

Sigma Nu Takes Lead In IM Boxing Tourney

By GEORGE BAIREY

Sigma Nu's boxers yesterday snapped their tie with defending fraternity co-champion, Delta Upsilon, by gaining two wins, one decision and one forfeit, to go two up on the DU's going into tonight's final round. The finals will start at 8:30 in Rec Hall.

Delta Upsilon, however, with four finalists, is in a better position to cop the IM crown than is Sigma Nu, who has only two men going into tonight's finals.

Moore, Engle Win

Independents James Miller and John Dillon moved up to the finals via forfeits. Miller advanced at the expense of Charles Russo in the 145-pound division, while Dillon won by forfeit over Gary Seybert in the 155-pound bracket.

Lou Riggs, Sigma Chi, injured his arm in winning his quarter-final match, and was forced to withdraw in yesterday's 175-pound go with Sigma Nu's John Moore. In the 135-pound class, Stan Engle, Sigma Nu, ousted Sam Butler, Alpha Gamma Rho, with a split-verdict.

128-Pounders

Gil Beinhocker, Pi Lambda Phi, won his place in the 121-pound fraternity finals by decisioning Fred Fieni, Theta Chi. Beinhocker put his reach advantage to good use in opening up the smaller Fieni.

George Freistak, Theta Kappa Phi, ousted Delta Tau Delta's Jim Guerdon in the lone 128-pound bout. Freistak took sharp lefts from his smaller opponent throughout the fight in order to score with his big guns for the verdict.

Heavyweight action found Earl Hower, Phi Delta Theta, eliminating Harry Carroll, Phi Sigma Kappa, in the semi-finals. Hower, downed temporarily in the final frame, kept a long left jab continuously scoring in his three round decision.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Beta Theta Pi each advanced a man into the finals in yesterday's bouts. Bob Myers, SAE, handed out more leather than he took in his wild 155-pound fight with John Davison, Theta Xi. Myers got the three-round nod. Beta Bruce Wagner took a split decision from Fred Sprenkle, Delta Tau Delta, in their 145-pound match. Wagner, always on the attack, took hard uppercuts to get inside of his larger opponent, but copped the split decision on the merits of his infighting.
