

College NSA Head to Chair Convention

William Klisanin, president of the Pennsylvania Region of the United States National Student Association, and chairman of the College's NSA, will preside at the NSA regional assembly today through Sunday at the University of Pennsylvania.

Five other students from the College will attend the Philadelphia assembly. Walter Sachs, regional director of public relations, will handle public relations for the assembly.

David Mutchler, Tribunal chairman, will discuss disciplinary action. John Laubach, president of the Association of Independent Men, will attend the educational affairs workshop. Arthur Rosfeld, Blue Key president, and Harry Cover, All-College vice-president, will attend the student government workshop.

Klisanin will also present the regional progress report and conduct the plenary sessions.

Such student affairs as campus chest, student bill of rights, and international affairs are topics for other work shops.

Home Ec National Society Initiates 15

Four men and 11 women have been initiated into Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society.

Prior to this year no men had been initiated into the Penn State chapter.

Those initiated were Mary Jane Dean, Edward Erotas, Dorothy Fabian, Jane Frutiger, Ruth Horn, Pearl Kane, Joan Kanyuck, Barbara Park Kinnan, Adam Krafczek, Virginia Moore, Mary Pierotti, Robert Schultz, Marjorie Telford, John Walker, and JoAnne White.

Requirements for membership in the society are a junior or senior status in the School of Home Economics, high scholarship during college course, and promise of leadership and future achievement.

Members are selected from the upper one-fourth of the senior class and upper one-fifth of the junior class.

(Continued from page one) campus on several occasions, said he tried to contact the President to show him some of the materials. Manchester said he couldn't get an interview. However, M. Josephine Groesbeck, President Eisenhower's secretary, who is a member of Nittany Post 245, reminded Manchester that he had been admitted to the President's office on one occasion and did talk with President Eisenhower. She told Manchester that he would have been able to see the President at any time if he had returned to the office.

Manchester then said that he did have the talk but that he was on business of another nature.

Intercollegiate Fruit Judging To Be Here

The Intercollegiate Fruit Judging League's annual competition will be held tomorrow morning in 10 Plant Industries, J. L. Mecartney, coach of the College team, said.

In the contests, each student judges 20 classes of apples, with three plates of five apples in each class, Mr. Mecartney said.

Mr. Mecartney said that the College is the defending champion in the league. He added that Rutgers and the University of West Virginia are entering teams this year.

Representing the College in the competition are Aden Francis, Harold Garretson, and Lowell Lewis. James Pitzer is alternate. The College team has arranged a dinner tonight at the Eutaw House and a tour of the College farms and campus for the visitors.

Ski Club to Hold Christmas Party

The Penns' Valley Ski Club will hold its first annual Christmas party Sunday evening at the Ski Club Lodge.

Gerhardt Eckleman, president, said that due to the lack of space the party is for members only. Everyone planning to attend is requested to bring a novelty gift not exceeding twenty-five cents. Santa Claus will be on hand to distribute the gifts.

All those desiring to attend should contact Ruth McGrew at extension 1099 for transportation arrangements.

Phi SK, Kappa Delta

Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity and Kappa Delta sorority will entertain 22 youngsters, ranging from four to 12 years, at the fraternity house Saturday afternoon.

The annual affair will feature Santa Claus, refreshments, and presents for underprivileged children of Woodycrest.

The Interfraternity Council is providing food baskets for many needy families in State College and vicinity.

2 Fellowships Now Available

Two Hamilton-Standard Fellowships, each worth $1200 for a ten-month academic year, are now available to qualified students in electrical and mechanical engineering.

Applicants must be holders of B.S. degrees or in their last semester of work for that degree, with 1.5 averages.

The winners of the fellowship may study for either an M.S. or Ph.D. degree, and will be expected to accept employment with the Hamilton-Standard Co. for not less than one year after the completion of studies.

They will be exempted from payment of incidental fee, general fixed fee, and out-of-state tuition fee.

Applications must be submitted before Jan. 4. The fellowships become effective Feb. 1. For applications students may see E. B. Staveland, assistant dean of the engineering school, in 203 Main Engineering Building.

German Xmas Plans Made

Plans are nearly complete for the 22nd annual German Christmas program to be held at 8 p.m. Monday in Schwab Auditorium.

The program was started in 1930 by George J. Wurfl, professor of German, for students in the German department. Wurfl will lead the program and will read the Christmas story from the Bible in German.

George E. Ceiga, College organist, will play the prelude and postlude. Traditional carols will be sung by the audience.

Soloists will be Margaret Lowenfeld and Elizabeth Lessen, accompanied by Joseph Rosenthal at the piano. A viola obligato will be played by Barbara Thomas.

Council to Give Benefit Dance

The Town Council will sponsor a "Can Can" dance from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight tomorrow in Recreation Hall. The dance is a benefit affair for the Center County Home for the Aged. Admission will be two cans of food per couple.

Henry Pitt, social chairman for the council, is in charge of the dance, and Robert Campbell and his orchestra will provide the entertainment. The dance is open to the public.
