

Law School Entrance Tests Are Scheduled

The law school admission test will be given at 8:45 a.m. Saturday in 215 Willard Hall, according to Dr. R. Wallace Brewster of the Department of Political Science.

The tests, which are required of applicants who desire to enter many American law schools, are prepared by the Educational Testing Service. Questions in the test measure verbal aptitudes and reasoning ability rather than acquired information. They are objective tests.

Tests will also be given April 26 and Aug. 9 in Altoona, Bethlehem, Chambersburg, DuBois, Easton, Erie, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Kittanning, Lancaster, Oil City, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Pottsville, Reading, Scranton, State College, Sunbury, Uniontown, Warren, Warren, Wellsboro, Wilkes-Barre, Williamsport, and York.

Applications for the test must be made four to six weeks before the testing date. Applications and bulletins for the test may be obtained from the Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N.J.

The time saved in air travel is lost, to a considerable extent, by the time it takes to travel to and from the airport, he said.

State College is extremely fortunate in having a suitable site located adjacent to the city, he said.
