

Greeks to Hold Holiday Dances

Corresponding with the outside weather, "Snowbound" will be the theme of the Christmas pledge dance of Alpha Xi Delta and Tau Kappa Epsilon. Jack Huber's orchestra will furnish music for the dancing from 9 to midnight. The dance will be open.

Candy canes will decorate the tree at Omega Psi Phi, where the Christmas party will begin at 8:30 and last until midnight. Entertainment has been planned for 11. Decorations and carolling will follow the Christmas theme.

Phi Kappa Sigma's annual Christmas pledge dance will begin at 9. The Musicians will play for the open formal dance, which will be preceded by a dinner.

The winter theme of Phi Kappa Tau's formal pledge dance will be carried out in the decorations,

Newman Club to Hold Formal Initiations

Newman Club, Catholic student organization, will hold formal initiation for new members at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Phi Kappa fraternity.

A business meeting will be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 317 Willard Hall. After the meeting, the members will go caroling.

which will include an igloo in the game room. The formal candlelight dinner which precedes the dance will be closed, but the party will be open after 10.

Theta Phi Alpha and Theta Chi will hold a joint Christmas formal, with Jim Erb's orchestra supplying the music. Both groups will have separate dinners before the dance. Pine boughs and other holiday decorations will add to the atmosphere. The party, from 9 to midnight, is open.

Schedule Listed For Dorm Dinner

Residents of the West Dorm area will attend an exchange dinner at noon tomorrow.

Women having meal tickets numbered from one to 162 inclusive will eat in the north dining hall while those having numbers 163 to 325 will dine in Hamilton or the south dining hall. All other women will eat in the east hall or Thompson.

Men with tickets from 701 to 919 inclusive and 1401 to 1619 will also go to the east hall or Thompson dining hall. All others will have meals in their regular dining halls.

Nominations for new officers will be made at a meeting of the Agricultural Economics Club at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Alpha Zeta fraternity.

Co-Edits

Delta Delta Delta

Delta Delta Delta entertained Beta Theta Pi Thursday night in the recreation room of McElwain Hall. The program included skits and dancing. Refreshments were served.

Gamma Phi Beta

The pledges of Gamma Phi Beta entertained the actives at the sorority's annual Christmas party Thursday night. A skit was presented, followed by group singing and refreshments.

Last night the big sisters entertained their little sisters at a dinner in the suite.

Sigma Phi Alpha

Sigma Phi Alpha held its annual Christmas banquet Thursday night at the fraternity house. Advisers and alumni, including soccer coach Bill Jeffrey, were guests.

Entertainment included Christmas carols and movies on basketball and football.

Philotes, Waiters Hold Joint Party

Philotes, independent women's social organization, held a joint Christmas party last night with Simmons Men's Club, a group composed of waiters from the dormitory.

The party, held in Simmons recreation lounge, was a mixer-dance affair, with over 25 couples attending. Entertainment was provided by both groups.

The combined Christmas project of Philotes and Simmons Men's Club is the contribution of a Christmas food basket and gifts to a needy family in the vicinity of State College.

Skiing Instruction

Women's Recreation Association skiing instruction for beginners will be given Monday and Tuesday from 4 to 5 p.m. on Holmes Field.

At Christmas time we are all more conscious of the power of Christ to transform lives. There are still a few Scrooges around who discount as "humbug" only that which has commercial value. We are beginning to learn that ultimately commercial values rest on faith, vision, integrity, the meeting of human needs. The churches stand for these. You are a better person when you share in their work and worship.
