

Leonides Gains Basketball Title

Leonides claimed the 1951 IM basketball title when they defeated Simmons 33-22 last night. Kappa Kappa Gamma, last year's table tennis champions, were dethroned by Alpha Xi Delta.

Although the score was 33-22 in favor of Leonides, the game was well played and a close contest. A fourth period scoring spurt of 11 tallies, the most scored in any period, cinched the victory. The lead passed hands several times during the game. Simmons had the lead, 9-6 at the end of the first period.

With Betty Gleim and Ann Miller setting the pace, Leonides tied the score at 14 all at half time. Nancy Jarden put Simmons ahead soon after time was resumed. Gleim and Miller then put Leonides back in lead 22-20 at end of the third period. Leonides kept the lead, connecting for 11 tallies while holding Simmons to a single field goal, and took a 33-22 game.

Long shots from outside the foul area were the winning goals. Both squads set up tight zone defense so that the forwards couldn't work the ball in. High scorer was Ann Miller with 18 counters. Betty Gleim followed with 13. Mimi Burritt, of the losers, netted a total of 12.

Leonides had, besides Miller and Gleim, Molly Mallard and Dottie Wain at the forward positions. Jane Lerew, Bobbie Bleiler, and Louise Waltz were guards. Louise Shepherd and Nancy Barclay combined with Burritt and Jarden to fill the Simmons forward positions. Guards were Nancy Harris, Nancy Roess, and Nancy Patterson.

Alpha Xi Delta took two doubles and four singles to take the ping pong crown from the Kappas. Pat Lively, Barbara Rice, Ann Broomall, and Jane Tritt played for the Alpha Xis. Joyce Buchanan, Pete Caraway, Fran Black, and Marilyn Buzby were the Kappa players.

Thompson took their second swimming meet with 43 points. McAllister took second place with 30. Delta Delta Delta came in third with 29. Gamma Phi Beta was fourth and Town took fifth place.

United Fellowship Party To Entertain Children

The United Student Fellowship of the Faith Reformed Church will hold a party at 7:30 tonight to decorate its Christmas tree and to make Christmas ornaments. Caroling and a visit by Santa Claus will be included in the program. Hot chocolate and doughnuts will be served as refreshments.

THE PLANE FACTS...

The plane facts of your Christmas shopping are that you have nine days to do your Christmas shopping in State College, but only 4 hectic days (Dec. 20-24); if you carry your shopping worries home with you... Choose from a large, new variety of gifts (not leftovers which you'll find when you arrive home). So this Christmas—Shop State College.

Sponsored by Courtesy of THE DAILY COLLEGIAN

Santa to Attend Holiday Party Given by WRA

Santa Claus will visit 76 second and third graders from three rural schools at the Women's Recreation Association's annual Christmas party at 2 p.m. today in White Hall.

Harold White Jr., associate professor of recreation, will act as Santa. He will distribute gifts purchased by WRA to each child.

Two movies, "Mickey Mouse Gives a Party" and "The Bear Cub," will be shown. Games will be played under the direction of members of the Physical Education 125 class, taught by Freda Phillips, instructor in physical education.

Barbara Wallace will direct the singing of Christmas carols. June Jarman will enact "Rudolf, the Red-Nosed Reindeer." Loretta McCarty and Carolyn Zimmerman will present a skit entitled "Twin-kle."

Ice cream, cookies, candy canes, and pop corn will be served around the Christmas tree in the lounge.

Plans for the party were made by the WRA social committee, headed by Meridith Williamson. Other members are Nancy Beech, Gwen Griffith, Rita Keeney, Marilyn Porter, Loisita Robinson, and Mary Transue.

Newman Club to Carol

Newman Club, Catholic student organization, will go Christmas caroling following its meeting Sunday night. The meeting will take place at 2 p.m. at the Elks Club.

Council Plans Dances, Dinner

The West Dorm Council's social calendar lists dances, an exchange dinner, and caroling for this weekend.

The Campusers will play for the first dance which will be held from 7 to 10 tonight in the main lounge.

Two record dances will take place from 2 to 5 p.m. tomorrow and from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday. They also will be held in the main lounge.

Parties in all the men's dormitories in the West Dorm area will highlight Saturday night's activity.

The men and the freshman coeds will attend exchange dinners at noon Sunday. That afternoon Darrell Rishel will direct the West Dorm chorus at 4:30 p.m. in the main lounge.

A mass carol sing around the campus and in town will climax the weekend. The sing will begin at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

"An optimist sees an opportunity in every calamity; a pessimist sees a calamity in every opportunity."—Anonymous

FOR EVERYONE

- Martex Towel Sets — $2.95—$9.95
- Children's Printed Towels Sets—$1.69 and $1.95
- Bridge, Luncheon, Dinner Sets—$2.95—$10.95

- Munsingwear Gowns and Pajamas $2.95—$9.95
- Phoenix Hosiery ... $1.35—$1.75
- Superb Nylon Gloves $2.95
- Plastic and Cotton Aprons $.89—$2.95

- Costume Jewelry including Heraldic $1.00—$1.95
- Bates and Chenille Bedspreads ... $6.95, $10.95

"Don't wait til Christmas!"

EGOLF'S

"Fashion in Fabrics"

Co-Edits

Phi Epsilon Pi

Samuel Levin has been elected president of Phi Epsilon Pi.

Phi Sigma Sigma

Phi Sigma Sigma entertained Zeta Beta Tau in the recreation room of Simmons Hall at a musicale and card party. Newly-elected officers of the sorority are Judith Lippman, archon; Ruth Abt, vice archon; Barbara Felt, bursar; Elsa Pasline, scribe; Charlotte Selector, tribune; Audrey Lipsky, social chairman; and Michelle Weiller, rush chairman.

Sigma Chi

John Stozenski has been re-elected president of Sigma Chi. Other officers are Barr Asplundh, vice president; Stephen Heine, anator; Walter Redel, tribune; and George Alburger, historian.

Engagements

Asplundh-Jackson

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Lois Jackson of Bryn Athyn to Barr Asplundh, son of Mrs. Griffith Asplundh, also of Bryn Athyn.

Mr. Asplundh is a senior in agricultural economics, and is vice president of Sigma Chi. He is a member of the varsity lacrosse team.

The marriage will take place June 14.

Millstream --

(Continued from page four)

for broadcasting by the department.

It is interesting to note that Pivot, campus poetry magazine, will probably dedicate its spring issue to Tom Hepler. Hepler was the gifted member of the Pivot staff who took his life a week ago.

Three name bands currently lead in the Senior Ball sweepstakes. Guy Lombardo, Ralph Flanagan, and Sammy Kaye are all very bright possibilities to play at the dance which will climax Spring Week festivities next semester.

Former Penn State student Marty Baum has recently received very fine critical notices from New York critics for his performance in third lead role in John Van Druten's latest play, "I Am a Camera." Baum goes under the stage name of Martin Brooks. He has played in two other Broadway plays and received good reviews in each. They were "Burning Bright" and "An Enemy of the People," both produced last year.

"To waken interest and kindle enthusiasm is the sure way to awaken interest and teach successfully."—Edwards

LAST MINUTE GIFT IDEAS:

- Give her a glittering piece of jewelry—earrings, pins, necklaces, bracelets, $1.00 and up
- Perfume that flatters her—Faberre's Tigress and Woodhues, White Shoulders, My Sin, Chanel, others. $3.00 and up
- They can use—STATIONERY—for her: Eaton's beautiful colors. For him: Eaton's Sportsman. $1.00 and up
- Thrill him (or her) with a fine camera made by Kodak, Ansco, & Beacon.
- Toys for the kids back home—dolls, games, puzzles, trucks. From 98c to $2.59
- A pipe will increase his smoking pleasure. Yellow Bowl from $1.00 to $2.00; Kay woodie $3.50 and up.
- He'll like his favorite Seaforth shaving lotion, after-shave, Talc, in Christmas sets. $1.50 and up
- We'll Christmas gift wrap and mail all your gifts for you.
- For your Christmas shopping convenience, we're open evenings until 10:30.

MCLANAHAN'S