CINCINNATI, Jan. 7—(P)—The National Collegiate Athletic Association, under fire for its inability to curb excesses in college athletics, will try to formulate a new "sanity code" this week to replace the one which was junked a year ago.

Working in close harmony with one group which has criticized the NCAA sharply, the committee of college presidents representing the National Council on Education, the NCAA council will offer legislation which, if accepted, will give the organization board regulatory powers.

General Principles

"We will have a sanity code, but implementation and enforcement will be left to the member institutions and conferences," said Hugh C. Willett, NCAA president, in outlining the proposed legislation at a news conference today.

"It will be largely a statement of general principles and we are confident that the various conferences will set up detailed regulations. For instance, one amendment calls for observance of sound academic standards. It isn't possible to establish nation-wide rules specifying certain standards because conditions vary so greatly in different places. But each institution or conference can establish its own rules.

Committee Will Report

"We think we have potent means of enforcement brewing," Willett added.

Willett also revealed that President John Hannah of Michigan State, chairman of the presidents' committee, and Dr. Arthur Adams, NCE president and ex-officio member of the committee, will attend a joint meeting of the NCAA council and executive committee Thursday to report on their efforts to solve the problems of athletics. Sheldon Otis of Wayne University will give a report for the National Student Association at the same meeting.

downs to lead 6-2 in the third period, but an attempted reverse misfired and Comly pushed Illingworth into a near fall. Lynn escaped and took Comly down seconds before the final buzzer.

In his first Nittany mat appearance frosh Bob Homan bested Tom Tooker 4-0 in the 123 pound bracket. In the second period Homan reversed Tooker and increased his win margin with four minutes of advantage time.

Larry Fornicola, State 137 pound freshman, put up a tremendous struggle to prevent three third period pinning attempts by Ken Faust and managed to hold on for a 2-2 draw.

In being the only loser, 5-4, Doug Frey wrestled well but met a rugged foe in Ed Mahoney.

New Mat Coach

One of Penn State's all-time greats, Charley Ridenour, is the new wrestling coach at the University of Pennsylvania. Ridenour, a veteran, competed prior to World War II.

Kansas Again Tops Nation's Cage Teams

NEW YORK, Jan. 7—(P)—For the second straight week, unbeaten Kansas tops the nation's college basketball teams in the Associated Press poll of sports writers and sportscasters.

Settling down to its regular schedule after winning the Big Seven tournament over the holidays, Kansas thumped Oklahoma for its 11th consecutive victory.

Kansas drew 38 firsts on the 102 ballots that produced a shuffling but no upheaval in the first ten places.

Illinois, racing past Minnesota to make its record 8-0, clung to second place with 21 firsts. In point score, based on ten for first, nine for second and so on, Kansas led Illinois, 812 to 774.

Kentucky climbed a peg to third place on wins over Mississippi and Louisiana State, annexing 12 firsts. Indiana's victory over Michigan for its 8th in a row earned fourth place for the Hoosiers.

St. Louis bettered its position, moving up two notches on wins over Houston and La Salle while Washington, which split a weekend series with Idaho, tumbled from third to sixth.

Kansas State, St. Bonaventure, Seton Hall and Iowa all strengthened their positions among the top 10. St. John's dropped from eighth to 12th and New York University, beaten by West Virginia, 100-75, fell from sixth to 13th.

Olympic Test

Penn State for the second time will be the site of the National AAU-Olympic gymnastic championships, April 25 and 26.

Crusaders, Epars Notch 5th Victories

The Epars and Crusaders became the first IM cage teams to notch five victories, as the undefeated leaders of Leagues A and B won over Dorm 39 and the Pythons, respectively, in Friday night's floor action.

Dorm 39 carried a 2-2 record into its game with the Epars, but couldn't keep pace with League A leaders as it went down to a 29-16 defeat.

Stay Close

The Crusaders had a tougher time in keeping their slate unblemished as they won over the Pythons, 18-12. The winners led, however, by a 13-2 margin at halftime and had to stall the Pythons' second half effort.

The Sea Hawks stayed just one game behind the Epars by taking a forfeit victory over the Radads. Joseph Beere tallied 12 points to lead the Blues to a 31-13 triumph over the Mustangs. In the final game of League A, the Fireballs racked up their third win by defeating the Puddy Cats, 24-7. Paul Klempay led the winners with 10 markers.

Dorm 35 Unbeaten

In League B action, the Bears and the Cats fought a battle for second place, one game behind league-leading Crusaders, and the Bears came out on top by a narrow 22-19 margin. Dorm 26 used a margin in the first half to edge the Beaver House, 15-14. Dorm 26 had an 11-5 lead at the half. Marilyn Hall won its second game by outlasting Dorm 30 in another close game, 23-17.

One game was played in League K and in this tussle Dorm 35 remained unbeaten in four games by smashing McElwain Hall, 26-19, as Bob Greenly notched 11 points.
