

Engagements

Schott-Geibel

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Geibel of Butler have announced the engagement of their daughter, Anne, to William Schott of Wilkesburg.

Miss Geibel is a senior majoring in elementary education.

Mr. Schott, a member of Sigma Phi Sigma, majored in advertising and was graduated from the College in June. He is now in the U.S. Army and is stationed at Fort Riley, Kan.

Gabel-Ketcham

Mrs. Kathryn Ketcham of Germantown has announced the engagement of her daughter, Mary Ann, to John Gabel, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Saylor Gabel of Erlin.

Miss Ketcham is a junior in home economics.

Mr. Gabel is a junior majoring in industrial engineering, and is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Swimmer-Bruck

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bruck of Scranton have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to Harry Swimmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Swimmer of Chester.

Miss Bruck is a senior in the School of Liberal Arts, majoring in sociology.

Mr. Swimmer was graduated from the College last June, with a major in commerce and finance. A member of Phi Epsilon Pi, he is now associated with the Equitable Life Assurance Society in Philadelphia.

A June wedding is planned.

Goldstone-Berkowitz

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Berkowitz of Ellwood City have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sylvia, to Myron Goldstone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Goldstone of Sharon.

Miss Berkowitz is a sophomore in business education.

Mr. Goldstone attended the College and is at present employed by the Goldstone Furniture Co. at Sharon. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Mu.

The couple is planning a spring wedding, and will reside in Sharon.

Smith Schedules Players Tryouts

Tryouts for Players' March production of "You Can't Take It With You" are scheduled for 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow and Thursday in the Old Main Little Theatre.

Students who have not appeared in Players' shows are especially asked by Director Warren Smith to try out for the comedy which will be staged in Schwab Auditorium.

Persons may sign up either in Smith's office opposite the Schwab Auditorium Green Room or in the Green Room.

SAM to See Movies

The Student Chapter of the Society for the Advancement of Management will show two movies, "Golden Gate Bridge" and "Shipways," during its monthly meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in 107 Main Engineering. The meeting is open to the public.

Kondourajian-Gabriel

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gabriel of Scranton have announced the engagement of their daughter, Alice, to Harry Kondourajian of Philadelphia.

Miss Gabriel is a second semester freshman in home economics.

Mr. Kondourajian was graduated from the College last June. A member of Phi Kappa Tau, he was a member of the varsity debate team and served as All-College vice president. He is now attending the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Style-Zislin

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zislin of Philadelphia have announced the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte, to Jay Style, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Style, also of Philadelphia.

Miss Zislin is a senior in zoology and entomology.

Mr. Style was graduated from the College in 1950, and is now attending the Philadelphia College of Osteopathy. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Mu.

Smith-Ward

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ward of Bellefonte have announced the engagement of their daughter, Melissa, to Ens. James Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Smith of State College.

Miss Ward is a senior in music education, and a member of Alpha Omicron Pi.

A '50 graduate, Erisign Smith was a member of Beta Theta Pi.

McCullough-Locke

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Locke, of Pittsburgh, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Clover, to Howard McCullough, also of Pittsburgh.

Miss Locke is a secretary for the United Mercantile Co. Mr. McCullough is a senior in mechanical engineering.

History Prof Has Articles Published

Dr. Robert K. Murray, history instructor, is the author of an article, "Communism and the Great Steel Strike of 1919," which appeared last month in the Mississippi Valley Historical Review.

The other works by Dr. Murray have recently been published by the American National Red Cross' press in Washington, D.C.

They are a monograph, "American Public Opinion on the American National Red Cross, 1881-1948," and a booklet, "The History of Red Cross Home Service, 1916-1947."

Belles Lettres Club

The Belles Lettres Club will not meet tonight as scheduled. It will meet at 7 p.m. Tuesday in Atherton Hall.

"Your" PENN STATE RING

You buy only 1, get the best at Balfour's ("A" Store)

Co-Edits

Alpha Epsilon Phi

New officers of Alpha Epsilon Phi are Arlene Rifkees, dean; Nancy Stein, sub-dean; Arlene Teitelbaum, treasurer; Sylvia Silver, assistant treasurer; Doreen Jackson, registrar; Joan Weiss, scribe; and Nancy Gordon, rush chairman.

A party was held recently for the coeds in the wing of the building in which the Alpha Epsilon Phi suite is located. Entertainment was presented and refreshments were served.

Alpha Chi Sigma

Recently-elected officers of Alpha Chi Sigma are Edward Walden, president; Phillip Armstrong, vice president; John Juppenlatz, secretary; John Goettel, treasurer; Millard Rehburg, social chairman; Donald Lutz, professional chairman; John Knox, caterer; David Milenius, historian; and Millard Rehburg, David Fix, and Samuel Engle, executive board.

Phi Sigma Sigma

Phi Sigma Sigma held its annual Sapphire Ball Saturday night at the Nittany Lion Inn. A dinner was served for actives and alumnae. Following the dinner, Jack Huber's orchestra played for the semi-formal dance, which honored the sorority's new initiates.

Phi Sigma Delta

Phi Sigma Delta entertained Alpha Epsilon Phi at a brunch party Sunday noon. Entertainment included group singing.

Alpha Gamma Delta

Alpha Gamma Delta initiated eight pledges at a ceremony Sunday morning. A breakfast was served following the initiation.

Those initiated were Mary Bingaman, Susan Holtzinger, Kathryn Lloyd, Beverly Morgan, Carolyn Peterson, Anne Rebholz, Jane Shettel, and Joan Marie Sparta.

Newman Club to Meet

Newman Club will hold its regular business meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in 217 Willard Hall.

Panhel to Release New Rushing Code After Workshop

The women's rushing code for next semester will be released Saturday after a Panhellenic Council workshop, according to Marilyn Levitt, council president. Rush chairmen, sorority presidents, and sorority alumnae advisors will attend the workshop, which will be held from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday in Simmons lounge.

A tentative code has been drawn up by Addell Owen, Panhel rush chairman; Marian Whiteley, assistant rush chairman; and Patricia Acosta, Emily Knobloch, June Leighty, Sally Lyddon, and Michelle Weiller, members of the rushing committee.

Council members will have an opportunity to amend the code before its final adoption. Other pertinent sorority problems will be discussed.

Sally Diehl and Nancy Queer are co-chairmen of the workshop.

Basketball Tourney To Open Tonight

Junior class women will begin defending their interclass basketball crown when they meet the freshman sextet at 7 tonight in White Hall.

The sophomore and senior squads will clash at 8 in the other opener of the Women's Recreation Association tournament.

The schedule will continue throughout this week with a winner probably being decided Thursday night. The Army-Navy teams will swing into action next Tuesday.

Senior Women to Meet

Women graduating in January will meet at 6:30 p.m. next Tuesday in Grange lounge to hear information concerning commencement.

Capt. Ruth Reenstjerna, Women's Army Corps recruiting officer, will also speak at the coffee hour.

Marriages

Leonard-Swartz

The marriage of Mary Swartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swartz, of State College, to Arnold Leonard, son of Mrs. Dorothy Leonard of Scranton, took place Dec. 29 at St. Paul's Methodist Church in State College.

Mrs. Victor Henri of Boston, Mass., was matron of honor. Polly Crouch of Hoboken, N.J., and Helen Haugh of State College were bridesmaids.

Harold Stetson of Bristol served as best man. A reception was held at the Nittany Lion Inn following the ceremony.

Mrs. Leonard is a senior majoring in science. Mr. Leonard, a graduate of the College in 1948, recently returned from Brazil, where he was engaged in exploratory work. The couple is residing at 133 S. Gill street.

Fencing Club

To Elect Officers

The Fencing Club will elect officers at 7 tonight in the Beaver Field water tower.

Following the elections, there will be fencing. The club will meet regularly every Tuesday and Thursday. Peter Raidy, president, requests that members bring their own towels and soap.

Howe to Speak

Herbert E. Howe, research metallurgist for the Central Research Laboratory, American Smelting and Refining Co., will talk on the subject of the economics, sources, recovery, properties and uses of lead at 8 tonight in the Mineral Industries Art Gallery.

TROUSERS
cleaned and pressed
3 pair for $1.29
LAUNDERETTE

January Clearance

Now's the time to replenish your college wardrobe. Dip into your Christmas gift money and drop into Mary Leitzinger's. You'll find the latest fashions at give-away prices in this annual January Clearance Sale. Supplies are limited and time is short, so come in today.

Small group of date and day-time dresses at wonderfully low prices. In rayon, wool jersey, and corduroy.

Soft and warm sweaters of fine Botany wool. Slip-on and cardigan styles.

A New Year gift... skirts like this at a price like this! Wool, taffeta, and corduroy skirts in full circle or straight styles.

mary leitzinger

JANUARY CLEARANCE SALE

SHOES

Nationally advertised quality brands. Were $5.95 to $17.95. Now only $2.85 to $11.85. Not all colors and styles in all sizes.

HANDBAGS

Your choice of suedes, calfs, and reptiles at savings up to 50%.

NYLONS

Famous make hosiery in all sizes, colors and gauges, at 50% off.

Simon's
109 S. ALLEN