "Merry Christmas" with the delightful holiday gift wrap. Choose the finest gifts in town and have them mailed to HER.
