

Stockroom Men Feel Safe Amid Chemicals

By HELEN LUYBEN

In spite of handling hundreds of chemicals daily—some explosive, and others strong enough to eat the skin off their hands—the four men in charge of the Chemistry department stockroom consider their jobs among the safest.

"We just wash our hands more times every day than anyone else on campus," they explain.

Show Officials Are Announced By Riding Club

Committee chairmen and show officers have been named for the Penn State Riding Club's third annual horse show to be held May 3-4, according to Donald Duncan, club president.

The show officers are George Reese, manager, Emil Berger, announcer, Mary Sullivan, secretary, and Robert Brickner, treasurer.

The chairmen, assistants, and committees named are Jean Lathlaen, chairman of the advertising committee; Nancy Wild, and Joy Owens, assistants; Edna Grabiak, chairman of the publicity committee; Marilyn Yingst, assistant; Miriam Burritt, chairman of the ticket committee; Ruth King, assistant; Ruth Rand, chairman of the program committee; Bettie Caskie, assistant; Marian Whitmore, chairman of the class sponsorship committee; Frederick Brodnox, assistant; John Morgan, chairman of the stabling committee; Earl Hower, chairman of the grounds committee; Matthew Douglas, assistant; Ross Steadman, chairman of the concessions committee; and Ross Bannard, assistant.

The committee members, according to Duncan, will be selected Wednesday.

Pittman to Address Bible Fellowship Tonight

Richard S. Pittman, associated with the Wycliff School of Linguistics, will speak to the Penn State Bible Fellowship at 7:30 tonight in 405 Old Main.

Pittman spent seven years on Bible translation in the Aztec language in Mexico. He was director of the Mexican board of the Wycliff translations. He also taught Spanish at Wheaton College for two years.

Pittman's topic will be "The Bread of Life."

4-H Club Sponsors Square Dance Tonight

The campus 4-H club will hold a square dance from 8 to 11 tonight in the TUB.

Admission is 40 cents. Tickets may be purchased in the lobby of the Agriculture building until 5 p.m., and at the dance.

Harshbarger To Speak In Chapel

The Rev. Luther H. Harshbarger, College chaplain, will speak on "The Valley of the Shadow" at the chapel service to be held at 11 a.m. Sunday in Schwab Auditorium.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Willa Taylor, will sing, "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," by Luther, the anthem, "The Last Words of David," by Thompson, and, "Only Begotten, Word of God Eternal," a Rouen melody.

George Ceiga, organist, will play as the prelude, "Piece Heroique," by Franck, "Pastorale," by Franck, as the offertory, and "Fugue," by Franck, as the postlude.

Zeta Tau Alpha and Alpha Xi Delta sororities will attend the service in a body.

Flowers will be presented by Sigma Phi Alpha.

Until this year, according to Harshbarger, it has never been the function of the College chaplain to speak in chapel. Although the College service is among three of the most highly-attended chapels in the country, there had never been a full-time chaplain.

Harshbarger also announced that President Milton S. Eisenhower has found it necessary to postpone his chapel address, scheduled for March 30.

Harold Perkins, assistant dean of men, spoke on pledge training and its effects on the pledges and townspeople. He said pledge training could be misconstrued if it stressed "silliness and harmfulness."

He said he felt that certain techniques could be applied so the situation could be cleared up.
