

Students Give Xmas Readings

Six oral interpretation students have been giving Christmas readings before local organizations this month as class projects.

The students are Phyllis Brenckman, Joadia Oswalt, Elizabeth Morgan, Margaret Troutman, Ann Jones, and Barbara Klopp.

The final Christmas reading will be given this Monday. The organizations who have heard the students include local churches, panhellenic groups, parent-teachers' association of Pine Grove Mills, and various campus groups.

William Hamilton, assistant professor of speech, announced the names of five students who will be soloists in the speech choir for the annual Christmas program in Chapel this weekend.

They are Martha Heckman, Richard Hartle, Madeleine Sharp, LaRue Fritz, Donald Carlson.

Training is everything. The peach was once a bitter almond; cauliflower is nothing but cabbage with a college education.—Mark Twain.

House--

"The conflicting statements indicate that perjury was committed here," he said.

Committee chairman James S. Berger (R-Potter) declined comment when asked if perjury prosecutions were being considered by the committee. He said the committee's report on the probe will likely be made to the Senate next week.

News, Views Salesmen To Meet Tonight

All circulation candidates for News and Views, Home Economics publication, who still have unsold copies are asked to report to 109 Home Economics Building at 6:30 tonight.

Students in home economics and hotel administration may pick up their copies free in the lobby of the Home Economics Building. The magazine is available to students in other curricula at ten cents a copy.

There is nothing so stupid as an educated man, if you get off the thing that he was educated in—Will Rogers.

Dance Club--

Among the more difficult dances are the Schuhplattler, a series of Bavarian dances done by groups for show; the Korabrushka, a Russian peddler dance; and the Mietchi Putz Di, a Swiss dance which means "Little Girl Go Wash Your Face."

The Mietchi Putz Di was performed by the club at the Folk Dance Festival last year. Plans are being made for another dance at this year's festival.

Don't get the idea that dancing is restricted to foreign folk dances though. Polka and square dance lovers can get their fill at any of the meetings.

Simmons Will Entertain Dinner Guests Tonight

Mrs. Vera Furst, head hostess of Simmons Hall, yesterday announced that Dr. and Mrs. Hummel Fishburn, head of the Music department, and Katherine Schmidt, a foreign German student sent by the American Field Service, will be entertained by the residents of Simmons Hall at dinner tonight.

Miss Schmidt is a major in commercial studies and language. She is the guest of Charles Long.

Simmons Musicale To Be Held Tonight

The Simmons Musicale will be held at 7:30 tonight in the Simmons Hall lounge.

Selections to be played are Suite No. 3 (Bach), Symphony No. 3 "Eroica" (Beethoven), Double Concerto for Violin and Cello (Brahms), and Symphony No. 102 (Haydn).

Students and faculty are invited.

West Dorm Chorus To Go Caroling Tonight

The West Dorm mixed chorus will present the second in the series of Christmas choral singing at 9 tonight at College avenue and S. Allen street.

The program, sponsored by the Dean of Men's office, will last half an hour. The chorus, under the direction of Darrell Rishel, will be accompanied by a brass quartet.

The ugliest of trades have their moments of pleasure. Now, if I were a grave-digger, or even a hangman, there are some people I could work for with a great deal of enjoyment—Douglas Jerrold.

Blood Drive --

(Continued from page one) formed Church, drive leaders said. The unit will be open from 9:30 to 3:30 p.m.

C. W. Stoddart, chairman of the State College Red Cross chapter, reported yesterday he had received a letter from the director of the Johnstown Red Cross blood chapter, indicating that of the 649 pints of blood secured here in last month's blood drive, 601 pints were converted to plasmas for use in Korea and other places and 48 pints were shipped to Korea as whole blood.
