SU Issue Must Come to Test-See Page 4

VOL. 52, No. 84

STATE COLLEGE, PA., THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 14, 1952

PRICE FIVE CENTS

Films to Be Shown At Frosh Meeting

All freshman men and women undergoing customs are required to attend a meeting at 7 tonight in 10 Sparks, David Mutchler, Tribunal chairman, and Joan Yerger, chairman of the Freshman Customs and Regulations Board, said yesterday.

Three movies will be shown at the meeting. The first movie will be "This Is Penn State," a 22 minute, technicolor film produced the variety of educational op-portunities available. The story is

40 Frosh Attend

from customs, one to a veteran and one to a frosh who had had

Wilson III at Home

immunity.

his graduation.

Pennsylvania.

36 Students Called for Physicals

Pre-induction physical examinations will be given to 36 College students, Local Board No. 44, Bellefonte, announced yesterday.
The students were ordered to report Friday at 5:40 a.m., to the Greyhound Post House to be transported to Altoona for the ex-

SDX Gridiron Banquet to Be At Nittany Lion

be held March 26 at the Nittany Lion Inn, Moylan Mills, president, announced yesterday.

President Milton S. Eisenhower will attend the banquet. Invita-tions will also be sent to faculty members and prominent town, campus, and administration personalities, Mills said.

Elected to head the various banquet committees were Andrew McNeillie and Edward Gildea, stage; Ted Soens, lights Leonard Kolasinski, invitations and menus; James Gromiller and David Pellnitz, flowers and dec-orations; Lee Stern, publicity; and Arnold Bloom, signs.

Plans for the journalism placement bulletin were approved at the SDX meeting Tuesday and James Gromiller was appointed editor. The bulletin includes names, photographs, and short biographies of journalism grad-uates who wish to be included in the bulletin.

Details of a scholarship for a journalism student were discussed with H. R. Kinley, head College accountant.

Froth Still on Sale

The Penn State Froth "Stay Loose" issue will be on sale again today at the Froth booths.

11

Chapman to Recommend Election Code

Duo-Pianists o Feature here. The picture portrays aspects of student life on the campus and told through the eyes of an alum-Vera Appleton and Michael nus of the College who returns to the campus some time after Field, duo-pianists who will be two days after contracting and The second picture, also in the Community Concert program with the bill for the work. The technicolor, is titled "Research Is at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow in Schwab For People." It, too, was produced Auditorium will include compoon the campus and deals with the varied types of research done at Penn State and the values of Franz Schubert, and Johannes Such research to the people of Brahms in their performance.

The piano team will open with two Bach numbers—"Overture transported to Altoona for the examinations.

Students who will take physicals are Gifford Albright, David Budenstein, Donald Carlson, James Cowan, Jack Eisenmann, William Forrest, John Gabel, John Grahm, Joseph Gratson, Gordon Greer, James Griffin, John Haines, George Hamilton.

Samuel Hamilton, Paul Heitzenrater, Clifford Hoch, Robert Irwin, Donald Jacoby, Jr., Roderick LeVan, Richard Levy, Louis Martini, William McDonald, Thomas Mears, John Megles.

Students who will take physical and sught and the student and the program with "Waltz" dealing at one piano, and Brahms' "Variations on a Theme by Haydn."

Approximately 40 frosh attended a meeting last night at which they were given a quiz dealing with the student handbook, student government, the campus, and College traditions and songs. Twenty-nine frosh took the quiz Monday night, with only 12 making satisfactory grades. The highest grade of all the tests given was a 98, scored by James Magee. Only one person failed the test last night.

Two More Exempt

According to Mutchler, all frosh pianos by Chasing men who did not the program with "cannot on a Theme by Haydn."

Approximately 40 frosh attended a meeting last night at which they were given a quiz dealing with the student handbook, student government, the campus, inoff); and "Perpetual Motion" (von Weber), arranged by Kowassa a 98, scored by James Magee. (Wilhaud); "Jeux de Plein Air" (Wilhaud); "Jeux de Plein Air" (Copland); and "The Blue Danture Character at the program with "waltz" (Carensky); "Romance" (Rachman-inoff); and "Perpetual Motion" (von Weber), arranged by Kowassa a 98, scored by James Magee. (Wilhaud); "Jeux de Plein Air" (Wilhaud); "Jeux de Plein Air" (Copland); and "The Blue Danture Character at the program with the student handbook, student government, the campus, "Arensky); "Romance" (Rachman-inoff); and "Perpetual Motion" (von Weber), arranged by Kowassa a 98, scored by James Magee. (Wilhaud); "Jeux de Plein Air" (Copland); and "The Blue Danture Character at the program with the student tini, William McDonald, Thomas Mears, John Megles.

Clyde Metz, Peter Meyers, Andrew Mills, John Morris, Carl Rehig, Oliver Sax, Edgar Shelly Jr., David Simon, Joseph Stratos, Harry Taback, and Donald Vosel.

Last night.

Two More Exempt

According to Mutchler, all frosh men who did not take the quiz and all those who did not make satisfactory grades will receive a summons to appear before Tribunal. Approximately 22 such summons will be issued.

1. Athletic holic 2. Appointment (Copland); and "The Blue Danube" (Strauss) as prepared for two pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will bring their own Steinway pianos with them to the concert.

The group will described the concert of the pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

Field and Miss Appleton will be included. The company pianos by Chasins.

bunal. Approximately 22 such Spring Registration summons will be issued. Mutchler stated that he had Total Reaches 10,713 granted two further exemptions

A total of 10,713 students have registered for the spring semester, previous customs. Eight men had previously been granted customs the office of the registrar has reported.
Of the figure 7928 are men,
2785 are women.

The report classified the en-rollment as follows: Full time

Recommendations for the revision of the elections code will be presented to All-College Cabinet tonight by Carrol Chapman, chairman of the cabinet elections committee.

The committee will recommend that elections for All-College, junior, and senior class officers be held April 22 and 23, with campaigns beginning April 16 and continuing until April 21.

Changes in the section of the code dealing with party expenses are also proposed by the committee. The group will suggest that Grand Jury parties be required to submit bills for campaigning expenses within featured in the presentation of that samples of all printed matter material would then be evaluated by the committee.

Posters in Dorms, TUB Other proposed changes in the code include raising the amount that can be spent on campaign, from $150 to $200, allowing no more than $50 in donations to be

ALL-COLLEGE CABINET Agenda

Roll Call Minutes of previous meeting Adoption of agenda Reports of officers Reports of committees:

Elections committee
 Old Business:

Constitutional amendment 2. Religion-in-Life Week contribution New Business:

1. Athletic holiday
2. Appointment of committees

The group will further suggest that campaign posters be allowed only in the dormitories and the runway.

The Port Authority, prior to the field, to halt work on the runway.

lege Constitution regarding the

To Probe Irashes

NEWARK, N.J., Feb. 13 (AP)-A Federal Grand Jury investigation of Newark airport and three plane crashes at neighboring Elizabeth was ordered today as four other investigations were underway

Federal Judge Thomas Meaney announced that the crashes and the airport operations would be investigated for any possible violations of federal criminal law.

The announcement of the fifth investigation spurred by Monday's crash came as the death toll rose to 32 with the death of Sarah Aronwald of the Bronx, N.Y., a plane passenger. Twenty-eight persons still are in hospi-

Meanwhile, construction crews went ahead on a new $2,500,000 instrument runway at closed Newark airport. Officials of the recommend that the word donations be defined as money given instructions from the Port of New which operates Union Building and Construction

Also on Agenda

Also on the agenda for the meeting will be a discussion of an athletic holiday for the fall semester, the second reading and further discussion on the proposed amendment to the All-College Constitution regarding the Public clamor for the removed. the three Elizabeth crashes which

· Public clamor for the removal The annual Gridiron Banquet, sponsored by Sigma Delta Chi, men's journalism honorary, will be held March 26 at the Nittany

Wilson III GT Home

rollment as follows: Full time changing of student fees, a de-location on the amount of cabinet's called today it wasn't too long part time men, 724; part time wo-men, 2469; cision on the amount of cabinet's called today it wasn't too long part time men, 724; part time wo-men, 251; not classifield, 170 men, will time woen, 2469; cision on the amount of cabinet's called today it wasn't too long ago when the agitation was on when the agitation was on the definition of the fence—men, 251; not classifield, 170 men, will time changing of student fees, a de-location on the amount of cabinet's called today it wasn't too long ago when the agitation was on the definition of the fence cannot have the field to the feel of once-proud Newark airport recision on the amount of cabinet's called today it wasn't too long ago when the agitation was on the definition of the fence called today it wasn't too long ago when the agitation was on the committees. fighting to save the field from extinction.

And a Doggie Valentine to You, Too

"DOC'S" DAY finally came around today. Doc, owned by Wrestling Coach Charlie Speidel, and his heart-shaped brown spot seem to occupy top position with Betsie Bell, 6, daughter of Louis Bell, director of the department of public information at the College. Speidel is wellknown for calling everybody in sight "Doc." The naming of the dog, recently acquired, was

Senate Ignores Customs Plans

As required by the Women's Student Government Association constitution WSGA Senate will not act on the proposals of chan-ges in freshman customs but will wait for a recommendation from Freshman Council.

The proposals include one approved by Tribunal setting up a coordinated program of customs for both men and women and the plan presented at a freshman class meeting proposing more liberal dating regulations for new freshmen.

Two Senate members expressed approval of the proposed amend-ment to the All-College Constitution permitting a statistical poll of student opinion to be conducted in the event of a petition being signed by ten per cent of the student body requesting the Janet Herd, junior senator, and Marlene Heyman, Panhellenic Council representative, said the poll would be more likely to be "unbiased" than a referendum and would help take "politics" out of cabinet decisions.

Senate will investigate reports that freshman women have been that freshman women have been dating in McKee and Hamilton Halls. The dorms are off bounds since they are men's living units.

Since several members of Freshman Council did not make the 1.5 average required by the constitution, they will be replaced by the vice presidents of freshman living units if they qualify. If the vice presidents are not eligible, senate will appoint representatives on recommendations from hostesses. tions from hostesses.