

The Nittany Realm

By BOB VOSEBURG
Assistant Sports Editor

A quick glance at the new winter sports schedules recently released reveals that Penn Staters are going to be somewhat starved for home sports entertainment this season.

The old Saturday night "doubleheaders" which became so popular among students have dwindled to only two, a wrestling-boxing double go with Syracuse Feb. 16, and a boxing-basketball treat with Virginia and Pitt March 1.

Fans will, however, get a chance to witness two post-season attractions at Rec Hall. Penn State will play host to the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Championships Friday and Saturday, March 7 and 8, and tryouts for the U.S. Olympic gymnastics team will be held here April 25-26.

Only the gymnastics team will compete in more dual meets at home than away. The gymnasts have three home meets with North Carolina, Navy, and Syracuse, while traveling to Army and Temple, to Syracuse for the intercollegiate, and to Boulder, Col. for the nationals.

The boxing team has an abbreviated schedule, with home meets against Syracuse and Virginia, and away contests with Catholic U., Army, and Wisconsin. The national boxing tournament will be held this year in Madison, Wis., home of the Badgers.

The wrestling team will perform before the home folks four times, while taking to the road for five matches. At home the matmen will face Virginia, Pitt, Syracuse, and Cornell, and will travel to Lehigh, Maryland, Army, Navy, and Princeton. The intercollegiate will be held in Bethlehem with Lehigh the host, and the Nationals will be in Colorado.

The basketball team faces a rough 15-game road card, including the Steel Bowl attraction in Pittsburgh during the Christmas holidays. The cagers have an especially hazardous time ahead of them when they take to the road for six straight games beginning with Pitt at Pittsburgh Jan. 19 and ending Feb. 6 at Morgantown, W.Va. where they will meet the Mountaineers.

They have another rough trip in February when they trek to Kingston, R.I. to play Rhode Island State to begin a five away-game stand ending in Syracuse. The cagers longest home stand is a three-game one with contests scheduled for Jan. 5, 10, and 12 against Colgate, Syracuse, and Carnegie Tech.

Penn Staters do, however, have a big treat in store for next fall when the Lion football team will undertake a ten-game schedule including five home contests. The first three games, Sept. 20 and 27 and Oct. 4 against Temple, Purdue, and William & Mary are home games. The Lions also will meet Nebraska here Oct. 18 and Rutgers here Nov. 15. Away games will see them journey to West Virginia, Michigan State, Penn, Syracuse, and Pitt.

Bill McColl Selected 'Lineman of Year'

NEW YORK, Dec. 12—(AP)—Bill McColl, Stanford's 225-pound end, was named the lineman of the year today, in the Associated Press season-end poll of sportswriters and sportscasters.

McColl, picked on the A.P. All-America offensive team, played a superlative game all season in helping Stanford win the Pacific Coast Conference championship and the Rose Bowl spot against Illinois.

Big Bill from San Diego gained 17 votes of the 103 cast. The 21-year-old, six foot four inch wingman was termed the "greatest lineman I have ever seen" by his coach, Chuck Taylor

"Nice Fight, Dick!"

A HAPPY Dick Zucker (left), Phi Sigma Delta, congratulates Beta Theta Pi's Dick Cameron after he won a close decision in their 175 pound go in last night's IM boxing. Cameron was last year's 165 pound champion.

Ted Shattuck Ranks Eighth In Rushing

Penn State halfback Ted Shattuck finished eighth in the East in rushing offense according to statistics released by the Eastern College Athletic Association.

Shattuck gained 579 yards in 135 attempts in nine Lion football games.

Two Bucknell gridders finished one-two in the rushing statistics. Brad Meyers copped the crown with 1069 yards while his teammate Burt Talmage finished second with 1025.

The Lions, as a team, came out fifth in rushing offense and fourth in passing defense. In nine games, Coach Rip Engle's gridders rushed for 1867 yards, an average of 207.4 per game.

In pass defense, Penn State allowed 60 completions out of 130 attempts. Boston U., a Lion opponent, finished ahead of State in both departments.

Bucknell was first in rushing offense with 2909 yards gained in nine games for an average of 323.2 per game. Columbia was first in pass defense, allowing only 50 completions in 141 attempts for low average of 78 yards per contest.

INDIVIDUAL RUSHING OFFENSE
	G	Rushes	Yds.
Meyers, Bucknell	9	171	1069
Talmage, Bucknell	9	150	1025
Kastan, Boston U	10	133	886
Kasmaier, Princeton	9	149	861
Kryla, Lehigh	9	111	732
Massucco, Holy Cross	10	143	698
Varaitis, Penn	9	148	616
SHATTUCK, Penn State	9	135	579
Dubar, Lafayette	8	126	562
Luciani, West Virginia	10	105	523

TEAM RUSHING OFFENSE
	G	Yds.	Per Game
Bucknell	9	2909	323.2
Princeton	9	2604	289.3
Holy Cross	10	2766	276.6
Boston U.	10	2157	215.7
PENN STATE	9	1867	207.4

PASSING DEFENSE
	G	PA	PC	Yds. Game
Columbia	8	141	50	75.0
Lehigh	9	157	67	75.0
Boston U.	10	178	60	85.3
PENN STATE	9	130	60	88.8
Brown	9	119	60	89.6

Pitt Delays Naming Grid Coach Until Field House Dedication

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 12—(AP)—The University of Pittsburgh's athletic committee put off naming a new head football coach until after Saturday when dedication ceremonies of a $1,300,000 field house are planned.

The committee met briefly yesterday and received a report from Tom Hamilton, athletic director, that 50 job candidates have applied. Hamilton piloted the Pitt team this year as temporary coach after Len Casanova resigned.

The eight man committee recessed without commenting on the selection of a new coach. Hamilton, however, said:

"The attractiveness of the job seems to have increased since we defeated the University of Miami."

Pitt ended its season with a 21-7 victory over Miami in Florida, making it three straight wins after losing the first seven games of the season.

Hamilton declined comment on any individual's chance of landing the job. He said earlier preference will be shown Pitt graduates now in the coaching field.

Lehigh First Mat Rival

Lehigh, a traditional rival, will be the first team to oppose Penn State's Eastern championship wrestling team this season. These two mat rivals will come to grips in the Lion opener at Bethlehem Jan. 5.

SPORT SHIRTS

by

Van Heusen

NEWLY ARRIVED

Just In Time For Gift Giving

SMART PATTERNS

in the most wanted fabrics

$4⁹⁵

to $10⁰⁰

Hur's

MEN'S SHOP
Opposite Old Main

Open Every Evening
'til Christmas

SANTA SAYS:

"Don't wait 'til Christmas!"

At Griggs Pharmacy, the well known nationally advertised merchandise is featured in gifts as in other departments. But even if you have only a dollar or two to spend, you will find gifts bearing the names of famous manufacturers.

LADIES' TOILETRIES

- DuBarry
- Lentheric
- Shulton
- Countess Maritz
- Anjou
- Coty

MEN'S TOILETRIES

- Lentheric
- His
- Old Spice
- Courtley
- Seaforth
- Yardley

STATIONERY

- White & Wycoff
- Cape Shore

TOYS

- Right Time
- Rempel

FOUNTAIN PENS

- Parker
- Esterbrook

CANDY

- Whitman
- Old Dominion

Griggs Pharmacy

Opposite Old Main E. College Ave. State College